Mission 2014

Dear Parish Family,

First of all, I want to say a huge thank you to all who took part in our Parish Bake Sale and who made generous donations to our Mission Trip. Together these events raised almost $4500 last weekend to support our young people and help us bring some needed benefits to the communities we will visit in El Salvador. I was so impressed with the enthusiasm and support of the community for our mission trip.

I am also impressed with that other kind of generosity, namely the young men and women and adults who responded to this invitation. They are willing to give up a week of their time and many comforts to take part in this mission. Our trip is very important and I think it will do much to help us understand an important part of our life as a church.

Mission trips have grown in popularity. This year 1.5 million Americans will take part in some form of short mission outreach. Some will go on service trips, where the emphasis is on activities such as building homes. Some will go on medical missions, where they will bring a high standard of medical care to nations that have little modern medicine. Our trip is a little different and perhaps more traditional – our trip is about sharing faith and understanding the justice mission of the church. The being there and being together is more important than what we do.

I have been involved in mission trips for many years. This is my eighth trip to El Salvador. Something that always concerns me is what the take-away message will be. If the message is about how people of wealth and power can do something FOR people who are poor, then the message is inadequate, no matter how helpful the work. If the message is about how a young person with many advantages and opportunities can work WITH and understand a young person with few advantages and opportunities, our trip is very worthwhile. The focus of our trip is about sharing "richness" in family, in our Catholic faith, and in community; I can say for sure that the people of El Salvador have shared their riches with me.

In the United States there is a tendency to think of economic poverty as something experienced by an unfortunate minority. To go on a mission trip is to become aware that very few people in the world live as we do. Statistically, most of the world is poor. Poverty in El Salvador is typical of the kind of poverty seen in struggling nations. Only a small percentage of the population owns anything of significance. Even the most intelligent, industrious, and motivated high school graduate has little chance of securing a higher education or having the opportunity to use and profit by their gifts. When our young people return from El Salvador they will find it hard to explain what they have witnessed but they will know that they have been very changed by this experience. And that of course is the point.

Pope Francis has been speaking a great deal about the importance of the justice mission of the church, our commitment to working for a world where no person is deprived of the essential blessings of this world. No one mission trip will accomplish this and that is perhaps why Jesus told his disciples that the poor would always be with them. A very beautiful Spanish prayer captures this: Sólo le pido a Dios que el dolor no me sea indiferente. I only ask God that I may not become indifferent to the sorrow.

Thank you so much for helping us to make this journey.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Filomena Rossi Marciw

Filomena passed to eternal life on June 14, 2014, at 93 years of age. She was one of the creators of our banners at Sacred Hearts, an avid golfer, a terrific poet, and fantastic cook among other things. Filomena especially loved her grandchildren. A memorial service is planned for July 1, 2014, at 10 AM at Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary Basilica. Our sympathies go out to her husband, Steve, daughters, Marianne, Nancy and her husband, Richard, Elizabeth and her husband Bob, grandchildren, Christopher, Sarah, Erin, and Peter, family and friends.

Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi

June 22, 2014

This Sunday is dedicated to a celebration of the Body and Blood of Christ. It is a celebration of Eucharist, the Bread of Life. But Moses tells us we do not live on bread alone, but on the Word of God, another name for Jesus. And what did Jesus teach at the first Eucharist (and throughout his life)? Love, service and sacrifice, humility, and community. He is the Bread of Life, and he is so much more than bread alone.

Even secular psychology tells us we need not just bread, but love and community to survive and be healthy. That is why so many, including our Church, more and more recognize solitary confinement as torture. Learn more at the next Metro New York Religious Campaign against Torture event, “Broken on All Sides,” a film and discussion at the Congregation Anshe Chesed, 251 W. 100th Street, Manhattan on Wednesday, June 25th at 7 PM.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, Año A. Ilustración © 2001 S. Erspamer. Printed from www.Liturgy.com

Alimento Verdadero - Esta fiesta comenzó en 1247, instigada por sor Juliana de Mont-Cornillon. En esos años, la fiesta se celebraba bajo nombres diferentes: Fiesta de la Eucaristía, Fiesta de Dios, Fiesta del Santísimo Sacramento y Fiesta del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, el nombre que usamos hoy en día. Santo Tomás de Aquino preparó los textos para la Misa y el Oficio Divino. Esta festividad nos invita a expresar más adoración y reverencia por la Eucaristía, alimento verdadero para el pueblo de Dios. Comemos y bebemos este alimento para nuestra salvación. Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, STD © 2001, OCP. Derechos reservados.

Unidos en Cristo - Dice San Pablo en la lectura segunda hoy: "El pan es uno y así nosotros, aunque somos muchos, formamos un solo cuerpo porque comemos todos del mismo pan." ¡Qué preciosa evocación de la unidad de los cristianos! Nuestra unidad, queridos hermanos, no se basa en ideales de la tierra. Cristo puso una fuerza divina que nadie la puede destruir: su cuerpo y su sangre, su presencia de resucitado, su vida de Dios. Dichoso el pueblo que llega a tener fe y a descubrir que Cristo es su razón de ser. En Cristo pone toda su esperanza y comulga. Y todos los que vamos a comulgar esta mañana sentiremos esta realidad. Aunque somos muchos y tal vez ni nos conocemos, venimos de distintos rumbos, vivimos en rincones y en lugares muy apartados, sin embargo, somos un sólo cuerpo porque nos alimentarnos de un mismo pan. Tomado de la Homilía de Mons. Oscar Romero, 28 de mayo de 1978.

La Virgen de Chiquinquirá - Este año vamos a celebrar la Misa y Fiesta en honor de la Virgen de Chiquinquirá, Patrona de Colombia, el domingo, 6 de julio, en la Misa de las 4:00 PM en la Iglesia de Santa Rosalía en Hampton Bays.

Virgen de los Ángeles – Patrona de Costa Rica - La Fiesta de la Virgen de los Ángeles este año será el sábado, 2 de agosto. En este momento estamos buscando voluntarios para ayudar en preparar la fiesta en la parroquia de Hampton Bays. Si se interese en ayudar, por favor, comuníquese con Gerardo Azofeifa 631-838-5977.

Si usted no puede participar en el comité pero quiere colaborar con una donación, ponla en un sobre con su nombre, dirección del correo. Marque "Virgen de los Ángeles" en el sobre y déselo a Padre Esteban.

Seguro de Salud para Niños - La representante de Fidelis Care, Konny Tapias, estará en el Apostolado Hispano los miércoles de las 10 AM hasta la 1:00 PM, para ayudar con seguro de salud para los niños.

Following Directions

Jesus asks us to follow Him.
Can you follow these seven directions?

1. When you get home, find a person that you love.
2. Wait until he or she is sitting down.
3. Go over to that person.
4. Put your mouth close to his or her ear.
5. Whisper, "I love you!"
6. Tell him or her a reason why.
7. Then give that person a hug.

Listening to Jesus' words is not enough.

Directions: Draw several things that you can hear.

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN!

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ Year A

The ones to enter heaven are the ones who do the will of God, the Father.

Dt 8:2-3, 14-16 Ps 147:12-15, 19-20
1 Cor 10:16-17 Jn 6:51-58

Directions: Color the child who is entering the church.

Jesus tells us that you must live your life by following the ways of Jesus.

Directions: Put an X on all the things that you find wrong in this picture.
