Pastor's Letter

February 21/22

The Desert of Lent

Dear Parish Family,

I teach a class each spring on spirituality and health to senior students at the School of Medicine at Stony Brook. I suspect that many who sign up hope they will learn about different religions and how these religions think about medicine and healing. That is a great topic but I also want the students to learn something about themselves, to explore their own spirituality.

We often have a session on prayer. The group is usually pretty diverse: Christians, Muslims, Jews, Mormons, Hindus, Buddhists, Zoroastrians, Jains, and others, so it is not really possible to ask them to pray. Especially to pray together! But what I do ask is that they try meditation in the most generic way that is possible. I ask them to sit quietly at home for 15 minutes, relax their breathing, and try to think of nothing. The assignment is to complete this sentence: I meditated and. . .

The responses are interesting and always a revelation. "I meditated and I fell asleep!" wrote one obviously sleep deprived student. Another said, "I couldn't stop my mind for even a minute. I just kept thinking about not thinking about anything." For another, this relaxing exercise led to stress: "I meditated and I got angry that I wasted 15 good minutes I could have been studying!" Obviously an over achiever. One young woman wrote: "I meditated and I felt the kind of peace in my body and soul that I wish I could feel all the time. I don't know why I don't do this more!" When she shared this experience, others started to talk about their own hunger for that peaceful place within. What would happen to you? Try it and see.

The Christian metaphor for this kind of meditation is the desert. The desert is an empty place, a featureless place, a place without anything much to look at or think about. If it is a place of temptation, these demons come from within. If it is a place of blessing, the blessing has been within all along. If you visit the desert, if you stop your active life for a minute, you will find out about both your demon distractions and your blessed attractions. This is why Jesus is led into the desert by the Holy Spirit. In the desert Jesus discovers both temptation and the comfort of God.

Lent is an opportunity to change and simplify our lives a bit. Practices like fasting allow us to learn about our real hunger and need for God. Taking a moment to meditate or pray can allow us to listen to what is happening in our own heart. Even Jesus needed to do this. The gospels all begin with the temptation in the wilderness. Other gospel passages recount many times where in the midst of much busyness, Jesus advises his disciples to be still, to come apart, and to pray.

I hope that this time of Lent gives you the opportunity to step out of the ordinary busyness of life into a deserted place. A place where we can listen to the voice of God within.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Rev. Michael A. Vetrano

A Note from Religious Education Director Jennifer Ferrantino

We begin Lent, the season that asks us to stop and be aware. Lent is a gift that the Church in her wisdom celebrates every year. It is a gift of time, a gift of contemplation, and a gift of quiet so that we may listen to the Word, who whispers to us to come back to the God who created us. It encourages us to turn away from the noise and over-indulged appetites so that we may understand the hunger that can be filled—with the grace of God—only by prayer, fasting, and giving.

So how are we going to bring Lent into our homes? What are we going to do different at this time of year? We are asked to pray, fast and give. Can we make time to pray daily? Is there time for that? A few minutes can make a big difference. Fasting? Can we fast from things like gossip, criticism, or negative attitudes? Can we give of ourselves to others, make time to speak with family members, old friends, or new friends? Share a smile and find joy? Can we give to the poor, the home bound, or the infirmed? Sometimes the hardest to give is our time. How are we going to challenge ourselves and our families this Lent? Reminding children to do the simple things helps them become aware of the simplicity of the Gospel and in turn helps the adults too.

Lenten Activities:

So instead of only giving up things for Lent how about doing things for Lent, concrete things the children can see... How about a prayer jar? Slips of paper with a loved one's name, your favorite priest, a particular situation? And then each night after dinner pick one and the whole family can pray together for that person or situation.

Make a Lent calendar allow the children to mark off days Ash Wednesday, First Sunday, Second Sunday, Third Sunday, Fourth Sunday, and Fifth Sunday of Lent, Palm Sunday, St Patrick's Day (March 17), St Joseph's Day (March 19), Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Maybe there could be a theme to each week?

What are your Lenten traditions? What has made Lent meaningful for you?

More Lenten ideas and activities to come.

Religious Ed classes resume Wednesday February 25 or Sunday March .

First Holy Communion Families will meet for the First Holy Communion workshop Saturday March 14th at 10 AM.

Confirmation Families please be sure to hand in all your paperwork and mark your calendars for Confirmation retreat Saturday April 25th.

Almsgiving in Lent

During the Lenten Season we are asked to pray, fast and give alms.

It is a perfect time for us to pray for those in need--whether it is for their material, emotional or spiritual need.

And when you practice fasting and abstinence during these forty days, please remember those of our neighbors who are hungry, and consider sharing your gifts with them.

One way to do this is by making a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which supports programs that help to feed people in our community each year through Catholic Charities and our Parishes.

For more information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal, please visit www.CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-379-5210 ext. 2.

Realizing that our salvation begins, not with what we do, but with accepting what Jesus has done. Salvation is a free gift and cannot be earned. I will share how this truth is presented to us in Paul's letter to the Ephesians.

Dear Friends,

Although the official end of our In Nomine Domini renewal was Thanksgiving, donations and pledges continue to come in and many parishioners found the Christmas season a wonderful time to make a gift. The In Nomine Domini fund is an ongoing part of our parish and parishioners and friends are welcome to support it at any time. You will find a full listing of all those who have pledged their support on our website and in this bulletin you will find those whose pledges were received since mid-December.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

The drawing of the BUCKS FOR BOOKS grand raffle at OLH has been postponed until March 19. The recent snow emergencies and school closings have necessitated the extension of time for the selling of the $100 chances. Please call the school at 283-9140 to secure your chance to win one of ten prizes between $500 and $20,000.

Catholic Schools week was observed at OLH one week after originally scheduled. One hundred-fifty grandparents braved the ice and cold to attend the annual Catholic Schools Week Grandparents' Tea. Entertainment was provided by the Hamptones and Junior Tap Team.

Our Lady of the Hamptons, the East End's premier Catholic school, chartered by the State of New York, accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools is also recipient of a Blue Ribbon for Excellence from the U.S. Department of Education. OLH serves parishes and communities extending from Quogue to Montauk.

Information packets and registration materials are available at the school now, leading toward September 2015 enrollment. Registration for prospective kindergarten students (must be 5 years old prior to November 30, 2015), and grades one through five must be completed before March 1. Admission to the OLH prep (grades 6,7,8) in the newly constructed complex is limited but available.

We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org. Tours can be arranged at any time, by calling 283-9140.

Stewardship Opportunities

Would you like to put your business at the service of SHJM? Contact the rectory if you can help us:

Electrical Work

Our bell tower renewal will require running wire from the bell controller in the sacristy to the bell tower. This includes several low voltage cables for control and possibly a new 110 service wire. It is about 75 feet from back to front through the crawl space and about 30 feet up the tower. Must be licensed work. Interested in helping?

Running Outdoor conduit

We need 4" underground conduit from our rectory to the church to accommodate cable for internet and security wiring. Mostly lawn to trench, one sidewalk and one driveway to cross.

Remember: The value of work done by businesses or professionals is tax deductible as a charitable contribution...

Stations of the Cross

We remember the road to Jesus' death and link his journey to our own as our parish deacons lead us through this beautiful devotion.

Come and pray with us...

Ministries in Need of Your Help

Lectors, Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers

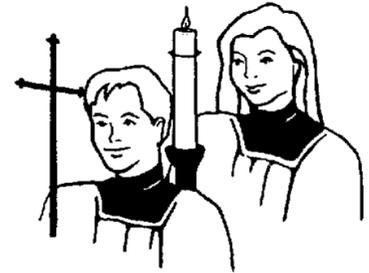

Just about every one of our masses can use additional Lectors, Ushers, and Eucharistic Ministers. I would especially love to see some of the youngest members of our parish be of service in this way. Our 5 PM mass on Sunday needs the most support right now. We are often very short of all three ministries at this mass. If you are interested please contact Fr. Mike pastor@shjmbasilica.org
 Training will take place on April

Sexton for Saturday 5 PM

Fancy word but a sexton is a person who opens and closes the church! We need someone who is available after the 5 PM mass on Saturdays, especially when we have visiting priests. It takes just about 10 minutes to close and secure our church at the end of the day. Interested? Please contact Fr. Mike pastor@shjmbasilica.org

Domingo de Cuaresma, Año B. Ilustración © 1996 M. McGrath.

La Cuaresma – Después del arca, la semilla de la creación que flotaba en las aguas del diluvio, viene el arco, el arco iris que une el plan de Dios y la esperanza humana. Después de sumergirnos en la muerte de Jesús, por el agua bautismal, viene la nueva vida en la resurrección de Cristo. Jesús dice: “Se ha cumplido el tiempo y el Reino de Dios ya está cerca... arrepíentanse y crean en el Evangelio”. La Cuaresma nos da la oportunidad de vivir cosas nuevas. La Santísima Trinidad nos cuida pacientemente, alimentándonos en la Eucaristía. ¿Dónde depositamos nuestra esperanza? El camino cuaresmal es un don que nos conduce a donde tenemos que estar. ¿En verdad deseamos eso y lo aceptamos? Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, S.T.D. © 1997, OCP. Derechos reservados.

Ayuno, Abstinencia y Actos de Penitencia para la Cuaresma: Los obispos de los Estados Unidos prescriben, como obligación mínima, que todas las personas que han cumplido los catorce años y los mayores de catorce están obligados a abstenerse de comer carne todos los viernes de cuaresma. Además, todas las personas desde los dieciocho años de edad hasta los cincuenta y nueve años, inclusivas, están obligadas a ayunar limitándose a una sola comida completa el viernes santo, mientras las otras dos comidas en esos días deben ser ligeras. A todos los fieles se les anima, cuando sea posible, a participar en la Misa y recibir la santa comunión; a celebrar con frecuencia el sacramento de la penitencia; a iniciar lecturas espirituales, especialmente el estudio de las Sagradas Escrituras; y a participar en las devociones de cuaresma así como en programas cuaresmales de educación. La adoración al Santísimo Sacramento es especialmente recomendada.

First Sunday of Lent

God told Noah that the whole earth would never be flooded again. God put a rainbow in the sky as a sign of that agreement. To find what God called this promise, finish writing the names of the pictures shown. Then start at the star and read across to see what the boxes spell.

CATHOLIC CORNER

PRAYER, FASTING, ALMSGIVING

Each year on the First Sunday of Lent, the Gospel tells us that the Spirit led Jesus into the desert. He stayed there for forty days, praying and fasting, and he faced many challenges. Each year we are led by God's Spirit on a journey of forty days through Lent. Lent challenges us to change our lives and to walk in the footsteps of Jesus. The three practices of Lent—prayer, fasting, and almsgiving—are our helpers and guides.

Try this Lenten activity. Trace an outline of your feet or shoes on cardboard or construction paper. Cut them out and write the words prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Place the feet on the floor next to your bed where you will be sure to step on them each morning. Every day they will remind you to walk in the footsteps of Jesus and to pray, fast, and give alms.

Lent ends at sundown on Holy Thursday. For the next forty days keep a chart of your Lenten practices on your "footprints." What prayers will you say? When will you pray? What will you do without—a video game, a TV show, certain foods? How will you help the poor? What time or goods or money will you contribute? Look at your charts on Holy Thursday and reflect on how you have kept the Lenten practices.
