Living in the World

Dear Parish Family,

One of my favorite songs is Louis Armstrong's version of "What a Wonderful World." It is a classic and inspiring work which pays tribute to the beauty of the world, the energy of new life, and, most of all, to friendship. Some might consider it the most optimistic song ever written but composers Bob Thiele and George Weiss at a time when our country was going through a period of great unrest and racial tension. It was intended to be a work of hope and beauty in a time of darkness and despair. It seems to be a great truth that in every age we can look at the world and celebrate its beauty as we also see its tensions, tragedy, and ugliness. We live in a world that is full of life and hope, but also a place of fear and hate.

In our Gospel this weekend, Jesus is sending his disciples into the world. More accurately, he is leaving them in the world as he returns to God in the resurrection and ascension. Theologians tell us that rising from the dead and ascending to God are really two ways of speaking about the same reality—but more about that some other time.

For now it is helpful for us to look at how Jesus is describing the relationship his disciples will have to the world they are left in and sent to. Like Armstrong's song, the world for Jesus is both wonderful and terrible. It is both the world as God created it, a beautiful garden meant to be home to all God's creatures. Especially us. The world is also the place that hated Jesus, rejecting his word, hardening its heart, and destroying all that is good. How should the disciples live here?

Jesus describes it this way. They are to be in the world but not of the world. They are to live here but belong to God. All during Lent, at the end of the Eucharist, we read this prayer: "Teach us Lord, how to live in this passing world with our hearts set on the world that will never end." In other words, teach us how to use the world and not be used by the world; teach us how to love the world and all that is in it but not to be owned by it.

It is indeed a wonderful world we live in, and more wonderful when we can see the good things of this world — its beauty, life, and our friendships, as pointing to something lasting and eternal. When we do this we are free, and we can enjoy the wonder of the world and also work for its healing.

Sometimes when I listen to "What a Wonderful World" I am reminded of Saint Paul's letter to the Corinthians. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Did you know... about Bernard Nathanson, MD, abortion proponent turned Pro-Life? Dr. Nathanson was a New York City Obstetrician-Gynecologist who, in the 1960's, ran the largest freestanding abortion clinic in the world, and was a founding member of the National Abortion Rights Action League, or NARAL. He presided over more than 60,000 abortions, doing thousands himself. In the late 1970's, in part because of the availability of improved ultrasound imaging, he began to question the morality of his actions, and completely changed his mind, becoming an outspoken opponent of abortion. He wrote extensively on the subject, including a book titled "The Hand of God: A Journey from Death to Life". In 1996, he converted from Judaism, and became Catholic, being Baptized by John Cardinal O'Connor. He always emphasized that he came to Catholicism after he became convinced that abortion was wrong -- not because the Church said so; he was attracted in great part because one could find forgiveness in the Catholic church. Dr. Nathanson died at the age of 84, and was buried from St. Patrick's Cathedral, in New York City.

In Nomine Domini Progress :: Bell Tower!

As promised, work on our Bell tower began last Monday. As of mid-week the new controller has been installed and the carillon is running. Ascension Thursday masses and Confirmation is taking some work time away from the church but we are still hoping to have the entire system operational by this weekend. If not it will be done first thing this coming week.

If you happened to be up here on Tuesday our great lawn looked like a construction site. A team from PS&G installed upgraded transformers for our site. This meant being without power for all of Tuesday. Thanks to our maintenance team we were able to use two small generators to keep our phones and computers operating during the upgrade. It was all done by sunset!

Another team ran the conduit for a network link from the rectory to the church. This is important because our sound system, bell controller, and future heating and air conditioning can all be controlled and programmed by computer.

Thanks again to parishioner Nick Feldmann from Eldor electrical contractors for undertaking this project and donating his services.

2015 Catholic Ministries Appeal

Serving God by Serving Others

Monday, May 25, is Memorial Day, and we would like to recognize and show our appreciation to all who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country and the freedoms we enjoy.

We would like to ask you to take a moment on that day to pray for those that have served and are serving our nation. Many families have lost loved ones, and our military men and women that have survived will face countless struggles and challenges for the rest of their lives.

On Memorial Day when we honor and celebrate their service and sacrifice, let us also remember the once homeless veterans, who because of your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, have been helped through our ministries and programs like Catholic Charities Project Veterans' Independence.

Thank you for your support! You make a difference in the lives of so many through your prayers and generosity!

To learn more about a Veteran who was helped by Project Veterans' Independence, please visit our Web Site at: catholicministriesappeal.org to view our video.

La Elección de Dios - La Trinidad nos elige porque Dios nos ama aún más de lo que nos amamos unos a otros. Pedro y los otros apóstoles oraron para que Dios eligiera al apóstol que iba a reemplazar a Judas. Dios eligió a Matías. Como Matías y José Barsabá conocemos a Jesucristo desde que Juan lo bautizó hasta el día en que Jesús fue llevado al cielo. Hemos sido testigos de su resurrección. Esto es lo que celebramos juntos y esto es lo que dice el Evangelio de Marcos, que leemos este año. Sabemos todo esto y estamos listos para compartir el Espíritu que da vida. Luego, Dios nos elegirá según su plan. Aunque José Barsabá no haya sido elegido para formar parte de los Doce, él recibió un llamado distinto. *Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, S.T.D. © 1997, OCP. Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica: La Ascensión - La ascensión de Jesucristo marca la entrada definitiva de la humanidad de Jesús en el dominio celeste de Dios de donde ha de volver (cf. Hch 1, 11), aunque mientras tanto lo esconde a los ojos de los hombres (cf. Col 3, 3). Jesucristo, cabeza de la Iglesia, nos precede en el Reino glorioso del Padre para que nosotros, miembros de su cuerpo, vivamos en la esperanza de estar un día con Él eternamente. Jesucristo, habiendo entrado una vez por todas en el santuario del cielo, intercede sin cesar por nosotros como el mediador que nos asegura permanentemente la efusión del Espíritu Santo. (CCE, §665-667)
