Did you know... about Bernard Nathanson, MD, abortion proponent turned Pro-Life? Dr. Nathanson was a New York City Obstetrician-Gynecologist who, in the 1960's, ran the largest freestanding abortion clinic in the world, and was a founding member of the National Abortion Rights Action League, or NARAL. He presided over more than 60,000 abortions, doing thousands himself. In the late 1970's, in part because of the availability of improved ultrasound imaging, he began to question the morality of his actions, and completely changed his mind, becoming an outspoken opponent of abortion. He wrote extensively on the subject, including a book titled "The Hand of God: A Journey from Death to Life". In 1996, he converted from Judaism, and became Catholic, being Baptized by John Cardinal O'Connor. He always emphasized that he came to Catholicism after he became convinced that abortion was wrong -- not because the Church said so; he was attracted in great part because one could find forgiveness in the Catholic church. Dr. Nathanson died at the age of 84, and was buried from St. Patrick's Cathedral, in New York City.

4th Annual Fortnight For Freedom: Freedom to Bear Witness

In 1953, Pope Pius XII stated, "We belong to the Church militant; and She is militant because on earth the powers of darkness are ever restless to encompass Her destruction."

It is evident in our time that we are the Church militant as we battle the ravages of laws and regulations enabled by a culture hostile and intolerant toward moral beliefs and religious practices. The increasing rejection of any limits on personal behavior puts religious liberty, the foundation of our civil society, at grave risk.

Unfettered personal satisfaction and convenience, putting man's wishes ahead of God's law, is reflected in the destruction of life allowed by Roe v Wade. The Supreme Court may soon issue an opinion redefining marriage which will deny the truth of the fundamental belief that the family formed in the union of one man and one woman is the basic unit of our society.

Robert P. George, the keynote speaker at the upcoming June 25, 2015, Rally for Religious Freedom, asks if we are willing to follow the Gospel today, "So for us there is no avoiding the question: Am I ashamed of the Gospel? Am I unwilling to stand with Christ by proclaiming His truths? Oh, things were easy on Palm Sunday. Standing with Jesus and His truths was the in thing to do. Everybody was shouting "Hosanna." But now it's Friday, and the days of acceptable Christianity are over. Jesus is before Pilate. The crowds are shouting "crucify him." The Lord is being led to Calvary. Jesus is being nailed to the cross."

"And where are we? Where are you and I? Are we afraid to be known? Are we afraid to be known as his disciples? Are we ashamed of the Gospel?"

To preserve America's rights of conscience and religious liberty, Catholics in every diocese and parish will come together in prayer, education and action during this Fortnight For Freedom. We claim our constitutionally protected right to a robust freedom of religion and we exercise that right by bearing witness to the truth of the Gospel in our lives, schools, work and in the public square. For if we do not know our freedom...and if we do not exercise that freedom, it is already lost.

In Nomine Domini Progress :: Bell Tower!

This week as you arrive for mass you will be hearing some bells once again. The ones you hear this week are actually our new carillon. These are digital bells played with amplifier and speaker. They enable our bell tower to sound like it has many more bells.

Our real bronze bells are waiting for one final part and set of adjustments. When complete, the real bells and carillon will work nicely together, with our real bells being used especially at mass time. The real bells have a beautiful historic sound and the carillon has the ability to do some things not possible with cast bells. On Memorial Day, for example, we can have a bell version of God Bless America for all to hear.

I hope you enjoy hearing our new system this weekend. Thanks to all who made the restoration of our bell tower a reality. It is not too late to be a part of our In Nomine Domini renewal.

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica: La Eucaristía - "Nuestro Salvador, en la última Cena, la noche en que fue entregado, instituyó el Sacrificio Eucarístico de su cuerpo y su sangre para perpetuar por los siglos, hasta su vuelta, el sacrificio de la cruz y confiar así a su Esposa amada, la Iglesia, el memorial de su muerte y resurrección, sacramento de piedad, signo de unidad, vínculo de amor, banquete pascual en el que se recibe a Cristo, el alma se llena de gracia y se nos da una prenda de la gloria futura" (SC 47). La Eucaristía es "fuente y culmen de toda la vida cristiana" (LG 11). "Los demás sacramentos, como también todos los ministerios eclesiales y las obras de apostolado, están unidos a la Eucaristía y a ella se ordenan. La sagrada Eucaristía, en efecto, contiene todo el bien espiritual de la Iglesia, es decir, Cristo mismo, nuestra Pascua" (PO 5). "La comunión de vida divina y la unidad del Pueblo de Dios, sobre los que la propia Iglesia subsiste, se significan adecuadamente y se realizan de manera admirable en la Eucaristía. En ella se encuentra a la vez la cumbre de la acción por la que, en Cristo, Dios santifica al mundo, y del culto que en el Espíritu Santo los hombres dan a Cristo y por él al Padre" (Instr. Eucharisticum mysterium, 6). Finalmente, por la celebración eucarística nos unimos ya a la liturgia del cielo y anticipamos la vida eterna cuando Dios será todo en todos (cf 1 Co 15,28). En resumen, la Eucaristía es el compendio y la suma de nuestra fe: "Nuestra manera de pensar armoniza con la Eucaristía, y a su vez la Eucaristía confirma nuestra manera de pensar" (San Ireneo de Lyon, Adversus haereses 4, 18, 5). (CCE, §1323-1327)
