FROM THE DESK OF FATHER JEFF:

I would like to congratulate Lisa Marie Brady on receiving the Rite of Continuing Conversion. Lisa is going to receive the Sacraments of Eucharist, Confirmation and be accepted into the Church at Easter.

Please be as generous as possible in the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Our goal is $50,000. Eighty percent of what we receive over that comes to us. Thank you for anything you give. I made a pledge myself.

During the Lenten Season we are asked to pray, fast and give alms. (Give to those less fortunate). When the Church says fast, it not mean starve yourself. It means not eating in between meals.

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. This Collection helps to fund six Catholic organizations that improve the quality of life and protect human dignity. Your gift will support agricultural development to strengthen economies and create food sustainability, provide outreach services to survivors of human trafficking, and supply pastoral care and advocacy for immigrants and refugees. By helping the marginalized and impoverished, you give hope to Jesus in disguise. Please be charitable in next week's Catholic Relief Services Collection.

If you have a question about your Catholic Faith please fill out the bottom form and drop it in the collection basket. I will answer it in a future bulletin.

NEW LECTORS AND EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

If anyone would like to become a lector or Eucharistic Minister, please call Father Jeff at the Parish Office. New training is being scheduled for May.

Stations of the Cross: Every Friday at 3 PM in the Church.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE

All Catholics who have reached their fourteenth year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of eighteen and fifty-nine inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day

Prayers and history of the Church

March 7, 2010

In today's gospel Jesus tells us about a parable about a tree that has not produced fruit. Remember that Jesus used parables, stories from ordinary life, to teach us about God and God's kingdom.

Gospel

Luke 13:6-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down!

Why should it be wasting soil?' He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

The Gospel of the Lord.

For reflection: Do we use the gifts and talents that God has given us?

Prayer:

O holy God,
You are patient and kind.
Help us to nourish the gifts
that you have given us
so that we might serve and praise you.
We ask this through our Lord, Jesus, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

3rd Sunday of Lent

March 12, 2010

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of the two greatest commandments.

Reading

Mark 12:28-34

A reading from the first letter of Mark

One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that Jesus answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'he is one, and besides him there is no other'; and 'to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbor as oneself;— this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.

The Gospel of the Lord.

For reflection: What does it mean to love with all our heart, all our soul, and all our mind?

Prayer:

Almighty God, Creator of all,
help us to love you
and to serve you in
our thoughts, in our words,
and in our actions.
Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
