Pastor's Letter

The Rejected Stone

October 4/5

Dear Parish Family,

Just about every longtime parishioner has told me proudly how our church is built from the stones which were rejected in the building of the New York City Public Library. So not long after beginning my assignment here, during a trip to the city, I made it a special point to walk past the library where those other stones, the chosen stones, found their place after coming here from Vermont. I guess I wanted to see what they looked like, these brother and sister stones of our parish church.

In the clear evening light, especially on these early fall days, it is hard to believe that anything could be as shining bright as the marble of our church. But when I looked closely at the library I understood why some stones were rejected. In midtown every block is perfect. No streaks of grey, no lines or marks or weathered cracks. Each piece is perfect, pure and white, a perfect match to those on either side. Maybe in a way, I thought, too perfect.

Coming home, I looked more closely at our church. Our blocks each have their issues. They are all so different in color and texture. Some are smooth and others weathered and scored by the glaciers that formed them. But somehow, when these rejected stones are put together, they look beautiful, strong, and perfect. I love them for that. They remind me of us.

It seems right to me that a church should be built from rejected stones. In this week's Gospel Jesus tells his disciples about his coming rejection and reminds them: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes.

In other words, God will do something wonderful with our brokenness and with the brokenness of our world. The church is a refuge. It is a place where the homeless, the poor, and the stranger are always welcome. The church is not the dwelling place of worthy saints, but an equal home to saint and sinner alike. Most of all, the church reminds us that broken imperfect pieces can be built into a strong and secure dwelling.

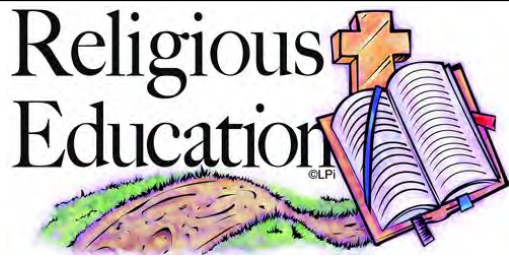

This week we pray especially for peace in our world. We pray for peace because peace seems so elusive and the world seems so shattered. Can anything good come out of this brokenness? Remember this: "The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone!"

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Grief: Coping with reminders after a loss :: A 6-week Bereavement Group

Grief doesn't magically end at a certain point after a loved one's death. Reminders often bring back the pain of loss. Here's help coping – and healing.

When a loved one dies, you might be faced with grief over your loss again and again – sometimes even years later. Feelings of grief might return on the anniversary of your loved one's death, birthday or other special days throughout the year.

These feelings, sometimes called an anniversary reaction, aren't necessarily a setback in the grieving process. They're a reflection that your loved one's life was important to you.

To continue on the path toward healing, know what to expect – and how to cope with reminders of loss, a 6 week Bereavement Group will be starting at the Basilica of Sacred Hearts with Deacon Carl Sanfilippo. Anyone interested please call the parish office at 283-0097 Ext 0.

Altar Flowers

Dear Parish Family,

I am so grateful to all of you who have supported our In Nomine Domini Renewal. The summer months have brought us to a little more than half our goal and we now stand at $715,000.

Please join me in thanking the more than 200 people who have contributed to our campaign as of this past weekend. It is now a time for all of us to recognize that to really be a success we must have the participation, how ever large or small, of every parish family.

It would be wonderful to complete our campaign by Thanksgiving time and be able to begin work on all of our renewal projects.

Sincerely yours in Christ

SHJM Welcomes Mary Black Friday :: November 7th

For the last quarter-century, singer Mary Black has been a dominant presence in Irish music, both at home and abroad. She has shared stages, T.V. shows and recording studios with some of the most revered performers of her time. She has also played a frontline role in bringing Irish music, past and present, to an increasingly appreciative and ever-growing global audience.

What a fine singer Ireland's Mary Black is. Unfussy, gimmick-free and capable of switching from confessional intimacy to assured declaration in the space of a phrase, she always puts the song's story first. The effect can be breathtaking, catching out the listener with a vocal catch or a sung-through line that will break your heart or make you laugh out loud, depending on the lyric. - The Art of the Torch Singer

The San Francisco Chronicle has described her as "One of the best interpretative singers around".

On Friday, November 7, The Basilica of Sacred Hearts will welcome Mary for a memorable evening of music as she begins her Last Call Tour of the USA. Don't miss the opportunity.

Check out Mary on her website: www.mary-black.net

Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi October 5, 2014

Those of us who have heard this Sunday's Gospel over the years probably have understood it to be about a group of ruthless tenant farmers denying a landowner his rightful produce. But what if we look at it another way. We all know how it feels to do the work and see our employer reap the profit. By no means does that justify violence, but let's be humble enough to admit we're not necessarily so different in our indignation from those tenant farmers. So could it be that Jesus was not defending the landowner or condemning the laborers, but telling all of us that we have been entrusted with God's fertile ground to cultivate it according to Jesus's example: to share the harvest equitably, to insure that all have enough to eat, a safe place to sleep, a job with just pay, quality health care, and a clean environment? Let us accept our place in the vineyard and bear much fruit, so that, as St. Paul wrote to the Philippians, the God of peace will be with us.

The Faith that Does Justice

Our Lady of the Hamptons

New York City Police Officer Steven McDonald and his wife, Patti Ann, shared their story of faith and forgiveness with the students of OLH Prep at recent assembly. Officer McDonald was shot while on duty in 1986 and has spent his life visiting schools and community groups addressing the need for faith and compassion even for those who have wronged us.

Space is still available in the pre-school program for three and four year old students at the St Rosalie's campus location in Hampton Bays. Call 283-9140 for details. This is a fully certified, outstanding program under the auspices of OLH. Consideration is being given to the possibility of an earlier start to the program to allow working parents more flexibility in pre-schooling.

We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org. Tours can be arranged at any time, by calling 283-9140.

Produce Buen Fruto - Las viñas y su cuidado son cada vez más comunes en muchos sitios. En la Escritura, con frecuencia se refieren al cuidado que la Trinidad le tiene al pueblo de la alianza, pueblo del Señor. Hoy la primera lectura y el Evangelio hablan de la cosecha de la viña que se echa a perder. Jesús explica que Él es la piedra angular de una nueva estructura y se entrega a un pueblo que producirá fruto. ¡Que la inmensa paz de Dios esté en nuestros corazones y pensamientos! Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, S.T.D. © 2002, OCP. Derechos reservados.
