Third Sunday in Ordinary Time January 24, 2010

Neh 8:2-4, 5-6, 8-10; Ps 19:8,9,10,15; I Cor 12:12-30; Lk 1:1-4, 4:14-21

The returning exiles were disheartened by the staggering task of rebuilding their ruined temple. Ezra the priest encouraged them by proclaiming God's word. The people raised their hands and shouted, "Amen! Amen!" When they heard how they had forsaken God's word, they bowed low, prostrated themselves, and wept. But Ezra told them not to mourn. "Eat and drink," he urged, "for today is holy."

The psalmist extolled God's word that refreshed the soul and gave joy and enlightenment to the heart and mind. "Your words are spirit and life!" Paul reminded the church that in baptism we are gathered by Christ into one Body and given to drink of the one Spirit. The gifts God gives must be shared for the benefit of all.

As Jesus taught God's word in the assembly, all were loud in his praises. But when he came to his hometown, the tongues grew silent. When Jesus read aloud from the book of the prophet Isaiah, his words made the people uneasy. God anointed Jesus to bring glad tidings to the poor and suffering and to announce God's favor to all men, women and children. Today, these words have yet to be fulfilled in our hearing. God's word must be proclaimed to all.

For reflection: Who are the people in my community who feel excluded and deprived of God's gifts? How can I let them know that they are special to God?

BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN FOR THE LIFE CENTER OF LONG ISLAND

On the weekend of January 30th & 31st, our parish will be hosting a Baby Bottle Fundraiser to benefit The Life Center of Long Island. The Life Center is a crisis pregnancy center that counsels women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. They provide maternity housing, medical care, referrals, cribs, car seats, diapers and ALL other baby items that are needed. We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your spare change. Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer on the bottle.

The prayer attached to the bottle will enable the counselors at The Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear. It especially opens a mother's heart to accept the truth. We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to call The Life Center in the first place.

Let us pray with our whole heart for the lives of our unborn children.

Prayers and history of the Church

January 24, 2010

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus, using the words of the prophet Isaiah, announcing his ministry to the people.

Gospel

Luke 4:14-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath Day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives,
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."
And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."
The gospel of the Lord.

For reflection: How do you think people felt as they heard Jesus reading this passage?

Prayer:

Loving God, your son Jesus brought hope and the good news of salvation to those who suffered.
May we, who hear these words today,
trust that you continue your saving work.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

January 24, 2010

Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

January 25, 2010

Today is the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. The story of how Paul became a follower of Jesus is very dramatic. Paul was an important leader in the early church.

Reading:

Acts 22:6-8, 10-13, 16

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Paul said, " While I was on my way and approaching Damascus (duh-MAS-kuhs), about noon a great light from heaven suddenly shone about me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' Then he said to me, ' I am Jesus of Nazareth whom you are persecuting.' I asked, 'What am I to do, Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Get up and go to Damascus; there you will be told everything that has been assigned to you to do.' Since I could not see because of the brightness of the light, those who were with me took my hand and led me to Damascus.

A certain Ananias, who was a devout man according to the law and well spoken of by all the Jews living there, came to me; and standing beside me, he said, 'Brother Saul, regain your sight! Get up, be baptized, and have your sins washed away, calling on his name.'" The word of the Lord.

For reflection: Are we sometimes blind to the ways that Jesus is present in our lives?

Prayer:

Almighty God, open our eyes to you and change our hearts
so that we might be your faithful disciples.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.
Amen
