FROM THE DESK OF FATHER JEFF:

At this writing, the Easter Collection is over $30,425. Thank you for your generosity.

We have over $15,000 pledged to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Keep up the good work.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the ladies who decorated the altar for Easter (and some husbands), the lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, altar servers, ushers, choir and musicians. They made it an Easter to remember.

A question from the collection asked, "Why is the 'cut off' age for fasting during lent 59? Why any age: Why not older than 59? Who decides this rule?"

The ages are set in Canon Law, which is the Law of the Church. Why 59? I believe the answer has to do with a concern for older people's health. I feel that 59 is just an arbitrary age considered to be in the senior citizen range ( I can say this because I am over 59!)

Next Sunday there will be a Special Second Collection for the support of our parish. Please take home a copy of this week's Bulletin for further information and an update from our parish Finance Committee. There are envelopes in the pews for your convenience.

If you have a question about your Catholic Faith please fill out the bottom form and drop it in the collection basket. I will answer it in a future bulletin.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Paul Turner

The Second Sunday of Easter is also called "Divine Mercy Sunday." When Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina in the jubilee year of 2000, he added the title to this day. In visions, Faustina heard Jesus request that the image of divine mercy be venerated on the Sunday after Easter, a day John Paul lovingly chose for Faustina's canonization.

Many communities display the image of Divine Mercy on this day. Jesus' penetrating, compassionate gaze reaches out to the viewer. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbols of blood and water – Eucharist and Baptism. Many Catholics confess their sins or pray before the Blessed Sacrament in conjunction with this feast.

A priest may use the prayers from the votive Mass for Divine Mercy on any day when a stronger feast does not conflict. The Second Sunday of Easter has its own prayers and readings, so the votive Mass for Divine Mercy is never permitted on that day. Instead we observe the much older tradition of the octave day of Easter. The Gospel story of the doubting Thomas is heard every year on this day because Jesus appeared to him a week after the resurrection. The other texts for this Mass refer to the season and to baptism. This day used to be called Dominica in albis, the Sunday of white garments, because those baptized at the Easter Vigil wore their new vesture to conclude a week of catechesis about the sacraments.

Today the only change to this liturgy is its title: the Second Sunday of Easter, or Divine Mercy Sunday. The mercy of God may be proclaimed in the homily or the prayer of the faithful, but especially in the actions of believers, who extend God's mercy to all they meet.

APRIL 11, 2010
Second Sunday of Easter

April 11, 2010

Today's Gospel reminds us that after Jesus died, and before his disciples knew that he had risen, they were frightened. Jesus appears to them and gives them a very special gift. Today is called Divine Mercy Sunday, and we remember another great gift - God's mercy and forgiveness.

Gospel

John 20:19-22

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has send me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them "Receive the Holy Spirit."

The Gospel of the Lord.

For reflection: Why does Jesus give the disciples the gift of the Holy Spirit and sends them to continue his work?

Prayer:

Merciful God,
We thank you for your gift of peace
Witht the help of the Holy Spirit,
May we learn to trust in your mercy,
And may we be merciful to others.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

April 14, 2010

As the apostles continued to preach and to carry on Jesus' ministry, the chief priests became jealous because so many people were following the apostles. Today's reading tells about a conflict between the apostles and the authorities.

Reading

Act 5:17a,18-20,21ce-23,25-26

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Then the high priest took action; he arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison. But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors, brought them out, and said, "Go, stand in the temple and tell the people the whole message about this life."

When the high priest and those with him arrived, they sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the temple police went there, they did not find them in the prison; so they returned and reported, "We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside." Then someone arrived and announced, "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!" Then the captain went with the temple police and brought them, but without violence, for they were afraid of being stoned.

The Word of the Lord.

Reflection: What gives the apostles the courage to be obedient to God?
