BANNS OF MARRIAGE:

II – Jesse Snider and Therese Azar
Here St. Raphael's, El Paso, TX

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER JEFF:

I am pleased to welcome Brother Terence Skorka, C.P., a representative of Passionist Overseas Missions, who will speak at all the Masses about the Propagation of the Faith.

Next Sunday, Sr. Kathy Schlueter, C.S.J. will speak at all the Masses to us about Our Lady of the Hamptons Regional Catholic School. January 31st is the start of Catholic Schools week.

This Monday, we celebrate the birth of Martin Luther King. It is always good for us to remember that justice often has a price. Dr. King was a man of courage who delivered his message in spite of threats and intimidation. He was a great example for all of us.

ONE DAY TRIP TO WASHINGTON D.C.

The recent debates in Washington over the Health Care bill show how vulnerable the unborn might be in the pending legislation. On January 22nd, the anniversary of Roe vs. Wade decision of the Supreme Court, we will go to Washington DC to let members of the Congress know that the protection of the unborn is not negotiable. Please join us for this one-day trip; you see it is a matter of life and death. Call Jim Drew at 728-6144 for information.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time January 17, 2010

Is 62:1-5; Ps 96: 1-2,2-3, 7-8,9-10; 1 Cor 12:4-11; Jn 2:1-12

The prophet Isaiah viewed a broken marriage as a metaphor for Israel's relationship with God. When Israel was in exile, the people felt abandoned and unworthy of God's love. But God had not forgotten them. Like a loving bridegroom going forth at night to meet his bride, so God came in the darkness to greet the beloved, forgiving their sins and espousing them again. Israel's vindication was as bright as the dawn. All nations beheld her glory.

Jesus was the bridegroom who poured choice wine for the guests at a wedding banquet. At Cana, the wine had run out. Nothing satisfied the people's spiritual thirst. Mary presented their need to her son: "They have no wine." Jesus offered them new wine in exchange for bland, polluted water, grace overflowing on grace.

For reflection: Am I a sign of new wine in my community? How can I satisfy the thirsty people in need of God's mercy and love?

OUR LADY OF THE HAMPTONS

Information leading toward placement in grades K-8 at OLH for the 2010-2011 school year is now available at the school. Personal interviews will be scheduled for January 2010. Placement in the Pre-school program at St. Rosalie's campus for three & four year olds, as well as kindergarten class at the Southampton Campus is at a premium and early application is advised. Limited seating is available in grades one through seven for the next school year. Please call 283-9140 for details or consult the school website www.olh.org.

Today's Gospel tells of the beginning of Jesus' public ministry.

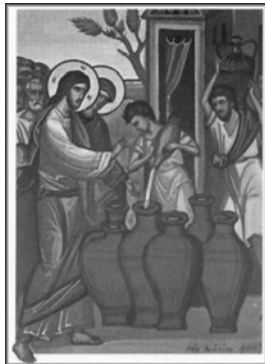

Gospel

John 2:1-3, 5-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me?" My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

For reflection: Why do you think this miracle happened at a wedding feast?

Prayer:

God of Life, in the miracle at Cana your son revealed your love.

May our actions be signs of your goodness and care for all creation. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

January 20, 2010

Today we hear the familiar story of how David, who was young, was able to overcome the great warrior Goliath by trusting that God would help him.

Reading:

1 Samuel 17:32-33;37, 45abc, 46a, 46e-47

A reading from the first book of Samuel

David said to Saul, "let no one's heart fail because of Goliath; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth." David said, "The Lord, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine." So Saul said to David, "Go, and may the Lord be with you!" David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. This very day the Lord will deliver you into my hand, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the Lord does not save by the sword and the spear; for the battle is the Lord's and he will give you into my hand."

The word of the Lord.

For reflection: Do you believe that God calls young people to do important things?

Prayer:

God of heaven and earth,

You call us - the young and the old—

To fight against what is evil and what hurts others.

Give us the courage to be strong

And never to doubt that you are with us.

We ask this through your Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Amen
