

PENTECOST SUNDAY
JUNE 8, 2014

AT THIS SOUND, THEY GATHERED IN A LARGE CROWD,
BUT THEY WERE CONFUSED
BECAUSE EACH ONE HEARD THEM SPEAKING IN HIS OWN LANGUAGE.

THEY WERE ASTOUNDED, AND IN AMAZEMENT THEY ASKED, “ARE NOT ALL THESE PEOPLE WHO ARE SPEAKING GALILEANS?
THEN HOW DOES EACH OF US HEAR THEM
IN HIS NATIVE LANGUAGE?

WE ARE PARTHIANS, MEDES, AND ELAMITES,
INHABITANTS OF MESOPOTAMIA, JUDEA AND CAPPADOCIA,
PONTUS AND ASIA, PHRYGIA AND PAMPHYLIA,
EGYPT AND THE DISTRICTS OF LIBYA NEAR CYRENE,
AS WELL AS TRAVELERS FROM ROME,
BOTH JEWS AND CONVERTS TO JUDAISM,
CRETANS AND ARABS,
YET WE HEAR THEM SPEAKING IN OUR OWN TONGUES
OF THE MIGHTY ACTS OF GOD.

Pastor's Letter

The Great Realization

Pentecost 2014

Dear Parish Family,

The cover of this week's bulletin offers an insightful image of what it means to celebrate Pentecost. On one hand the image is familiar; the Spirit descends like fire from the risen Christ who still bears the wounds of his crucifixion. On the other hand the artist depicts the twelve disciples as representing all the people of the earth in their diversity of cultures. This is a legitimate interpretation because the twelve disciples symbolize all of God's people (the twelve tribes of Israel), and the description of this first Pentecost in the Acts of the Apostles describes how the many witnesses to the descent of the Spirit are also the diverse nations who surround Israel. These neighbors, who are usually divided by language and culture, now suddenly understand the Spirit-filled disciples as if they were their own kin.

We often speak of Pentecost as the beginning of the church. This is not the same as speaking of the beginning of a particular church, as in the beginning of Sacred Hearts as a parish on August 30, 1908. It is also not the same as thinking of the beginning of a particular religion. It is rather the beginning of the great realization that if God is truly one, then every nation and every people belong to that God. The roots of this realization were already within Judaism in the great commandment: Hear O Israel, the Lord your God is God alone, and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and all your soul, and all your strength. Jesus says that another commandment is equal to it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

Although the Jewish people, including the disciples, recited these prayers each day, it was difficult for them to think that the prayer bound them to people beyond their own religion and culture. On Pentecost, the Spirit of God was liberated so they could see that the God they love belongs not just to them, or to their family, or to their nation, but to all. This good news itself is the first message to share in this new global church.

In our own life as Christians, anything we do that helps us reach beyond our ordinary boundaries celebrates this Pentecost Spirit. We see it when we are able to embrace, rather than fear, diversity of cultures and language. We see it in our own community when we worship together, rich and poor, weak and strong, men and women, saints and sinners. On Pentecost may we celebrate the great realization that we are one, just like our God!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Tent Party 2014 :: Save the Date and Be Part of the Plan

Our tent party was a huge success in 2013 and promises to be even bigger this year. So please save the date:

The Evening of Saturday August 30

We also need committee members to help with the planning of this event. If you are interested in serving please send a email to Fr. Mike: pastor@shjmbasilica.org

There will be a meeting for those who would like to help on Tuesday, June 10th, at 7 PM in the Parish Center.

SHJM'S SUPER RAFFLE

Ticket sales have begun for Sacred Hearts Super Raffle. We will be selling up to 500 tickets so we won't run out and you won't be disappointed! Better yet each participant will have a 1 in 50 chance of winning one of our 10 prizes!

Tickets will be $100 and you can purchase them on you own or take a chance or chances with a group of friends to increase your chances of winning.

Anyone wishing to join the committee in selling chances before and after Mass to please contact: Charlie Mottern—631-283-3785.

Mark your calendars, music lovers! June 10, 2014

Christian Oliveros will hold his Senior Recital here at the Basilica. Christian, a violinist here at the church for several years, will showcase his skills on June 10, 2014, from 4:30-6:30 PM. Christian will perform classical works from composers such as Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Camille Saint-Saens, Jules Massenet and Ernest Chausson, just to name a few.

A History of the Catholic Church : June 9 and June 16 With George Sim Johnston at 7 PM in our Church

Over the course of two evenings, we shall look at the history of the Catholic Church, from the Age of the Apostles and Martyrs until Vatican II. To know the history of the Church during these two millennia is virtually to know the history of western Europe (and beyond).

The first evening, we shall look at the Church's founding by Jesus Christ, the early spread of Christianity, the Roman persecutions, Constantine and the Edict of Milan, the theological debates that were resolved at the great ecumenical councils, the collapse of the Roman Empire, the great transitional figure of Saint Augustine, the rise of Islam, the Dark Ages, and the great awakening which began in western Europe at the cusp of the second millennium.

The second evening, we shall begin with the "springtime" of western civilization, the age of the great cathedrals and reforming popes like Gregory VII, the Crusades, the clash between the papacy and the German emperors, the golden age of Scholasticism, Saints Dominic and Francis, the Black Death, the Great Schism, the popes of the Renaissance, the Protestant revolt, the remarkable flowering of sanctity and missionary activity known at the Counter-Reformation, the ages of Louis XIV, the French Revolution and Napoleon, and the Church's remarkable recovery in the 19th century under popes like Pius VII and Leo XIII. We shall end with the Church's engagement with the modern world, which continues to unfold under Pope Francis.

Life Corner :: SHJM Respect Life Ministry

Did you know... Norma McCorvey, who went by the legal pseudonym Jane Roe, was the plaintiff in the landmark Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision; she has had two children, and never had an abortion; she was received into the Catholic Church in the 1990's, and works actively as an advocate for ProLife. In 2005, she petitioned the Supreme Court to overturn Roe v. Wade, on the basis that abortion is harmful to women -- the petition was turned down.

Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi

June 8, 2014

It is the Feast of Pentecost, a day to celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit given to all of us. It is a reminder that Jesus did not abandon us. It is a lesson that we are all one. Yet, we often fail to celebrate, remember, or learn.

It is also Torture Awareness Month. Sadly, torture still exists, denying the Spirit in each of us and rejecting our unity in the Spirit. As the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops wrote: “Torture violates the basic dignity of the human person that all religions, in their highest ideals, hold dear. It degrades everyone involved—policymakers, perpetrators and victims.... Nothing less is at stake in the torture abuse crisis than the soul.” While Jesus may not have abandoned us, we abandon others when we allow torture to happen.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

The final registration for new students at Our Lady of the Hamptons will end on June 15. Admission to kindergarten, grades one and two is open on a limited basis; waiting list status is in effect in grades three through six. Information is also available about the new “OLH Prep”, the program for grades six through eight that will be housed in the new state-of-the-art facility adjacent to the Wellness Center. Call 283-9140 for information.

We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org.

McGann-Mercy to Offer Summer Academy of Enrichment Programs

It's time for summer! Once again, McGann-Mercy High School will be running its popular summer enrichment programs, for students in grades 3 - 8, from June 30th - August 15th. Many sports are available. Call 631.727.5900, ext. 321 for information or go to the school website, www.mcgann-mercydhs.org. Registration for the McGann-Mercy Enrichment Programs is done through McGann-Mercy. Registration for each of the sports programs is done through the respective organization.

McGann-Mercy to Hold Annual Golf Classic: SoCo on the NoFo on June 23rd

On Monday, June 23, 2014, McGann-Mercy will host its Annual Golf Classic at The Woods at Cherry Creek in Riverhead. In keeping with this year's theme, “SoCo on the NoFo,” golfers will enjoy this picturesque golf course with raffles and contests followed by an extravaganza of Southern Comfort Cuisine and signature cocktails.

Registration and lunch starts at 12:00 pm; there is a 1:30 pm Shotgun Start. Southern Comfort Cocktails and Dinner at Stonewalls will follow the fun-filled afternoon of golf at 6:00 pm.

All proceeds from this event go toward the programs at Bishop McGann-Mercy Diocesan High School.

If you can only attend one golf outing this season, this is the one! For more information on sponsorship opportunities or to play golf at this exciting event, call 631.727.5900, ext. 394 or go to www.mcgann-mercydhs.org.

The key ingredient to the success of our Catholic Ministries Appeal is participation. Please consider making a gift to the Appeal if you have not already done so.

Every year, the Catholic Ministries Appeal provides the means to continue the mission that Christ has entrusted to us: to serve God by serving others.

The work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal is evident in our Parishes. At the heart of living our faith are the Sacraments. An essential part of the life of the Sacraments is our priests and deacons. Through the Appeal, we support their prayer lives and education, and thus provide celebrants for baptisms, First Communion, Confirmations, marriages, and funerals.

We also support religious education for children, spiritual and education development for lay leaders and prayer groups and continuing adult faith formation.

The work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal is also evident when we care for God's people who need housing; food and clothing and we are able to provide these services through Catholic Charities and our Outreach Programs. When we celebrate special needs Masses for children and adults in our Diocese; and when our vibrant college campus ministry and youth ministry programs encourage our young people to grow rooted in Christ and firm in the faith.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God's generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

Veni Creator Spiritus - “Ven, Espíritu Santo, Señor y dador de vida”. Hoy celebramos el Espíritu Santo que descendió sobre los elegidos de Dios y el pueblo de la alianza; ese don nos hace participar de la vida divina. En medio del ruido, viento y fuego —signos del Espíritu—, el pueblo vivió el efecto contrario al de la Torre de Babel. Es decir, en lugar de una confusión de lenguajes, los apóstoles hablaron en la lengua de todos los presentes. Todos entendían, escuchaban y admiraban las maravillas de Dios en su propio idioma. Cada uno recibe el don del Espíritu con un solo propósito: construir el Cuerpo de Cristo. Veni Creator Spiritus. Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, STD © 2001, OCP. Derechos reservados.

Las Lecturas de Hoy - El libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles describe el acontecimiento de Pentecostés que dio lugar al nacimiento de la Iglesia y la misión de los apóstoles. La segunda lectura, de san Pablo, nos recuerda que la vida cristiana se concentra en el Señor, quien envió el Espíritu Santo para guiar la vida de la Iglesia. Este envío nos recuerda el Evangelio con la primera aparición del Señor resucitado a sus amigos y servidores. La secuencia del día desarrolla poéticamente toda esta historia. By Juan J. Sosa, Pbro., from Liturgia y Canción 2014 © OCP. All rights reserved

Dones del Espíritu - Debemos darnos cuenta de los diferentes dones espirituales derramados por el Espíritu Santo. Sabemos que nuestros dones son para el bien de la comunidad porque: “En cada uno el Espíritu Santo revela su presencia, dándole algo que es para el bien de todos”. El cuerpo tiene muchas partes que, cuando actúan al unísono, se convierten en la presencia activa de Cristo en el mundo. ¿Ayudamos a los demás a descubrir sus dones? ¡Cuánto poder tenemos al actuar unidos! Cursillo Prematrimonial - A los interesados en contraer matrimonio por la iglesia católica, les estamos informando que el Cursillo Prematrimonial se inició el 1º de junio. Las reuniones son los domingos de las 9:00 AM hasta las 12 de mediodía en Southampton.

Seguro de Salud para Niños - La representante de Fidelis Care, Konny Tapias, estará en el Apostolado Hispano los miércoles de las 10 AM hasta la 1:00 PM, para ayudar con seguro de salud para los niños.

La Procesión del Cuerpo de Cristo - El domingo, 22 de junio es la Fiesta del Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo y después de la Misa habrá una procesión afuera con el Santísimo. Invitamos a la gente de cada país que arregla un altar para representar su país. Para participar, favor de hablar con Walter Quintanilla después de la Misa.

Intenciones del Papa para Junio

Universal: Para que los desempleados reciban el apoyo y el trabajo que necesitan para vivir con dignidad. Por la Evangelización: Para que Europa reencuentre sus raíces cristianas a través del testimonio de fe de los creyentes.

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN!

Pentecost Sunday Year A

Glory Be

As you say the following prayer, think of the impact of the words.

Glory be
To the Father,
And to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning,
Is now, and ever shall be,
World without end.
Amen

Jesus appeared to the disciples, despite the locked doors, and said, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

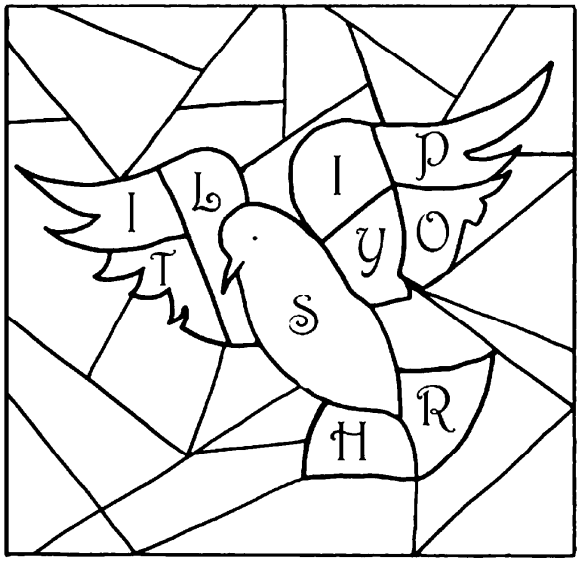

Acts 2:1-11 Ps 104:1, 24, 29-31, 34
1 Cor 12:3-7, 12-13 Jn 20:19-23

Directions: Draw a picture of Jesus appearing to the disciples on Pentecost

Jesus breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Directions: Color only the spaces that have the letters from "HOLY SPIRIT" in them.

Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to the disciples to strengthen their faith and spread the word of the Lord.

Directions: Circle the ways you might be able to spread the message of Jesus to others. Then write your own example on the line.

1. Help someone with his homework.
2. Make fun of the way a person looks.
3. Talk to the new person in school.
4. Ignore the new person in school.
5. Cheat on a test.
