The Adventures of the Disciples

Dear Parish Family,

We often think of the time after Easter as the time of the resurrection. The Gospels we read speak to us of how the disciples came to believe that Jesus was risen. The empty tomb became a sign not of more grief and loss that his body was missing or stolen, but a sign of victory and promise fulfilled. For the disciples, this realization became the motivation for them to begin to spread the message of Jesus on their own. We call this experience the sending of the Spirit. It is also the beginning of the church and of our history as followers of Christ.

One of the last stories in the Gospel of Luke is the story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus. It is a touching story, a story of grief and hope. It is a story that everyone who has lost a loved one can relate to. The disciples are discussing their grief and loss when Jesus, the risen Jesus, begins to walk with them and explain that his death was not loss but fulfillment. It is a physical experience for them. Their hearts burn inside them as he speaks in their hearts. Later, after breaking bread together, they recognize the Lord but he suddenly disappears. Actually he disappears into them. His Spirit fills them and so they no longer need to see in order to believe. Now they need to go and tell others about this encounter. They go out from Jerusalem, the place of his dying and rising, to tell the world this good news. In this moment of mission they become the church.

We often forget that Luke's gospel is really the first of two books. We call the second book the Acts of the Apostles. Luke himself begins this book telling the reason for its writing. In the former book, he says, I told you of all that Jesus said and did until he was taken up into heaven. In this new volume he tells us about what those disciples did when they were filled with his Spirit. I often like to think of this second book as the adventures of the disciples because that is how it reads. The disciples go out into the world, not sure what they should do but knowing that the Spirit will be with them and will let them know what to say and what to do.

In the Bible, the Acts of the Apostles comes to an end. In our lives it still continues. The church, our church, is a kind of adventure. The writer is God and the actors are all of us. We write the story as we struggle to follow Christ in the world. We deal with age-old problem like the struggle to believe in times of suffering. And we deal with new problems, like how to protect the poor in a global economy or how to use technology not to consume us and distract us but to spread the word of God and its message of peace.

On Monday, May 12, I will be leading a class and discussion on the Holy Spirit and the mission of the church. Please come and join us. Let's think together about the next chapter in our adventure!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Bishop McGann-Mercy Diocesan High School to Host "Mercy Night" for all High School Aged Youth

On Friday, May 9th, the Campus Ministry Program of Bishop McGann-Mercy Diocesan High School will be reaching out to all high school-aged youth as it hosts its first "Mercy Night." As part of the Ministry to the East-End Roman Catholic Youth, this gathering starts with the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with Bishop Nelson Perez, the Vicar for the East End, followed by the "Wacky Olympics," low-key, fun-filled competitive games, and all-you-can-eat ice cream. "Mercy Night" will take place in the McGann-Mercy Auditorium from 7 pm to 9 pm. Once again, this event is open to all high school-aged youth on the East End.

For additional information and to RSVP, call 631.727.5900, ext. 315.

Bishop McGann-Mercy High School is located at 1225 Ostrander Avenue in Riverhead.

Faith in the Church Today :: Monday, May 12, at 7:00 PM
The Holy Spirit and the Life of the Church
With Fr. Mike Vetrano

There can be no doubt that the Catholic church is a human institution! Our history is filled with wonderful moments of greatness and saintliness and also with awful moments of sinfulness and failure. Some have said that the surest sign that the church is guided by the Spirit is that it has survived its human character for these 2000+ years. Our talk tonight will explore how Catholic faith in the Holy Spirit begins with the death and resurrection of Jesus. It was in Jesus' dying and rising that the earliest Christians came to discover that they were guided by God's own spirit. What do these roots have to say to a modern church living now in a very different world from that of the disciples?

This talk is a celebration of Easter and a preparation for Pentecost, so join Father Mike on Monday May 12 in the church for this presentation and discussion.

A History of the Catholic Church : June 9 and June 16
With George Sim Johnston

Over the course of two evenings, we shall look at the history of the Catholic Church, from the Age of the Apostles and Martyrs until Vatican II. To know the history of the Church during these two millennia is virtually to know the history of western Europe (and beyond).

The first evening, we shall look at the Church's founding by Jesus Christ, the early spread of Christianity, the Roman persecutions, Constantine and the Edict of Milan, the theological debates that were resolved at the great ecumenical councils, the collapse of the Roman Empire, the great transitional figure of Saint Augustine, the rise of Islam, the Dark Ages, and the great awakening which began in western Europe at the cusp of the second millennium.

The second evening, we shall begin with the "springtime" of western civilization, the age of the great cathedrals and reforming popes like Gregory VII, the Crusades, the clash between the papacy and the German emperors, the golden age of Scholasticism, Saints Dominic and Francis, the Black Death, the Great Schism, the popes of the Renaissance, the Protestant revolt, the remarkable flowering of sanctity and missionary activity known as the Counter-Reformation, the ages of Louis XIV, the French Revolution and Napoleon, and the Church's remarkable recovery in the 19th century under popes like Pius VII and Leo XIII. We shall end with the Church's engagement with the modern world, which continues to unfold under Pope Francis.

Youth Ministry Mission Trip 2014 June 28 to July 3

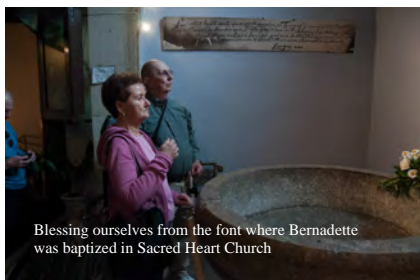

I am happy to report that as of this weekend 12 of us will be part of the mission trip this June! This is a wonderful response and I am grateful for the generosity and mission spirit of our young people and families. If you are interested there still may be a place on the trip. Contact Fr. Mike pastor@shjmbasilica.org soon!

Every person in the parish can help us! We will soon be asking for donations of things needed by the missions we will visit. We will also be raising funds to support the trip. If you would like to support a young person on this trip please send your donation to Fr. Mike Vetrano, 168 Hill Street, Southampton, NY 11968

Our Lady of the Hamptons

The Wellness Center-classroom extension to Our Lady of the Hamptons was dedicated by Bishop Nelson Perez on Thursday, May 1. Actual occupancy of the new classroom facility will occur in September, when the sixth, seventh and eighth graders will be the first group to attend the “OLH Prep”, the extended state-of-the-art middle school.

Reservations are being accepted for the GOLF OUTING to benefit Our Lady of the Hamptons Regional Catholic School. The event will be held at Gardiners Bay Country Club on Shelter Island on Friday, May 16. The golfing event is limited to one hundred golfers, while the cocktail party following is open to others seeking a special time out on Shelter Island. Call 283-9140 for details.

The final stages of registration for the September 2014 school year at OLH show limited availability in Kindergarten as well as grades 1 and 2, with waiting list status in effect in grades 3 to 6. (Kindergarten students must turn five years old prior to December 1, 2014.

An outstanding pre-school program, geared to the Common Core learning standards is available at the OLH-St Rosalie’s campus in Hampton Bays. Three and four year old programs are available. There is a three or five day option available for four year olds, while three year olds attend the two day session. Tours can be arranged for prospective families. Please call 283-9140.

We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org.

Welcome

The Basilica parish of Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary welcomes the following newly baptized children with joy:

*MILA ROSE GUMBS
SANTIAGO GONZALEZ
JAMES GRIFFIN MOLIGNANO*

Human Resources of the Hamptons has some exciting news!

To bring our self into compliance with Long Island Cares (our local food bank) we are starting client choice selection of foods from our pantry. Hopefully this will cut down on food being returned to us.

In order to accomplish this goal we are reconfiguring our clothing room space. As of May 1st, the clothing room will be closed for one month.

Please HOLD all donations until then. After June 1st we will only be accepting gently used clothing. No hats, ties, pocketbooks or shoes. We are hoping to have a very upscale clothing facility similar to the hospital thrift store.

We ask you to be patient with us as this is a major undertaking. Thank you for your support.

Al Partir el Pan - Dos discípulos se dirigen a Emaús y encuentran en el camino al Señor resucitado. Este pasaje del Evangelio de Lucas es el texto más antiguo que describe la Misa. Nosotros encontramos al Señor, Él nos explica las escrituras y lo reconocemos al partir el pan. ¿Sentimos arder nuestro corazón cuando nos explica las escrituras? ¿Vamos a seguirlo en el camino, dando testimonio del Señor resucitado, como los apóstoles? ¡Dios, ayúdanos! Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, STD © 2001, OCP. Derechos reservados.

Que Caminemos con Él - Con el salmo de hoy, la Iglesia en oración suplica que el Señor siga mostrando el camino de la vida. Es un camino donde se encuentran los que buscan a Dios, aunque a veces tengan miedo, y lo reconocen en los signos que la propia Iglesia les muestra. Es la historia de los caminantes de Emaús, narrada en el Evangelio. Estos discípulos huyen de Jerusalén con miedo porque sienten que han perdido al "Mesías"; al encontrarlo en el camino, le piden que se quede con ellos. Al compartir el pan, regresan fortalecidos a la misma ciudad para dar testimonio de la fe. Es la historia de la Iglesia de los primeros cristianos quienes, ante las persecuciones y opresiones del momento, fueron testigos fieles del Cristo resucitado que siempre les acompañaba. Es también nuestra historia hoy en día. Para Dios todo es posible, pero sin Dios poco podemos hacer. Dios nos da la fuerza para afrontar el mal que nos rodea y nos hace partícipes de su victoria desde la cruz. Solamente nos pide que seamos fieles y que caminemos con Él por el camino de la vida. By Juan J. Sosa, Pbro., from Today's Liturgy 2014© OCP. All rights reserved

Cursillo Prematrimonial - A los interesados en contraer matrimonio por la iglesia católica, les estamos informando que el Cursillo Prematrimonial si iniciará el 1º de junio. Las reuniones serán los domingos de las 9:00 AM hasta las 12 de mediodía en Southampton.

Un Modelo de la Liturgia - El Evangelio de hoy es un modelo del ritual litúrgico. Los discípulos se encontraron a Jesús en el camino a Emaús. Escuchaban sus historias al caminar (Liturgia de la Palabra) y las explicaciones de todo lo que había sucedido (homilía). Cuando atardeció le rogaron que se quedara con ellos para partir el pan. Primero Él ofreció una bendición (Plegaria Eucarística) y finalmente, compartió el pan con ellos (Comunión). ¿Reconocemos a Cristo en los demás? *By María Dolores Martínez, from Liturgia y Canción 2008 © 2007, OCP. Recognizing Shapes

1. Make your favorite sandwich.
2. Decide how it should be cut to make two triangles.
3. Now move the triangles around so they create one big triangle instead of one big square cut in two.
4. Now figure out how to cut your sandwich so you end up with four small triangles.
5. Use the triangles to make different shapes.
  - Can you make a large triangle?
  - Can you make a large square?
  - Can you make 2 medium triangles?
  - Can you make 2 medium squares?
  - Can you make 1 medium triangle and 1 medium square?
  - What else can you create?
6. Enjoy eating your creations!

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN!

Third Sunday of Easter Year A

Jesus walked and talked with two disciples who did not recognize Him. They invited Him to supper.

Acts 2:14, 22-33 Ps 16:1-2, 5, 7-11
1 Pt 1:17-21 Lk 24:13-35

Directions: Can you recognize the words below?
Draw a line to the words that match each other.

- |         |         |
|---------|---------|
| JESUS   | EDAD    |
| DEAD    | ROVEREF |
| ALIVE   | VEALI   |
| FOREVER | SSUEJ   |

Imagine how wonderful it would be to meet Jesus walking along one of the streets where you live. Like the two people in the Gospel on the road to Emmaus, you could learn so much from listening to Jesus as you traveled with him. Do you wonder why the two disciples didn't recognize Jesus? Sometimes we don't recognize that Jesus is with us today either.

There is a place where you can meet Jesus just as his friends did so long ago. Here are some clues. Can you guess where it is?

- In this place people of all different ages and nationalities gather and recognize Jesus in a special way—just like the two disciples on the road. Did you guess?
- In this place we hear stories about Moses and the prophets and all the scripture stories about Jesus—some of the same stories Jesus shared with his friends. Still guessing?
- In this place we are invited to share a meal—just as Jesus took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and shared it with his friends. Do you know it yet?
- From this place we are sent out to spread the Good News, just as the disciples who met Jesus did when they returned to Jerusalem and talked with the others. Now do you have it?

If these actions sound familiar it is because they happen each time we are at Mass: the Entrance, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and the Dismissal. The Mass is one of the places we meet Jesus today. Can you think of others?

Draw a picture of a symbol or action that happens in each part of the Mass.
