Pope Francis' Questionnaire

November 9/10

Dear Parish Family,

This week, many sources of Catholic news have reported something quite unique. Pope Francis will be calling a synod of Bishops together in the fall of 2014. In preparation, he is asking Bishops to complete a questionnaire on issues of importance to the church. The Bishops have been asked in turn to distribute the questionnaire as widely as possible to parishes and deaneries.

I think it is no coincidence that the announcement comes as we are celebrating the end of the year of faith, a year of reflection and prayer to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Second Vatican Council. This council brought into focus a pivotal idea in Christianity: that the Holy Spirit, the voice and inspiration of God, speaks through every member of the church. This of course is not the same thing as saying that every person is an individual and absolute authority on things of faith. It does mean that people together each have an important contribution to make to our understanding of the life of faith.

In an article in America Magazine this week, Father Jim Martin reminds readers that the Second Vatican Council in the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium proclaims: "They [the laity] are, by [reason of] knowledge, competence or outstanding ability which they may enjoy, permitted and sometimes even obliged to express their opinion on those things which concern the good of the Church."

The specific information being asked for in this questionnaire concerns Pastoral Challenges of the Family in the Context of Evangelization. It asks about the support that Catholic values receive from society and government. The survey also asks about the way church teachings are received, understood, and accepted by the faithful. It seems clear that Pope Francis is particularly concerned that the church would always speak in a way that its love, care, and concern for people are evident and understood. In asking for this information, it is clear that he wishes the entire Catholic community to share this concern.

As this year of faith comes to a conclusion, Pope Francis reminds us of the great vision of this remarkable council: that the prayers, hopes, and dreams of the people of this earth will always be shared and understood by their church.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Please join us on Thursday, November 28th, at 9 AM to celebrate Thanksgiving Day. This is also our Basilica's 2nd Anniversary. On November 21, 2011, our parish was declared to be a Basilica church by Pope Benedict XVI. I invite you to come to this special mass, to bring your family and friends, and to bring a gift for our food pantry. I also invite you to bring something from your table to bless — a loaf of bread, a bottle of wine, a treat to share. In this way you can unite your thanksgiving table with the altar of thanksgiving.

Eucharistic Adoration Concludes the Year of Faith

During the first three days of Thanksgiving Week parishes throughout our diocese will be hosting Eucharistic Adoration to celebrate the conclusion of the year of faith. Our parish will participate on Monday, November 25 from 12 noon (after the mass) until 6 pm. We would like to be sure that someone is present throughout this time of adoration. If you would be willing to Watch one Hour during this time of prayer please call the rectory.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

..... The fifth grade Girl Scouts visited the senior citizens at Bishop Ryan Village in Hampton Bays on All Saints' Day to do a 'reverse trick or treat' by bringing gifts and greetings to the seventy-five residents. Senior Citizen Outreach will continue with the Hamptones, the elite chorus' visit to St. Joseph's Convent, Brentwood.

Our Lady of the Hamptons School will hold its annual Bucks for Books drawing on December 16, with the big winner claiming the $15,000 jackpot. All proceeds from this raffle are used to supplement operating costs for the school. Tickets are available at the school 283-9140.

Plans are being made for the expansion of the upper middle-school program at Our Lady of the Hamptons School, focusing on the new classroom development. Information about possible enrollment is now available for the 2014-15. Early inquiry, interview and application is advised for this program as well as grades K-5. Call 283-9140 for information and appointments to tour the facility.

We invite anyone who is willing to consider the possibility of a memorial gift for the Building Fund in any amount to visit the school, call for an appointment (283-9140) or visit the website www.olh.org where a full video of the construction project is available.

Thank you to Pat & Ed Corrigan for the beautiful autumn decorations in the front of our Church. Do you have any time or talent to give to your church?

Snowbirds! Please Don't Forget Us

No doubt this is a great time to get away to warmer places for the winter or even just a few weeks. Please remember that your parish is alive and active all year round, and that these are some of the most expensive months for us! In winter our fuel bills alone are over $5000 a month — that is almost one whole collection just for heat.

So please don't forget us when you are gone. Keeping up a weekly pattern of support will keep our parish financially healthy. Enjoy your time away and remember that you can read our weekly bulletin at www.shjmbasilica.org.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

November is the Month of the Holy Souls. Our church has the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which parishioners write the names of their deceased. We recall and pray for our beloved dead, trusting in God's eternal love and mercy to welcome them into the glory of heaven.

We invite you to share this time of remembrance by writing in the book the names of those friends and loved ones who have fallen asleep in Christ. The book will be conveniently located in the church's center aisle.

Rededication of the Respect Life Statue

The Southampton Council of Knights of Columbus invites everyone to the rededication of our Respect Life Statue on Saturday, November 16th. This is the 15th anniversary of the statue. Mass will be at noon with the blessing of the statue to follow. Lunch will be served in the school auditorium next to the church. This is the Year of Faith and special graces are granted for services held in a Basilica.

Dios de los Vivos - Él es Dios, no de los muertos sino de los vivos. Como hermanos y hermanas del Señor Jesús, "el primero en nacer de entre los muertos", tenemos la seguridad de que el aguijón de la muerte es el montaje de un drama para llegar a la vida con Él. Nosotros no podemos evitar el dolor, el vacío y la tristeza que dejaron aquellos que partieron antes que nosotros, ellos se adelantaron en el camino y partieron marcados con la cruz, signo de nuestra fe. Hay razón para que lloremos, pero nuestro dolor está unido a la esperanza de la resurrección, camino de esperanza que nos dejó el Mesías, Jesús mismo. ¡Aleluya! ¡Alabemos al Señor! Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, STD © 2001, OCP. Derechos reservados

La Vida se Transforma - Con las sonogramas podemos ver a los bebés en el seno materno. Al nacer hay una transformación; al morir también. Algunas personas han tenido la experiencia de morir y describen una luz brillante, un sentido de paz profunda antes de volver a la vida terrenal. Es difícil imaginarnos la vida eterna basada en nuestra experiencia presente. Los saduceos del relato evangélico no creían en la resurrección y le hicieron a Jesús una pregunta capciosa: ¿De quién iba a ser esposa la viuda que había perdido siete esposos? Jesús les hizo ver lo irrelevante de su pregunta: "Dios no es Dios de muertos, sino de vivos". La liturgia de exequias dice: "la vida se transforma, no se termina". By María Dolores Martínez from Liturgia y Canción 2010, © 2010, OCP. All rights reserved.

El Fin de los Tiempos - Quizás nos preguntemos por qué las lecturas de hoy destacan el tema de la resurrección. En realidad, nos estamos acercando al final del año litúrgico y las lecturas de estas próximas semanas van a resaltar el fin de los tiempos y la llegada del Salvador. Tanto en el libro de los Macabeos como en la carta de san Pablo a los tesalonicenses o el Evangelio de san Lucas, el mismo tema se repite: tenemos que vivir con esperanza porque nuestro Dios es Dios de vivos y no de muertos. Hacia Él caminamos por la vida. By Juan J. Sosa, Pbro., from Liturgia y Canción 2013 © 2012, OCP. All rights reserved

Taller para la Protección de los Niños - El sábado, 16 de noviembre, a las 9:00 AM habrá un taller sobre la protección de los niños en el Apostolado Hispano en Southampton. El taller enseña sobre la realidad del abuso sexual a menores. Es muy informativo y además nos capacita para prevenir el abuso. Uno puede inscribirse para el taller por el internet en la página www.drvc.org o allí en la puerta. Pedimos que no traigan niños menores de 18 años al taller.

Sharing the Gospel

You can be like an angel because you are a child of God. You can sing songs to honor God. You can warn people to change their evil ways, or to help people who are in danger. God promises that those who do good will see God face to face. You can sit on his lap in his big rocking chair and laugh and laugh together. It will be fun in heaven.

Prayer

Lord, help me obey your commandments.

Something to Draw

Draw God sitting in his big rocking chair with you on his lap.

Mission for the Week

I will pray for those who are in danger whenever I hear a siren.
