Pastor's Letter

January 31 / February 1

Dear Parish Family,

It was quite a storm this week. As I watched the snow I remembered learning poems about snow when I was in school. In those days I thought of snow as an unquestioned gift from God — a divine break from schoolwork and a neighborhood transformed into a playground. That was long before we received 24-hour live storm center reports of our efforts to battle an epic storm and restore our world to normalcy.

I loved the poem “The First Snow Fall” by James Russell Lowell. Its first few lines seemed to capture the beautiful way a snowfall can transform our seeing of the world. Actually, I probably did not read much further. I was happy to read about the winter wonderland in Lowell’s description. In those days it was plenty for me.

But the father in the poem has some very serious things on his mind - his grief and loss of a child. Is the snowfall a beautiful blessing in his world of pain? I am not sure. But he answers his child’s questions with confidence and with grace: only the all good Father who cares for us below makes the snow.

These days we have so few experiences of power beyond us. A winter storm seems to shatter the illusion that we have everything planned, that all is under control. It is good for us, I think, to deal with a power beyond us. I do know this: God’s power delights and blesses us and sometimes frightens and confuses us. It is always with reverence and awe that we stand before this power beyond us.

The poet captures what the storm center cannot.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Rev. Michael A. Vetrano

First Snowfall

The Snow had begun in the gloaming,
And busily all the night
Had been heaping field and highway
With a silence deep and white.

Every pine and fir and hemlock
Wore ermine too dear for an earl,
And the poorest twig on the elm-tree
Was ridged inch deep with pearl.

From sheds new-roofed with Carrara
Came Chanticleer’s muffled crow,
The stiff rails softened to swan’s-down,
And still fluttered down the snow.

I stood and watched by the window
The noiseless work of the sky,
And the sudden flurries of snow-birds,
Like brown leaves whirling by.

I thought of a mound in sweet Auburn
Where a little headstone stood;
How the flakes were folding it gently,
As did robins the babes in the wood.

Up spoke our own little Mabel,
Saying, “Father, who makes it snow?”
And I told of the good All-father
Who cares for us here below.

Again I looked at the snow-fall,
And thought of the leaden sky
That arched o’er our first great sorrow,
When that mound was heaped so high.

I remembered the gradual patience
That fell from that cloud like snow,
Flake by flake, healing and hiding
The scar that renewed our woe.

And again to the child I whispered,
“The snow that husheth all,
Darling, the merciful Father
Alone can make it fall!”

Then, with eyes that saw not, I kissed her;
And she, kissing back, could not know
That my kiss was given to her sister,
Folded close under deepening snow.

A Note from Religious Education Director: Jennifer Ferrantino

Religious Ed had a very busy weekend last week! We had our young students receive the sacrament of Reconciliation and our Confirmation candidates attended our Enrollment Mass! Thank you to all those who made these events enriching and wonderful!

As we continue to prepare for sacraments and furthering our love for the Gospel I am reminded of a short excerpt from Max Lucado's Book Grace for the Moment:

I choose love...

No occasion justifies hatred;
no injustice warrants bitterness. I choose love
Today I will love God and what God loves.

I choose joy...

I will invite God to be the God of circumstance.
I will refuse the temptation to be cynical.
The tool of the lazy thinker. I will refuse to see
People as anything less than human beings,
Created by God. I will refuse to see any problem as Anything less than an opportunity to see God.

I choose peace...

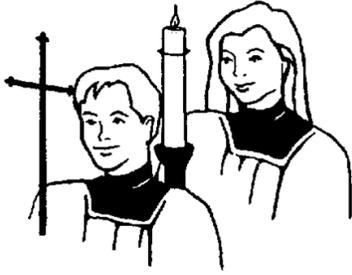

I will live forgiven. I will forgive so that I may live.

As we continue to help our students to live out their faith every day, this may be a good reminder as to how to achieve those goals.

In case of inclement weather please check WLNG radio. If Southampton Schools are closed due to weather Religious Ed will be closed also. Thank you!

Lent Draws Near Help Gather Last Years Palm

Lent and Easter are early this year. Lent begins on February 18th—Ash Wednesday. As many Catholics know, the ashes used on Ash Wednesday come from the burning of last year's palm branches. To help us celebrate this connection, you are all invited to bring palm from last year to church on the weekend of February 14/15 so that they may be used to mark the beginning of Lent this year.

Lenten Mission 2015

Meeting Jesus

This Lent our parish will welcome Fr. Pat Kelly for a three night mission, March 9, 10, 11. A native of Ireland and a member of the African Mission Society, Father Pat's whole priesthood has been devoted to mission work. He has served the poorest of God's poor and will share with us in wit and song how he has met Jesus along the way. Please set aside these three evenings of faith and inspiration.

Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi

February 1, 2015

The key message in Sunday's readings is "Repent." This is a message for all times and all peoples. One of the greatest evils repeated throughout human history and demanding repentance is genocide, and one of the worst examples of genocide was the Jewish holocaust during WWII. Amazingly, however, the holocaust also gave us some of the greatest lessons of human endurance, faith, hope, and love. On Sunday, February 8th, 2015, Pax Christi Metro New York is hosting Etty, a one-woman play about Etty Hillesum, one of the holocaust's greatest messengers of those lessons. Etty was a young Dutch Jewish woman living in Amsterdam during World War II who wrote prolifically about her loves, her work, her deep faith, and her moment in history. In the process, she challenges us to rethink questions of resistance and humanity and to consider our own responsibility in today's world of fear and struggle. Susan Stein will perform and lead a discussion in St. Joseph's Church, Sixth Avenue between Washington Place and Waverly Place in Greenwich Village, starting at 2:30 PM. Reserve your space now by contacting the PCMNY office at info@nypaxchristi.org or 212-420-0250 or by going to www.nycharities.org. Seats are $25 in advance, $30 at the door, and $15 with a student ID.

Stewardship Opportunities

Would you like to put your business at the service of SHJM? Contact the rectory if you can help us:

Electrical Work

Our bell tower renewal will require running wire from the bell controller in the sacristy to the bell tower. This includes several low voltage cables for control and possibly a new 110 service wire. It is about 75 feet from back to front through the crawl space and about 30 feet up the tower. Must be licensed work. Interested in helping?

Running Outdoor conduit

We need 4” underground conduit from our rectory to the church to accommodate cable for internet and security wiring. Mostly lawn to trench, one sidewalk and one driveway to cross.

Remember: The value of work done by businesses or professionals is tax deductible as a charitable contribution...

Welcome:

The Basilica Parish of Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary welcomes the following newly baptized child with joy:

Ministries in Need of Your Help

Lectors, Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers

Just about every one of our masses can use additional Lectors, Ushers, and Eucharistic Ministers. I would especially love to see some of the youngest members of our parish be of service in this way.

Our 5 PM mass on Sunday needs the most support right now. We are often very short of all three ministries at this mass. If you are interested please contact Fr. Mike pastor@shjmbasilica.org.

Training will be held on April 25th at McGann Mercy High School.

Sexton for Saturday 5 PM

Fancy word but a sexton is a person who opens and closes the church! We need someone who is available after the 5 PM mass on Saturdays, especially when we have visiting priests. It takes just about 10 minutes to close and secure our church at the end of the day. Interested? Please contact Fr. Mike pastor@shjmbasilica.org

Los signos del Reino de Dios -

Jesús acompaña sus palabras con numerosos "milagros, prodigios y signos" que manifiestan que el Reino está presente en Él. Ellos atestiguan que Jesús es el Mesías anunciado.

Los signos que lleva a cabo Jesús testimonian que el Padre le ha enviado. Invitan a creer en Jesús. Concede lo que le piden a los que acuden a él con fe. Por tanto, los milagros fortalecen la fe en Aquel que hace las obras de su Padre: éstas testimonian que él es Hijo de Dios. Pero también pueden ser "ocasión de escándalo". No pretenden satisfacer la curiosidad ni los deseos mágicos. A pesar de tan evidentes milagros, Jesús es rechazado por algunos.

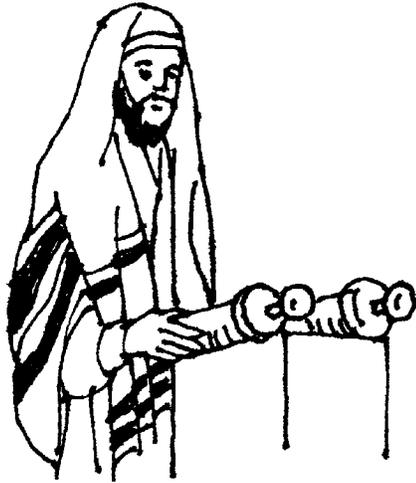

Al liberar a algunos hombres de los males terrenos del hambre, de la injusticia, de la enfermedad y de la muerte, Jesús realizó unos signos mesiánicos; no obstante, no vino para abolir todos los males aquí abajo, sino a liberar a los hombres de la esclavitud más grave, la del pecado, que es el obstáculo en su vocación de hijos de Dios y causa de todas sus servidumbres humanas.

La venida del Reino de Dios es la derrota del reino de Satanás: "Pero si por el Espíritu de Dios expulso yo los demonios, es que ha llegado a vosotros el Reino de Dios". Los exorcismos de Jesús liberan a los hombres del dominio de los demonios. Anticipan la gran victoria de Jesús sobre "el príncipe de este mundo". Por la Cruz de Cristo será definitivamente establecido el Reino de Dios: (CCE, §547-550).
