Parish Social Ministry

October 3/4

Dear Parish Family,

The upcoming Jubilee Year of Mercy is a perfect time for us to take a step to deepen and expand the ministries of our parish. I am especially happy to announce that on October 14th, Jeannine Rose will be joining our parish in the role of director of Parish Social Ministry. Jeannine comes to us with more than 15 year's experience in parish ministry on Long Island. She has served as director of religious education, outreach, and pastoral ministry. This is an entirely new position for us here at Sacred Hearts and so I am sure you are anxious to know more about what Jeannine's role will be. Here are three important things to know about Jeannine's ministry at the outset:

First: It is a ministry of outreach. A parish social minister is one who reaches out to those in need in our community. Of course, many of those in need will knock on our door, but this ministry seeks to reach out to our seniors, the ill, the homebound, and other isolated parishioners. It is a practical as well as spiritual and educational ministry, helping not only with immediate needs but with spiritual and social needs as well.

Second: It is a ministry of collaboration. A parish social minister works together with other ministries in a parish, with directors in neighboring parishes, with regional ministries such as our own Apostolado Hispano, with Catholic Charities, and with community service groups.

Third: It is a ministry of invitation. Perhaps the most important role of a parish social minister is to involve more and more people, both young and old, in our own community in service to one another. A parish social minister can help others discover and develop their own spirit of service and discover the joy of reaching out to one another.

I look forward to the opportunity to tell you more about this ministry, to introduce Jeannine to you and to see the life and spirit of this community grow as we continue to reach out to one another in mercy and in love.

Sincerely your in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Rev. Michael A. Vetrano

Love and Responsibility: Catholic Reflections on Marriage and Family With George Sim Johnston

Join us on Wednesday, October 14th, at 7 PM in our church.

During his recent visit to the United States, Pope Francis said, “I cannot hide my concern for the family, which is threatened perhaps as never before ... I can only reiterate the importance and, above all, the richness and beauty of family life.” The Catholic Church has a very deep understanding of marriage and family. We shall look at the theology behind marriage and suggest ways of approaching marriage in a secular culture which has come to view it merely as a life-style option. There will also be tips on how to make a marriage and family work better.

St. Agnes Medal 2015 Kate Duggan

We are proud and joyful to announce that this year’s St. Agnes Medal of Service will be awarded posthumously to Kate Duggan. Kate passed away this spring and her husband, Bill, and children, Ann and Bill, will receive the medal at St. Agnes Cathedral on October 25th.

Kate served our parish in so many ways. She was an active member of our Liturgy committee, In Nomine Domini Renewal committee, and a Eucharistic Minister to name just a few of the many hats she wore. Above all else, she was known for her wisdom, humor, and kindness . Kate was also a recipient of the Gloria Gaines Memorial award from Marymount College at Fordham University.

Stewardship in Action

Concrete work at the front of the garage at the rectory began this week. In this photo, Ed Corrigan supervises with son, Mo, at the controls as broken concrete is removed. Jim Darby will install the new concrete which was donated by John Tortorella,. J Andreassi brought the team together!

Altar Flowers

First Fruits a new way to support your parish community

Beginning this September, Sacred Hearts parishioners can participate in a program of automated giving. The main benefit of automated giving is that it enables our parish to better support our ministries with a more consistent parish offertory. When you enroll in First Fruits, Sacred Hearts will receive your weekly or monthly offertory gift regardless of the weather and even if you are away from the community for business or pleasure. In other words, it makes the support of your parish an equal priority to all those things in our lives which receive our attention and support.

Frequently Asked Questions

How does this automated giving program, called First Fruits, help the parish?

First Fruits helps Sacred Hearts by allowing us to better forecast our income and, we hope, by leveling out large swings in income between the summer and winter months. This will strengthen our ability to develop ministry programs with the assurance that we will have the revenue to meet expenses on a year-round basis. Currently the church collects roughly half of its income in just four out of the twelve months of the year. First Fruits is being implemented to smooth out the uncertainty that is caused by this unbalanced fluctuation.

If my family signs up for First Fruits, what will we place in the collection basket on Sunday?

Our weekly envelopes will now include a box to be checked to notify us that you and your family are First Fruits donors. We ask that you simply continue to use your envelopes and rather than putting in a donation, you simply just check the box that says, "I/we contribute through First Fruits."

Would I be able to make Holy Day and special gift offerings with First Fruits?

Yes. There will be an option to specify Holy Day and special gift offerings when you register. These offerings as well your regular weekly contributions can be changed at any time by emailing parishoffice@shjmbasilica.org or by simply calling the parish office.

What are the privacy safeguards that exist with this program?

The First Fruits program is simply an exchange of funds between your bank and the parish. Only our business office will have access to your enrollment form. Your personal information is completely confidential. In other words, automated giving is even more secure than a paper check.

Will I be mailed a statement that details how much I have given in the fiscal year for my year-end tax reporting?

Yes. You will be mailed a statement that will clearly show weekly and Holy Day or special gift offerings contributions.

How do I sign up and can I change the amount at any time?

A registration form is available in the parish office. If you wish to change your weekly gift, you will simply email or call the parish office to notify us of the change. Our telephone number is 1-631-283-0097 and email address is parishoffice@shjmbasilica.org.

What happens if I want to cancel automated donations, change my donation, or suspend donations for a time?

All you need to do is contact our parish office. As long as we receive your request 2 business days before the next scheduled transfer we can make the adjustment.

Be one of the first 50 families to sign up and receive an invitation to a special thank you event!

firstFruits is a new and more convenient way for parishioners of Sacred Hearts to support our parish.

By signing up for automatic giving from a bank account, parishioners who enroll in firstFruits are saying that their faith is a priority for them, the gift for which they are grateful and the sustaining of which they do not want to leave up to chance.

Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi October 4, 2015

It is common to focus on marriage when reflecting on Sunday's readings, but that is not the whole story. After all, where does that leave the many who never marry or who have been widowed? And even for married people, does that mean we overlook such powerful scripture passages as this from the second reading: "For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified have all one origin. That is why Christ is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters"? Or this from the Gospel: "Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the realm of God like a child shall not enter it"?

Let's be as open as a child to God's word. We all share a common origin. We need one another and we thrive in communion with one another, not just as husband and wife or brother and sister, but as friends, co-workers, and neighbors, regardless of race, ethnicity, age, class, gender, health, religion, or any other category that may be misused to divide. We are all one.

Religious Liberty in the United States An Evening with Thomas Renker Monday Evening, October 19th

Increasingly, cultural changes that come into conflict with religious teaching are reflected in statutory, judge-made and administrative law. The transformation of these cultural movements into law affects the rights of religious people and organizations to conduct themselves in conformance with the teachings of their faith. Thomas Renker, General Counsel of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, will offer a perspective on the growing conflict between culture and religious freedom in the United States.

Tom Renker joined the Diocese of Rockville Centre as General Counsel on October 22, 2007. For over 25 years, he has provided legal counsel to New York not-for-profit religious organizations and is now active, along with the grass roots Long Island organization, Catholics for Freedom of Religion, in raising awareness of growing governmental and cultural threats to the practice of religion in the public square. A native Long Islander and alumnus of Chaminade High School, Tom is a 1986 graduate of New York University School of Law and a 1982 graduate of Columbia College, Columbia University. A former resident of Sag Harbor, where his three children attended Stella Maris Regional School, he and his wife, Mary, now reside in Mineola and are parishioners of Corpus Christi parish.

Papa Francisco habla al Congreso - En los últimos siglos, millones de personas han alcanzado esta tierra persiguiendo el sueño de poder construir su propio futuro en libertad. Nosotros, pertenecientes a este continente, no nos asustamos de los extranjeros, porque muchos de nosotros hace tiempo fuimos extranjeros. Les hablo como hijo de inmigrantes, como muchos de ustedes que son descendientes de inmigrantes. Trágicamente, los derechos de cuantos vivieron aquí mucho antes que nosotros no siempre fueron respetados. A estos pueblos y a sus naciones, desde el corazón de la democracia norteamericana, deseo reafirmarles mi más alta estima y reconocimiento. Aquellos primeros contactos fueron bastantes convulsos y sangrientos, pero es difícil enjuiciar el pasado con los criterios del presente. Sin embargo, cuando el extranjero nos interpela, no podemos cometer los pecados y los errores del pasado. Debemos elegir la posibilidad de vivir ahora en el mundo más noble y justo posible, mientras formamos las nuevas generaciones, con una educación que no puede dar nunca la espalda a los «vecinos», a todo lo que nos rodea. Construir una nación nos lleva a pensarnos siempre en relación con otros, saliendo de la lógica de enemigo para pasar a la lógica de la recíproca subsidiaridad, dando lo mejor de nosotros. Confío que lo haremos.
