New Beginnings

Dear Parish Family,

This fall is bringing some wonderful new beginnings to our parish. I am happy to tell you that Maura O'Loughlin will be joining our staff this week as our youth minister. Maura has been an assistant youth minister at St. Boniface in Sea Cliff and has also worked as a mission trip leader for that parish and for other ministries across Long Island. She is an accomplished musician, a cellist, and is currently working in the performing arts / music program at Rocky Point. Teacher, musician, minister! What a great connection for our music loving parish! Maura will be here at our Masses this Sunday to introduce herself. On the next page you will see a number of upcoming opportunities for our young people to meet her. Please welcome her warmly.

I also learned this week that Bishop Nelson Perez will be with us at the 9:30 Mass on December 13 to open the doors of our church and begin the Holy Year of Mercy. This will be a great opportunity for our community to grow in its understanding of Pope Francis' message of mercy.

Mercy has both spiritual and physical dimensions in our church. It is about our own ability to forgive and be forgiven; and also about the way we reach out in service to those most in need. In the life of the church we have often spoken of this as the corporal works of mercy. This picture shows the corporal works of mercy woven into a heart.

Some say that in the life of grace there are no coincidences. I think it is especially appropriate that we are beginning our new Parish Social Ministry in this year of Mercy. This week our Parish Social Ministry director, Jeannine Rose, will be inviting members of our community to meet and discuss how our parish can better serve the senior members of our community. Her work will be to invite every member of our parish to integrate these works of mercy into our thoughts, our words, and most importantly into our deeds. There is so much to learn and so much we can do to better serve the needs of others.

I hope you will find these new beginnings exciting. Please spread the word and most importantly keep our new ministries in your prayers. The mercy of God is full of love and compassion and whether you are young or old, I invite you to be part of these new beginnings.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Medical Ethics for Patients: Fr. Mike Vetrano –November 16, 2015
5:30 PM Rogers Memorial Library
How Knowledge About Ethics and Patient Rights Can Help
You Optimize Your Health Care

Medical ethics, which examines ethical and social issues in the practice of medicine, is traditionally studied by physicians to enhance their understanding of patient rights, autonomy, and compassionate care. A growing body of real world knowledge suggests that patients should be better educated about their own rights and responsibilities and about how to communicate effectively with health care professionals.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

November is the Month of the Holy Souls. Our church has the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which parishioners write the names of their deceased. We recall and pray for our beloved dead, trusting in God's eternal love and mercy to welcome them into the glory of heaven. We invite you to share this time of remembrance by writing in the book the names of those friends and loved ones who have fallen asleep in Christ. The book will be conveniently located in the church's center aisle.

El Papa Francisco habla sobre de las Familias -

Estamos en la fiesta de las familias. La familia tiene carta de ciudadanía divina. ¿Está claro? La carta de ciudadanía que tiene la familia se la dio Dios, para que en su seno creciera cada vez más la verdad, el amor y la belleza. Claro, algunos de ustedes me pueden decir: «Padre, usted habla así porque es soltero». En la familia hay dificultades. En las familias discutimos. En las familias a veces vuelan los platos. En las familias los hijos traen dolores de cabeza. No voy a hablar de las suegras. Pero en las familias siempre, siempre, hay cruz; siempre. Porque el amor de Dios, el Hijo de Dios, nos abrió también ese camino. Pero en las familias también, después de la cruz, hay resurrección, porque el Hijo de Dios nos abrió ese camino. Por eso la familia es –perdónenme la palabra– una fábrica de esperanza, de esperanza de vida y resurrección, pues Dios fue el que abrió ese camino. Y los hijos. Los hijos dan trabajo. Nosotros como hijos dimos trabajo. A veces, en casa veo algunos de mis colaboradores que vienen a trabajar con ojeras. Tienen un bebé de un mes, dos meses. Y les pregunto: «¿No dormiste?». Y él: «No, lloró toda la noche». En la familia hay dificultades, pero esas dificultades se superan con amor. El odio no supera ninguna dificultad. La división de los corazones no supera ninguna dificultad. Solamente el amor es capaz de superar la dificultad. El amor es fiesta, el amor es gozo, el amor es seguir adelante. ### Reflections On the Gospel from Pax Christi November 8, 2015

Sunday's readings introduce us to two widows who are as impoverished as is humanly possible. One is on the verge of starvation; the other gives "her whole livelihood." How could they do that, and is that what God is asking of us? To answer the first question, we might consider that the widow of Zarephath might have given out of despair; she believed she was going to die anyway. She might have given because of her lowly status, her duty to Elijah as one higher than she. Or she might have given out of deep trust in God and unrestrained generosity. The widow at the temple might have given for similar reasons. Whatever the reason, Jesus laments the discrepancy between the giving of the poor and the wealthy. So, is the message to us to give all that we have or might it be to do all we can to reduce the discrepancy? Catholic Social Teaching instructs us to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first. How can we do a much better job of that? What can we give that is not only monetary, but also a giving of our talents? The world needs both.

Turkeys Wanted!!

Human Resources of the Hamptons needs donations of turkeys for their holiday baskets.

If you can donate a turkey please contact Hilton Crosby at 283-6415.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

Bingo is back at OLH! There will be a special BINGO night held at the school auditorium on Saturday evening, November 14th, beginning at 6:15PM. Admission of twenty dollars entitles the participants to five games of BINGO as well as a complimentary buffet supper and door prizes. Please contact the school at 283-9140 for details.

OLH students will hold a special Marathon Day of running, biking and jumping rope on Saturday, November 7th, from 9-11AM to benefit the school's activities program. The venue will be the gym, track and outdoor area of the school. Students are seeking sponsors for each lap covered in the running and biking events.

OLH Prep students sponsored a pre-Halloween costumes drive, selling last year's costumes at bargain prices and then turning over profits to Human Resources of the Hamptons.

Another group of prep students also did a "Reverse Trick or Treating", visiting senior citizens at Bishop Ryan Village on All Saints' Day and delivering special gift bags prepared by students, while Prep 7's John Allan made a special visit to Maria Regina residence to celebrate the 97th birthday of one of the retired nuns.

Information packets and registration materials are available at the school now, leading toward September 2016 enrollment in Kindergarten through eight. We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org. Tours can be arranged at any time, by calling 283-9140.

Money Drop

1. Get a penny, glass of water, and an eye dropper.
2. Take a guess as to how many drops of water can fit on the top of a penny that is lying flat on a table. Write your answer down on a piece of paper.
3. Begin the experiment by dropping 1 drop of water at a time onto the penny.
4. Do you need to adjust your guess?
5. Try the experiment a few more times to see if you get the same results.
6. Now clean the penny with soap and water and try it again.
7. Were the results the same or different?

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Elijah told a widow that God promised to put flour in her jar and oil in her jug until it rained! You can read the story in your Bible at 1 Kings 17:7-16.

- Color the letters in the jar that spell FLOUR orange.
- Color the letters in the jug that spell OIL blue.
- Color all the extra letters brown.

The brown letters spell what these two ingredients made for Elijah, the widow, and her son.

Write the word on the loaf below.
