Pastor's Letter

March 28/29

Days of Fire

Dear Parish Family,

Palm Sunday is a day which has captured the imagination of Catholics for millennia. It commemorates the triumphant entrance of Jesus into the holy city of Jerusalem only days before his passion and death. For us it marks our entrance into the holiest week of the church year. Although these days are undoubtedly the most important feasts of our faith, our church has never treated them as days of obligation and consequently only a minority of Catholics attend each year. So this week I write to you a word of encouragement to enter more deeply into this holy week, not out of mere obligation but out of love and respect for the important mysteries we celebrate.

Holy Thursday commemorates the institution of the Eucharist. It profoundly connects the Eucharist to simple acts of loving service. And so we remember Jesus' washing of the disciples' feet. It is a powerful and moving celebration. We are most happy this year to welcome Bishop Nelson Perez as our celebrant for this mass.

Good Friday remembers the suffering and dying of Jesus. In embracing our human condition, our Lord knew human suffering and death. On this day we try to see meaning in the most difficult of human experiences: our own suffering, grief, and death.

This year we continue our Living Stations of the Cross service at 7:30 on Good Friday. This service follows the pattern of stations of the cross but the stations are acted out by young people of our parish and there is a beautiful music program for each station. There will also be parishioners who will share a reflection on their own journey of the cross.

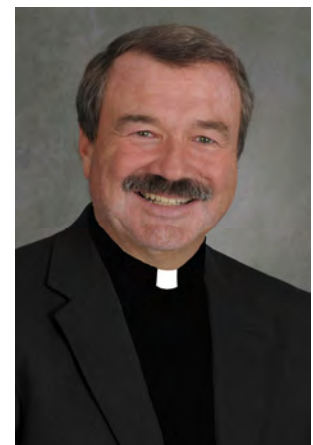

The Easter Vigil Mass is rich in symbols of the Lord's resurrection: fire, water, and the baptism and confirmation of adults. There is no more powerful liturgy anywhere in our church year. Easter Masses are filled with signs and symbols of newness and life.

So I extend to you an invitation. Invitations are always better than obligations. I can only tell you to come and see, to be open and to experience. If you have never attended the liturgies of this most holy week, then perhaps this year is your year to begin.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi March 29, 2015

What a whirlwind are the readings for Palm Sunday! They lead us from a triumphal entry into Jerusalem and an anointing with precious oil to a Passover supper like no other to an evening of anxious and lonely prayer, betrayal and desertion, a sham trial, physical torture, mockery, and ultimate execution. What can we make of it all? Even Jesus asked, "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?" But St. Paul tells us, Jesus was actually exalted by God for his humble obedience. We are not likely ever to have to suffer to the degree Jesus did, yet how far are we willing to go to open our ears to God and to speak to the weary in a way that will rouse them? May it be far enough to enter into the whirlwind of celebration and suffering in the service of others, knowing that we, too, will be embraced by God in the end.

Did you know ... for every one child adoption in America, there are approximately thirty (30) couples waiting to adopt. Although exact estimates are difficult to determine, there are probably over one million couples waiting to adopt in the USA.

The ratio of abortions-to-adoptions is about 12-to-1 ---

There are many sources providing adoption services; for more information visit www.heartbeatinternational.org, or almost any pro-life website.

In Memory

Thomas P. Lavinio

We mourn the passing of Tom Lavinio on March 16, 2015 at his home. A mass of Christian burial was celebrated at the Basilica Parish of Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary on March 19th by Rev. Monsignor William Gill. Burial followed at Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary Cemetery. Tom was a part of the foundation that held Sacred Hearts together. His father was one of the original masons that did the marble work at the church. Tom did the work needed when the first restoration was undertaken, paying for much of it himself. Tom was an usher at Mass on 8 AM Mass on Sunday until he could no longer serve. Tom restored and flew vintage airplanes, winning many awards. Our sympathies go out to his wife, Joan, and daughters, Margaret, Elizabeth Mary, and son, Stephen, and their family and friends.

Kathryn R. Duggan

We mourn the passing of Kate Duggan on March 16, 2015. A mass of Christian burial was celebrated at the Basilica of Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary on March 20th by Rev. Peter Garry. Private cremation followed. Kate served as a Eucharistic Minister at Sacred Hearts and belonged to the Altar Rosary Society. Kate was a trustee of Sacred Hearts and she washed and ironed the linens for our altars. Always with a kind, encouraging word and great sense of humor, Kate will be missed. Our sympathies go out to her husband, Bill, children, Billy and Ann and family and friends.

Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión del Señor, Año B. Ilustración © 1999 S. Erspamer. Printed from www.Liturgy.com

La Humanidad Doliente - ¡Qué bien se identifica Cristo con el sufrimiento de nuestro pueblo! Así parecen clamar muchas cosas, muchos tugurios, muchos en las cárceles y en el sufrimiento, muchos hambrientos de justicia y de paz. "¿Dios mío, Dios mío, por qué me has abandonado?" No nos ha abandonado. Es la hora en que el Hijo de Dios va pasando con toda su carga de pecado por la obediencia que Dios le pide para poder perdonar esos pecados de la humanidad de donde derivan todas las injusticias, todos los egoísmos. De nada hubiera servido una redención política como la esperaban muchos contemporáneos de los que salieron a encontrar a Jesús el Domingo de Ramos. Una liberación del yugo de Roma no hubiera sido la libertad verdadera porque hubieran caído bajo otros yugos. Los pueblos parecen no aprender la lección de estarse dominando y explotando unos de otros. Sólo hay un verdadero libertador: Dios que nos ha traído la liberación del pecado, donde tiene su raíz todo el malestar de los hombres. Por eso hay que comprender a Cristo identificándose con la humanidad doliente. Sintamos ahora mucha simpatía por Él y cuando lo vamos a acompañar con su cruz a cuestras, sudando sangre, llorando con lágrimas de un dolor casi sin esperanza en lo humano, pensemos en la situación misma nuestra, pero con una esperanza divina como la que Cristo quiere inspirarnos. Tomado de la Homilía de Mons. Oscar Romero, 8 de abril de 1979
