Pastor’s Letter

Christmas 2014

One of my favorite Christmas memories was talking my father into taking us on a Christmas light tour of the neighborhood. We would all pile into the car and drive slowly around the streets of Queens in search of the most amazing Christmas display. It was fun, and always seemed to get us into the Christmas spirit. Of course the lights these days are even more spectacular. Even the most modest display comes complete with giant inflatable scenes and full sound.

Here at Sacred Hearts I think we understand that wonderful Christmas lights, like those in front of our church, are really a sign of the true light of the season – the light of God’s presence which enlightens the hearts of all believers. Our parish witnesses to the light and is a place of welcome so that all who come, like the shepherds and kings of old, can be near the presence of Christ. You are the light which shines out from our parish long after the decorations of Christmas are put away for another year.

If there is any message that should be heard on this Christmas day by all who come here, it is the messages that not only are all welcome but all are needed. Our church, like those wonderful Christmas displays, needs all the light we can get. We need the light of the old and the light of the young. We need the single, the married, the divorced, and the remarried. We need the conservative and the liberal, the workers and the prayers, our original parishioners and our newest arrivals. We need, as we hear each week at Mass, people of every history, ethnicity, gender, orientation, age and race. Jesus told his disciples that without their light the world would be a darker and colder place. As a church we have so much to do and perhaps the words of this poem capture it for us:

When the song of angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are departed,
When the shepherds are back with their flocks,
The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost
To heal the broken
To feed the hungry
To release the prisoner
To rebuild peace among brothers
To make music for all to hear.

Our parish has so much to do, so many people to serve. We do it all year long and we cannot do it without you. We need your energy, generosity, support and presence. And most of all we need your love for one another and for this place where all are welcome.

May Jesus who is the true light of the world bless you now and always,

Fr. Mike

Meeting Jesus — With Fr. Pat Kelly

This Lent our parish will welcome Fr. Pat Kelly for a three night mission, March 9, 10, 11. A native of Ireland and member of the African Mission Society, Father Pat’s priesthood has been devoted to mission work. On December 12 our parish celebrated a beautiful mass in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe.
This year our parish raised in pledges more than $1,100,000. These funds, which we call our In Nomine Domini Fund, are dedicated to the renewal and restoration of our beautiful Basilica church. I am so grateful to all those more than 400 families who contributed to this effort. Projects of New Heating and Air Conditioning, Lighting, Rest Room Facilities, Pew Refinishing, Bell Tower Renewal, and Carpeting will begin soon. It is not too late to take part in our renewal.

Where Do I Stand with the Church?

This evening will be given by Fr. Mike Vetrano. He is our pastor and also an advocate at the tribunal in our diocese. Advocates help those seeking annulments to bring their case before the tribunal in a pastorally sensitive and compassionate manner. This evening is geared for those who wonder about where they or a friend or a family member stand with the church and will explain the various options open to those who were married in the church and now wish to begin a new relationship with the full blessing of the church.

Life Issues discussed for young adults: www.loveandfidelity.org

Did you Know... there is a completely Catholic-based approach to the reproductive health issues of women, called NaProTechnology (Natural Procreative Technology). This has been developed over the last thirty years by Thomas Hilgers, MD, founder of the Pope Paul VI Institute for the Study of Human Reproduction, located in Omaha, Nebraska. All aspects of reproductive issues are addressed, including methods for avoiding pregnancy by a form of natural family planning (NFP) called the Creighton Model Fertility Care System; methods for addressing infertility are also a major part of the program. This approach is presented for the layperson in a recent book entitled the NaProTechnology Revolution, published by Beaufort Books, NY, NY, www.beaufortbooks.com.-- For more information see www.popepaulvi.com, & www.naprotechnology.com.

Hoy llega a nosotros la noticia del nacimiento de Cristo – Al irse los pastorcitos que vinieron invitados por los ángeles a adorar al Niño Jesús, María se quedó reflexionando todo esto en su corazón. Para una comunidad cristiana la Navidad no tiene sentido si no es a base de una profunda reflexión, por eso para muchos cristianos la Navidad no es más que una fiesta que se espera y que luego pasa efímera, como la pólvora que se quema, y no deja más que basura en las calles. Para el cristiano es algo más que un coheteillo, es la gran noticia que debe reflexionarse y comprometer al hombre con este episodio en que Dios se hace hombre, no en una forma transitoria, sino para siempre, y el hombre debe también reflexionar ante el Señor. Ese Cristo en Belén lo podemos representar… con este título: Cristo manifestación de Dios, Cristo manifestación del hombre y en tercer lugar, la Iglesia manifestación de Cristo. Tomado de la Homilía de Mons. Oscar Romero, 25 de diciembre de 1977.
