Pastor's Letter

February 20/21, 2016

Transfiguring Love

Dear Parish Family,

On the Second Sunday of Lent we read the gospel of the Transfiguration. It describes a very powerful and intimate moment in which Jesus takes three of his disciples to a mountaintop with him to pray. What happens at the top is awesome and wonderful. The disciples see a vision of the future resurrection and glorification of Jesus and also feel the special depth of his affection for them. The experience is so profound that they do not want to descend the mountain. "Lord it is good for us to be here. Let us set up our tents and stay!"

I think we often forget that the relationship between Jesus and his followers was one of very deep love and affection. We often think that the choosing of the disciples was something like building a team or choosing the right partners to accomplish a mission. That makes sense from Jesus' side of the call but it does not account for the willingness of the disciples, along with their wives, families, and other friends, to follow the Lord so eagerly. It makes more sense if we remember that the disciples felt deeply loved in Jesus' presence. His love was transfiguring. It changed everything. It was good for them to be with him.

The entire message of the Gospels is about this transfiguring love. Last week's gospel recounts how Jesus received this love himself during his fasting and temptation in the desert. Now we see him passing on this special favor to some of those he has chosen. They gave up everything to follow Jesus but that empty space is filled with transfiguring love.

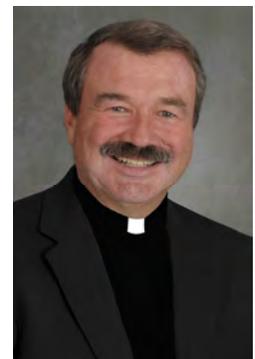

Lent is about doing some emptying. Giving up our usual way of spending our time, money, energy, and life itself can create some room for us to receive Jesus' transfiguring love. Our love for each other can be deeply transfiguring. What if a person gave up some usual ways of spending time to be more present to a child, a spouse, a friend? That person would more connect with transfiguring love. What if we emptied ourselves of resentments, prejudices, and negative opinions about others? Then it would give some space for transfiguring love.

That, of course, is why the disciples cannot stay on the mountaintop. Transfiguring love, once received, is a gift to be given away.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Lenten Mission 2016 A Mission of Mercy

In this Holy Year of Mercy our Lenten mission will bring together three speakers to lead us in understanding the mission of mercy in our lives. Please Join us each night in our church at 7:30pm to learn about the church's mission of mercy!

Monday, March 7: Mercy Revealed in women of faith. Dr. Maria Basil, MD, a doctor and poet, will share her awareness of mercy in her life as healer. As a physician, wife, and mother, Dr. Basil will reflect on faith, mercy, and healing in her life; and how we learn of mercy through Mary, the women Jesus meets along the way, and the saintly women of our church.

Tuesday, March 8: Bishop Nelson Perez will be with us to speak about Mercy toward the refugee and immigrant. This special mission of our country is also at the heart of the Gospel.

Wednesday, March 9: Police officer Steven McDonald will join us to speak about Mercy toward those who have harmed us. Officer McDonald was shot and paralyzed in 1986 while questioning a young suspect in a theft. Since that dreadful day he has preached a message of healing and forgiveness.

The Basilica Parish of Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary welcomes the following newly baptized infant with joy:

Saturday, March 12, 2016 10:00 AM in Chapel Room of Parish Center

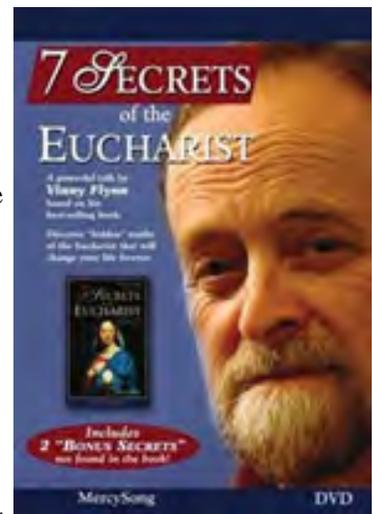

He was a just man, appointed by God to be the husband of Mary and the chosen father of Jesus. But there is more to St. Joseph than his familiar role at the center of the salvation message. He was a prayerful man, an exemplary worker and a true model of authentic manhood. This powerful film explores all aspects of St. Joseph and the many ways he reflects the nature of God, combining stunning artwork and interviews with Catholic leaders.

Saturday April 9, 2016 10:00 A.M. in Chapel Room of Parish Center

Pope John Paul II referred to the Holy Eucharist as "the greatest treasure of the Church," and yet even many devoted Catholics have a very limited understanding of this powerful sacrament. This book will change all that. The reader will come away with a completely new awareness that the Eucharist is not just about receiving Communion; it's about transforming your daily life.

Deeply based on the Scriptures, the writings of the Saints, and the teachings of our two most recent Popes, this profound and remarkably readable book will introduce you to some of the "hidden" truths of the Eucharist truths that have always been embraced by theologians, saints, and mystics, but have rarely been passed on to the average person in a meaningful way. In 7 Secrets of the Eucharist, these truths are finally made accessible to all, as author Vinny Flynn shows how each reception of Holy Communion can be a life-changing experience.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

The entire OLH community participated in a full scale Community Health Fair at the school on February 12, sharing their research on topics of health, nutrition, safety and general wellness. Community members from the Southampton Fire department, Police, Ambulance, Hospital, South Hampton Youth Services, professionals in nutrition, personal training, grooming, fitness and stress reduction worked with the students throughout the day. Active classes in TaiChi, Yoga, Kick Boxing and Tai Kwondo kept the 300 students moving after their running workout on the school's indoor track.

The 2016 Oratorical Contest for the students in grades 4-8 was held after two snow delays. Judges Mayor Mark Epley, Father Collins Adutwum and Mr. Robert Giglio certified that the winners were: Division I: Christopher Stutt of Prep 7 followed by Prep 6 Sarah Spanburgh and Prep 7 John Allan. The lower division winners were: Sophia Gonzalez (grade 4), Juliette Kearns, grade 5 and Calvin Henke, also grade 4.

The registration period leading toward enrollment at OLH for September 2016 is now open. Interested families are invited to request information packets early. Seating on the primary and intermediate grades will be limited, so early interviews are advised. Students seeking admission to kindergarten must be five years of age prior to December 1, 2016. Call 283-9140 for details.

A full-certified pre-school program for three and four year old children is offered by OLH at St. Rosalie's parish center in Hampton Bays. Enrollment information is available at the Southampton campus.

We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org. Tours can be arranged at any time, by calling 283-9140.

Reflections On the Gospel
February 21, 2016

Abram put his faith in the LORD, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him."

We live with doubts, as did our ancestors. Those doubts may be about our own lives, about others in our lives, or about Jesus, himself. But Sunday's readings assure us that God is taking notice and letting it be known that God is with us as God was with Abram and Jesus. Abram's faith earned him credit as a righteous man. Jesus's ministry earned him recognition as chosen so much so that we are instructed to "Listen to him." So let us exercise our faith; let us listen to Jesus; and let us follow in his footsteps of love, mercy, welcome, and generosity. It's time to put aside our doubts and put our trust in God.

El Papa Francisco visita a México y nos habla desde la Basílica de Guadalupe

En aquel amanecer de diciembre de 1531 se producía el primer milagro que luego será la memoria viva de todo lo que este Santuario custodia. En ese amanecer, en ese encuentro, Dios despertó la esperanza de su hijo Juan, la esperanza de un pueblo. En ese amanecer, Dios despertó y despierta la esperanza de los pequeños, de los sufrientes, de los desplazados y descartados, de todos aquellos que sienten que no tienen un lugar digno en estas tierras. En ese amanecer, Dios se acercó y se acerca al corazón sufriente pero resistente de tantas madres, padres, abuelos que han visto partir, perder o incluso arrebatarnos criminalmente a sus hijos.

En ese amanecer, Juancito experimenta en su propia vida lo que es la esperanza, lo que es la misericordia de Dios... Así logra despertar algo que él no sabía expresar, una verdadera bandera de amor y de justicia: en la construcción de ese otro santuario, el de la vida, el de nuestras comunidades, sociedades y culturas, nadie puede quedar afuera. Todos somos necesarios, especialmente aquellos que normalmente no cuentan por no estar a la «altura de las circunstancias» o por no «aportar el capital necesario» para la construcción de las mismas. El Santuario de Dios es la vida de sus hijos, de todos y en todas sus condiciones, especialmente de los jóvenes sin futuro expuestos a un sinfín de situaciones dolorosas, riesgosas, y la de los ancianos sin reconocimiento, olvidados en tantos rincones. El santuario de Dios son nuestras familias que necesitan de los mínimos necesarios para poder construirse y levantarse. El santuario de Dios es el rostro de tantos que salen a nuestros caminos. Tomado de http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/es/homilies/2016/documents/papa-francesco_20160213_omelia-messico-guadalupe.html.
