A Call to Mission

There are only a few experiences in my life which I would describe as life changing. One of the most significant has been the chance to visit and work with missionaries serving the poorest of the poor in underdeveloped countries. These experiences have helped me understand the importance of the mission work of our church and given me a very good perspective on my own life and living.

This summer I am inviting young people from our parish to take part in a mission trip to El Salvador. Mission work is part of the life and the history of our church and offering this opportunity to young people can be a life changing and enriching experience. Since this is the first time SHJM has offered such an opportunity, it is important to answer some of the most common questions people ask.

What is a mission trip?

This is an important question because many people will confuse a mission trip with a service trip. They do have a lot in common. Both trips involve traveling to people in need and trying to bring some help and hope. In a service trip the main point is what we can do for people in need. People come back from service trips talking about building houses and other such projects. The main point of a mission trip is faith and friendship, learning about how people live their lives with faith and hope in the presence of poverty. People come back from a mission trip with new friends and with a new perspective on their own lives. For many it is a life changing experience.

Why travel to a faraway land when there are people in need right here in our country?

The truth is that there are people in need everywhere but the face of poverty is much more acute in underdeveloped nations. It is a very unique experience to leave behind the things we take most for granted and to see how most of the world really lives.

Why El Salvador?

I have worked for more than 10 years with a mission group called CFCA (Christian Foundation for Children and Aging) and with their mission center in El Salvador. I know them well and know that they will be able to offer our young people an excellent experience and will take good care of us on our travels. In addition, there is a strong tradition of work for justice and peace in El Salvador. Bishop Oscar Romero and many others who was martyred there are true witnesses to our faith.

What will we do?

We will have the opportunity to work and travel alongside missionaries in El Salvador. We will spend some time hosting a camp day for school children, visiting families in their homes, sharing faith and friendship with young adults in that country. We will also have the wonderful opportunity to share Sunday mass and pray together with the people there. We will also be able to visit the place where Bishop Romero was martyred and learn about his life.

Who can go?

The trip is perfect for high school and college age young adults. We are also hoping that some adults will come along and can help as chaperones for the trip. I am planning to go myself.

Is it expensive?

The cost of our expenses for lodging, program, and airfare will be about $1200.00. We plan to raise some funds and help you reach out for support to help with these costs.

Are there special things I will need to bring? You will need a passport if you do not have one already. Aside from that we try to travel light — the casual clothes you already have – jeans, t-shirts, and sneakers or sandals – are all you will need.

Where will we live for the week?

Our mission friends have a retreat center in Santa Anna which is very comfortable and secure. Each day we will travel to a different community nearby.

How can I find out more?

Come to an information meeting on Monday January 27 at 7 PM in the rectory. I will be happy to explain everything about the trip to you that night and show pictures and videos that will convey the spirit and beauty of El Salvador and her people.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

2014 Catholic Ministries Appeal

Serving God by Serving Others

A Letter from Bishop Murphy

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This letter brings with it my sincere hope that your Christmas and New Year's Holidays were filled with many blessings and that God continues to share His love and graces with you throughout the coming year.

While this past year certainly presented some challenges as many of our neighbors continued to struggle after Hurricane Sandy, there were also so many opportunities to see our Church alive and at work in each of our Parishes, programs and ministries.

We are so grateful for your important partnership in this critical effort.

Your generous contributions to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supported all of this critical work and helped change and enrich people's lives. You know them, let me mention a few.

Through Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities, our Church served tens of thousands of people who need help with food, clothing and shelter.

More than 113,000 young people are being taught the beauty of our faith through dedicated and trained Catechists.

Thousands of college and high school students through Youth and Campus Ministry programs. 14 men who are studying to become priests of this Diocese and 30 who are studying to become deacons.

And think of these new initiatives:

Diocesan Catechetical Congress

Hispanic Leadership Program

Riverhead Pastoral Deanery Formation Program

Because the needs of our community continue to grow each year, I request that you prayerfully consider making a gift to the 2014 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Your generous contribution will live thousands of times over in the people that you are helping our Church to serve.

Thank you for all that you have already done and thank you for considering this request. I know that you join me in praying for the continued success of this Appeal, which enables us to serve the people of God on Long Island.

With my prayers and gratitude, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop of Rockville Centre

Pescadores de Hombres - “Conviértanse, porque ya está cerca el Reino de los Cielos”. Jesús comienza a predicar para los que ven la gran luz de la Buena Nueva. Su labor se inicia con dos pares de hermanos, cuatro pescadores, a quienes hace “pescadores de hombres”, proclamadores del Reino de Dios, apóstoles y embajadores de la Buena Nueva. ¿Cómo respondes tú a la Buena Nueva? Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, STD © 2001, OCP. Derechos reservados

Llamados a Predicar el Reino - En la liturgia de hoy las lecturas nos trasladan del ministerio de Jesús al ministerio de sus apóstoles. Escuchamos el llamado que Jesús hace a los primeros apóstoles a predicar por toda Galilea la conversión al reino y el arrepentimiento de todos los pecados. Se escucha de nuevo el eco de ese llamado en la Carta a los Corintios (segunda lectura). San Pablo exige que cesen las discordias de la comunidad y que renazca la comprensión y el amor, frutos del Espíritu que todos recibieron por el bautismo. En nuestras comunidades también se escucha el eco de los mismos textos. Por ser humanos, podemos caer presos de los sentimientos negativos que nos separan del amor de Dios y del prójimo. Por ser fieles discípulos del Señor, debemos vivir conscientes de la gracia que nos ayuda a transformar esos sentimientos y nos impulsa a proclamar el reino en palabra y en obra. By Juan J. Sosa, Pbro., from Today's Liturgy 2014

Ser Luz - En las lecturas de hoy, al pueblo de los que caminan en la noche se le apareció una luz intensa; a los que vivían en oscuridad, la luz se les acercó. No podemos dejar de pensar quiénes son esos que necesitan ver la luz. Nosotros podemos ser la luz intensa del perdón; podemos afirmar la dignidad personal de quien lo necesite. Todos pertenecemos a Cristo y compartimos el mismo pensar y sentir. Nosotros mismos muchas veces necesitamos palabras de ánimo y perdón para sanar nuestras heridas. Cristo nos llamó a seguirlo inmediatamente. ¡Respondámosle!

Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee and called out to Simon Peter, Andrew, James, and John. They were fishermen.

Directions: Circle the fish that have the same name as the first four disciples.

Puzzle

Circle the picture that is different. Then color in all the pictures.

He said, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." They immediately followed him.

Directions: Help them get through the path to Jesus.

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus says, "Tell the words of God to those who have never heard it." Tell others that God loves and forgives them. The best way to tell is to show the word of the Lord by your actions. Hand a Band-Aid to your injured brother. Talk instead of hitting someone when you get angry. Say "I forgive you," when your sister hurts you. Let others play with your toys. Share your favorite candy bar.

Prayer

Open the eyes of others to your love and forgiveness, Lord.

Something to Draw

Draw someone before and after they learn about God's love and forgiveness.

Mission for the Week

I will ask my family to give old eyeglasses to the Lions Club.
