SCOUTING

May 31 / June 1

Dear Parish Family,

This week 20 of our Boy and Girl scouts will receive medals at the 9:30 Mass honoring both religious learning and service to their church. In this world in which connections between church and the rest of society often seem so awkward, I think scouting should be commented for getting it right. Scouting is about service, about showing respect and reverence for others and for oneself. It is about being brave, loyal, and true to people and to the many different values they represent. In other words Scouts put actions of respect and honor ahead of ideology and philosophy. What a great lesson for the young.

On Memorial Day our scouts were the honor guard for our Mass. They bore our nations colors as part of our entrance procession; they served at the altar, and stood together to honor our veterans! A huge thank you to them, to our Knights of Columbus who prepared the refreshments, to our veterans who attended, and to all of you who filled our church to bless the memory of those who served.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Sincerely in Christ,

Father William Gill

A History of the Catholic Church : June 9 and June 16 With George Sim Johnston

Over the course of two evenings, we shall look at the history of the Catholic Church, from the Age of the Apostles and Martyrs until Vatican II. To know the history of the Church during these two millennia is virtually to know the history of western Europe (and beyond).

The first evening, we shall look at the Church's founding by Jesus Christ, the early spread of Christianity, the Roman persecutions, Constantine and the Edict of Milan, the theological debates that were resolved at the great ecumenical councils, the collapse of the Roman Empire, the great transitional figure of Saint Augustine, the rise of Islam, the Dark Ages, and the great awakening which began in western Europe at the cusp of the second millennium.

The second evening, we shall begin with the "springtime" of western civilization, the age of the great cathedrals and reforming popes like Gregory VII, the Crusades, the clash between the papacy and the German emperors, the golden age of Scholasticism, Saints Dominic and Francis, the Black Death, the Great Schism, the popes of the Renaissance, the Protestant revolt, the remarkable flowering of sanctity and missionary activity known as the Counter-Reformation, the ages of Louis XIV, the French Revolution and Napoleon, and the Church's remarkable recovery in the 19th century under popes like Pius VII and Leo XIII. We shall end with the Church's engagement with the modern world, which continues to unfold under Pope Francis.

Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi

June 1, 2014

“Do you not know that you are God’s temple”.... and “God’s temple is holy?” No wonder Jesus tells us to love not only our neighbors, but also our enemies. We are all God’s temple; we are all holy.

This week the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops invites us to pray, reflect, and act for immigration reform in our country. We are all one regardless of our place of birth, legal status, or cultural heritage. Visit the USCCB website for a resource filled with suggested scripture readings, prayers, reflections and actions. 2014 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

SERVING GOD BY SERVING OTHERS

The key ingredient to the success of our Catholic Ministries Appeal is participation. Please consider making a gift to the Appeal if you have not already done so.

Every year, the Catholic Ministries Appeal provides the means to continue the mission that Christ has entrusted to us: to serve God by serving others.

The work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal is evident in our Parishes. At the heart of living our faith are the Sacraments. An essential part of the life of the Sacraments is our priests and deacons. Through the Appeal, we support their prayer lives and education, and thus provide celebrants for baptisms, First Communion, Confirmations, marriages, and funerals.

We also support religious education for children, spiritual and education development for lay leaders and prayer groups and continuing adult faith formation.

The work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal is also evident when we care for God's people who need housing; food and clothing and we are able to provide these services through Catholic Charities and our Outreach Programs. When we celebrate special needs Masses for children and adults in our Diocese; and when our vibrant college campus ministry and youth ministry programs encourage our young people to grow rooted in Christ and firm in the faith.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God's generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

For more information visit www.CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-379-521- ext. 2

Thank You!

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C. Illustration © 2001 K. Sullivan. Printed from www.Liturgy.com

Sigue a Jesús - Éste es un Domingo de oración y espera. Los apóstoles, María, la madre de Jesús, y otros discípulos se reunieron en la habitación superior donde vivían. En ese tiempo la gente vivía a la expectativa, en medio del temor, pues nadie sabía lo que pasaría de un momento a otro. La carta de Pedro nos pide no avergonzarnos si nos insultan por ser cristianos, sino más bien alegrarnos y dar gracias a Dios. Y tú, ¿cómo vas a ser testigo del Señor Jesús? Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, STD © 2001, OCP. Derechos reservados.

La Imagen de la Iglesia - El libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles hoy nos presenta a los apóstoles compartiendo la vida de fe en compañía de María, la Madre que los sostiene en sus necesidades. ¿Acaso no es ésta la imagen de la Iglesia de hoy y de siempre? Laboramos juntos en la misión de la Iglesia, siempre acompañados por la Madre que el Señor nos ha regalado para interceder por nosotros. Esta compañía nos permite "dar gloria a Dios" con más claridad, como en el Evangelio Jesús lo anuncia en su oración por la unidad de todos los fieles. Pronto concluiremos con el tiempo pascual y nos podemos preguntar si, durante este tiempo, la comunidad ha reflexionado sobre el papel de María en la vida de la Iglesia. Esta reflexión puede ser un puente entre la teología y la piedad popular que la comunidad necesita. From Liturgia y Canción 2014 © OCP. All rights reserved

Jesús Ora por Nosotros - En las lecturas de hoy Jesús llama a los apóstoles, ora por ellos y les ayuda a comprender que su jornada será difícil pero que culminará en la recompensa de la vida eterna. Las lecturas expresan la esperanza que caracteriza a todos los que creen en Jesús. Porque compartimos los sufrimientos de Cristo, también esperamos compartir su gloria y su felicidad. By Juan J. Sosa, Pbro., from Liturgia y Canción 2011 © 2010, OCP. All rights reserved
