Pastor's Letter

Jesus' Cross and Ours

September 13/14

Dear Parish Family,

This past Thursday we celebrated the anniversary of the terrorist attacks of 2001. One of the most touching sights of the day the towers fell in New York City were the ground zero crosses. As over 100 stories of structural steel collapsed, many of the broken pieces took the shape of crosses and often ended up standing upright in the piles of debris. Many of the rescue workers began to refer to the site as God's house. For believers, it was impossible not to notice the connection between the symbol of our faith and the broken pieces of steel.

9/11 was, and continues to be, difficult to cope with. The terrible loss of life and suffering was hard to even imagine. These ground zero crosses gave many people hope. In them we saw a statement that God is with us, and that God is present even in the most difficult places we can imagine. There is a human tendency to feel alone and abandoned in times of great sorrow, and so it is particularly important to hold onto the belief that God is with us in our suffering. Even more than that, we believe that God is not just with us but that God will lift us up from these sufferings. The crosses at 9/11 not only reminded us of God's presence but also of the great assurance that God would lift up the victims, those who loved them, and even the world within which such violence lives.

It is not often that the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross falls on a Sunday. When it does, the celebration takes priority over our regular sequence of Sunday prayers and readings. I am particularly grateful this year for the celebration because the past weeks have brought so much suffering to our attention. From the plight of refugee children abandoned at our borders to violence against Christians in Iraq, racial violence in our own country and threats of ISIS terror, the news each night brings us seemingly endless accounts of inhumanity and suffering. The cross seems so common, too common, in our world.

This weekend we are invited to believe that the power of God and the love of God are especially present in places where God seems to be most absent. More than that, we are invited to stand in solidarity with those who suffer, to help them in both spiritual and practical ways. As we celebrate the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, may we know God's presence in the crosses in our lives and in our world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Dear Parish Family,

I am so grateful to all of you who have supported our In Nomine Domini Renewal. The summer months have brought us to a little more than half our goal and we now stand at $550,000.

Please join me in thanking the more than 150 people who have contributed to our campaign as of this past weekend. It is now a time for all of us to recognize that to really be a success we must have the participation, how ever large or small, of every parish family.

It would be wonderful to complete our campaign by Thanksgiving time and be able to begin work on all of our renewal projects.

Sincerely yours in Christ

SHJM Welcomes Mary Black Friday :: November 7th

For the last quarter-century, singer Mary Black has been a dominant presence in Irish music, both at home and abroad. She has shared stages, T.V. shows and recording studios with some of the most revered performers of her time. She has also played a frontline role in bringing Irish music, past and present, to an increasingly appreciative and ever-growing global audience.

What a fine singer Ireland's Mary Black is. Unfussy, gimmick-free and capable of switching from confessional intimacy to assured declaration in the space of a phrase, she always puts the song's story first. The effect can be breathtaking, catching out the listener with a vocal catch or a sung-through line that will break your heart or make you laugh out loud, depending on the lyric. - The Art of the Torch Singer

The San Francisco Chronicle has described her as "One of the best interpretative singers around".

On Friday, November 7, The Basilica of Sacred Hearts will welcome Mary for a memorable evening of music as she begins her Last Call Tour of the USA. Don't miss the opportunity.

Check out Mary on her website: www.mary-black.net

Tickets are on sale now. Visit shjm.brownpapertickets.com

Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi September 14, 2014

This weekend we celebrate the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, a strange feast to anyone who doesn't understand God's power to transform an instrument of torture and death into a symbol of eternal life. But the real sanctity of the cross isn't this wooden tool for execution; it is Jesus on the cross revealing God's unconditional and limitless sacrificial love.

Unfortunately, we continue to crucify God's gifts of ceaseless love in a multitude of ways. One is our abuse of creation that is altering the global climate and threatening life, especially that of the poor. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops stated: "Urgent action that both addresses the growing impact of climate change and acts to protect the poor and vulnerable is needed ("Global Climate Change," February 2010).

Please respond to their urgent call. Join the People's Climate March on Sunday, September 21st, starting at Columbus Circle at 11:30 AM. People from around the city, state, nation, and world will be coming together to profess our moral duty to care for creation and all who are dependent on it. In addition, houses of worship are invited to ring bells, sound shofars, chant mantras, and make other outdoor spiritual sounds in a sign of solidarity with the March at 1 PM.

Levanta la Cruz - Hoy celebramos la Exaltación de la Santa Cruz. Cristo fue levantado en alto porque Él es nuestra salvación, nuestra vida y resurrección. Nos gloriamos en la cruz de Cristo Jesús, un rey levantado y coronado en el trono del árbol de la vida. En el año 320 de nuestra era, la Emperatriz Helena dijo que había encontrado la cruz de Cristo. Los catecúmenos reciben la señal de la cruz y comenzamos cada celebración litúrgica haciendo esta señal, la señal de Cristo y la señal de la vida cristiana. ¿Comienzas cada día haciendo la señal de la cruz y haciendo esta señal en la frente de los que viven contigo? Debemos llevar este signo de nuestra fe con orgullo. ¡Amén! Texto: Michael R. Prendergast, MTS, MA. © 2003, OCP. Derechos reservados.

Philippians 2 : 11

THE HOLY CROSS

A symbol is something we see or hear or do that means something important to people. The cross is a symbol that is hard to understand. In the time of Jesus it was used to punish criminals. Jesus died this shameful death on the cross. But today we celebrate the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. An older name for this feast is the Triumph of the Cross. "To triumph" means to be victorious or to succeed or to overcome. Jesus triumphed over death and sin so we could live with him forever. Try to count the number of crosses in your church. How many of them have an image of the body of Jesus on them? Those crosses are called crucifixes.

Many different kinds of crosses can be found in churches and holy places around the world. Some of them are described here. Trace or draw the crosses on your own sheet of paper. Write a prayer under each one thanking God for the great love Jesus gives us.

*This is the Calvary cross.
The steps at the bottom remind us of the virtues of faith, hope, and love.*

This is the tau cross used by St. Francis. He painted it on the walls and doors of places where he stayed. He used it instead of his name when signing papers.

*This is St. Andrew's cross.
Like Jesus, Andrew was crucified, but his cross was a different shape.*

*This is the papal cross.
The two upper bars
represent the two men
crucified with Jesus.
Why do you think they are included?*
