Pastor's Letter

June 11/12

Summer 2016

Dear Parish Family,

What defines you as a person? There is probably no other question in life more important or mysterious. We know that we are complicated people; we have many parts. Of all the components that make us human, that make us our unique selves, what is the one thing that defines us?

In the Gospel today Jesus meets a woman who lavishes affection on him. She is complicated. She has a story and the Pharisees know all about her. We never hear the details in the story but it is apparently all quite public. They think Jesus should know, too. They gossip to one another: "If this Jesus were really a prophet, he would surely know what kind of woman is touching him!" And he, they imply, would steer clear of her affection.

But Jesus doesn't seem to notice those parts of her life. He sees the love. He senses its genuineness. He tells those gossiping onlookers that she is forgiven because she has loved much! She is defined most of all by her love, not by all those other parts of her life.

All of us are a mix of good and evil. In my religious upbringing I remember people asking what would happen if a person lived a very good life but then committed some sin as their days were drawing to a close. It never made sense to me that one bad moment could overcome a life of goodness. Apparently Jesus did not think that way either.

Some people wonder if that kind of mercy means that striving to live a good life is not important or that avoiding evil does not matter. Nothing could be further from the truth. The only way to be defined by love is to strive for it often, even on the days when it seems to elude us or when we simply fail to be true to our best selves.

The love in today's gospel story is mutual. Jesus sees the woman's love for him. He returns this love in his words of appreciation and forgiveness. In the world of mercy it is God who washes our feet with tears and carefully dries them. We only truly understand that love defines us when we discover that it is God's love that triumphs over the broken and fragile parts of ourselves.

In the end, it is always mercy and love that define us.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Summer Programs

Monday July 11 :: Our Monday night concerts begin with the Rum Hill Rockers. They take their name from Rum Hill the highest point in Sag Harbor. Founders Bruce and Brett grew up playing music on that hill and Dan now plays each week in the church at the foot of the hill (and sometimes here at Sacred Hearts). The Rum Hill Rockers will also be providing music for our Tent party. Just a hint—they have a great Beatles repertoire.

Monday July 18 :: Folk music night with the Boxcar Lilies with special guest Jim Henry. Combining spine-tingling three-part harmony and savvy songwriting, The Boxcar Lilies have made a name for themselves with their signature mix of folk, country, blues, and bluegrass-tinged Americana music. Though each member of the Massachusetts-based trio has a distinct and exceptional singing talent, Jenny Goodspeed (electric bass), Stephanie Marshall (washboard, cajón), and Susan Cattaneo (guitar) deftly weave their voices into a delicious whole – a sound that is sometimes delicate, sometimes gritty, but always innovative and soul-stirring.

Monday to be announced
Fr. Pat Kelly in a special summer evening of prayer and reflection.

Check back here for a date with the Southampton Young Artists Festival

Saturday, August 20 :: Our own Ashley Bell in Concert!
A special evening of contemporary and classical music..

Enter the Holy Door of Mercy

Sacred Hearts has been chosen as one of four churches in the Diocese of Rockville Centre to have a Holy Door of Mercy through which pilgrims may obtain the same blessings as if they were to visit the jubilee door at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

One may walk through this door at any time but during this Holy Year of Mercy we will celebrate Eucharistic Adoration on Thursday from the conclusion of the noon mass until Benediction at 4:00 PM. We will also have confessions during this time and our Spanish community will pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy from 3:00 PM to 4:00 PM. We call Parishioners who support this time of prayer our Anchors of Mercy. If you are willing to join them please just come any Thursday during those hours.

Reflections On the Gospel

Sunday's readings tell two stories of God's extreme generosity in regards to forgiveness. Despite David's murder of Uriah to claim Uriah's wife as his own, God forgives David. Despite her sins, Jesus forgives the woman who washes his feet with her tears, dries them with her hair, and anoints them with ointment. God's forgiveness comes, we humans might say, undeserved. And it is tied to love, God's spontaneous gift of love to us and our responsive love to God.

But there is more to these stories. In both cases, there is remorse on the part of David and the woman. Contrast that to the Pharisee who invited Jesus to his home, but failed to follow proper protocol for hospitality. Instead he questions Jesus's identity as a prophet and looks down on the woman.

El Papa Francisco Habla sobre la Familia -

Frente a quienes prohibían el matrimonio, el Nuevo Testamento enseña que «todo lo que Dios ha creado es bueno; no hay que desechar nada» (1 Tt 4,4). El matrimonio es un «don» del Señor (cf. 1 Co 7,7). Al mismo tiempo, por esa valoración positiva, se pone un fuerte énfasis en cuidar este don divino: «Respeten el matrimonio, el lecho nupcial» (Hb 13,4). Ese regalo de Dios incluye la sexualidad: «No os privéis uno del otro» (1 Co 7,5).

Los Padres sinodales recordaron que Jesús «refiriéndose al designio primigenio sobre el hombre y la mujer, reafirma la unión indisoluble entre ellos... La indisolubilidad del matrimonio — “lo que Dios ha unido, que no lo separe el hombre” (Mt 19,6)— no hay que entenderla ante todo como un “yugo” impuesto a los hombres sino como un “don” hecho a las personas unidas en matrimonio [...] La condescendencia divina acompaña siempre el camino humano, sana y transforma el corazón endurecido con su gracia, orientándolo hacia su principio, a través del camino de la cruz. De los Evangelios emerge claramente el ejemplo de Jesús, que [...] anunció el mensaje concerniente al significado del matrimonio como plenitud de la revelación que recupera el proyecto originario de Dios (cf. Mt 19,3)».

«Jesús, que reconcilió cada cosa en sí misma, volvió a llevar el matrimonio y la familia a su forma original (cf. Mc 10,1-12). La familia y el matrimonio fueron redimidos por Cristo (cf. Ef 5,21-32), restaurados a imagen de la Santísima Trinidad, misterio del que brota todo amor verdadero. La alianza sponsal, inaugurada en la creación y revelada en la historia de la salvación, recibe la plena revelación de su significado en Cristo y en su Iglesia. De Cristo, mediante la Iglesia, el matrimonio y la familia reciben la gracia necesaria para testimoniar el amor de Dios y vivir la vida de comunión.. De Amoris Laetitia, §61, 62, 63. Dado en Roma, el 19 de marzo, del año 2016..
