THE QUESTION BOX

Just for fun—and some ongoing education—each week's bulletin offers a question on our Catholic spirituality and tradition. Enjoy!

- Q. Which of the following is NOT part of the ritual for sacramental anointing of the sick?
- A) anointing the forehead of the sick person With blessed oil?
 - B) anointing the palms of the sick person With blessed oil?
 - C) reciting the Litany of the Saints
 - D) laying hands on the head of the sick Person while praying silently
- A. The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is usually a brief and "quiet" ritual, but it is also a beautiful one, and contains some rich symbolism. Among the key parts of the sacrament, are the laying on of hands on the head (where the priest literally places his hands on the head of the sick person while praying silently), and, of course, the anointing with blessed olive oil—on the forehead of the sick person, and the palms of his or her hands. There is however, no recitation of the Litany of Saints, so (c) is the correct answer.

GOLDEN WEDDING JUBILEE CELEBRATION

This spring, couples that have been married fifty years or more will be honored at liturgies on Sunday, April 22 at the Church of Saint Lawrence the Martyr in Sayville and on Sunday, May 20, at the Church of Maria Regina in Seaford. Both liturgies will begin at 2:30 PM. Couples may register for ONE liturgy. Registration forms and complete instructions can be obtained at the Parish Office. Registration must be received by the Office of Worship by April 15th for the April liturgy and by May 3rd for the May liturgy. There will be additional celebrations in the fall for those who may find that more convenient. If you have any questions you may call 516-678-5800 Ext. 207.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today was once called in Latin "Dominica in albis," or "Sunday in White," because the church was full of newly baptized Christians wearing their white baptismal garments. Another old title, best forgotten, is "Low Sunday." There's nothing low about this festive Sunday in Easter, the eighth day since the first "Alleluia" rang out. In Christian tradition, the number eight is a symbol of fulfillment, transition, breaking through the seven-day rhythm of life to a new way of being. That is why many baptismal fonts have eight sides. The greatest feasts of our calendar are always extended for eight days, called an "octave." In a way, this means that this first week of Easter is really considered to be one great day. This octave day of Easter sees the best features of Easter still vibrant: joyful alleluias, lush spring flowers everywhere, sprinkling with water, and a lavish table where the Lord gives us himself as bread and wine.

For Orthodox Christians, today is the Easter feast, since their tradition requires that the Christian Passover cannot begin until the days of the Jewish Passover are ended.

Second Sunday of Easter Extreme Christians

This Sunday's first reading is one of the descriptions of ideal apostolic life. Remember John's Gospel saying that God is love? Here we have Luke's version in Acts of that same principle. He begins with the community being one in heart and mind. They not only believed in the same Risen Lord, but their love for him showed in their love for each other. They were not just a community or parish; they were one family.

Luke shows two ways the Christian communities began to change the world. First, they told anyone who would listen about the Resurrection "with great power" (Acts 4:33). We can take that as power to perform miracles, healings, etc., but it can also mean the power of conviction. Christians were so excited about Jesus' resurrection that they couldn't stop talking about it. Their fervor was infectious. We could use some of that fervor today. I sometimes think the only reason we don't perform miracles ourselves is that we don't really believe we could. Maybe we need to remind ourselves that we aren't the ones performing the miracles—God is. Remember how many times Jesus told people that their faith had cured them? God can perform miracles at will, but we can't receive them if we don't have faith. Instead of trying to believe that you can perform a miracle, try believing that God can do it for you.

The disciples also stood out by their willingness to give up everything for the Lord. Luke uses the example of selling their property in order to share the proceeds with those in need. But some went even further, giving up their lives for the faith. That kind of witness says that the Resurrection is real and I expect to take part in it. It also says that nothing can make me give up my faith. So what am I willing to give up for the Lord? It's easy to throw money into a collection for the poor. How about giving some time to feed the hungry, or help build a home for someone? What can you give to help spread the faith—maybe the time to be a sponsor for a catechumen? The love you show to others could be their only experience of God's love.

OPPOSE THE "REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH ACT"

The Reproductive Health Act seeks to have abortion declared a 'fundamental right' in New York, prohibiting even basic protections, such as parental notification, limits on government funding of abortion, and a ban on gender-selection abortions. The law would allow non-physicians to do abortions, jeopardize any agency that does not refer for abortion and seriously threaten conscience protections for hospitals and medical professionals. For the sake of pregnant women and their unborn children urge our legislators to oppose this bill.

Prayers and history of the Church

April 15, 2012

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday, when we remember God's great compassion. In today's Gospel, Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them a special gift. Compassion is love that moves us to help others.

Gospel

John 20:19-22

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."

After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them "Receive the Holy Spirit."

The Gospel of the Lord.

For Reflection: How does the gift of the Holy Spirit show God's compassion?

Prayer:

Loving God,
Send your Holy Spirit
To comfort, strengthen,
And guide us.
Make us one in the Spirit
And a source of peace
For the world.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
Your Son, who lives and reigns with
You and the Holy Spirit, one God,
Forever & ever. Amen

Second Sunday of Easter

The Story of Thomas

John 20:24-29

One of the eleven disciples was missing. This was a man named Thomas.

After Jesus was gone, Thomas came back to the room where everyone was hiding. When he entered, the disciples told him, "Thomas, oh Thomas, it is true! We've seen Jesus! He's alive!" He said to them, "No. I won't believe it unless I see the nail marks in His hands. I have to put my finger where the nails were. If I can put my hand into His side, then I'll believe you."

Eight days later, Jesus visited the disciples again. This time Thomas was with them. Jesus walked right through the locked doors. "Peace be with you," He said. Then He said, "Thomas, come here with your finger and see My hands. Touch the wounds in My hand. Put your hand into My side. Stop doubting now and believe."

Thomas felt very ashamed for not believing. He hung his head, "My Lord and my God!"

Jesus answered him, "Is it because you have seen Me, that you now believe? There will be many who do not see and are still willing to believe. Those people are special to Me."

Jesus was talking about people like you and me.

Do you believe or are you like doubting Thomas?
