Standing Together for Peace

A Community Vigil for Peace and Healing

Dear Parish Family,

One of the most special and valuable things about the village of Southampton is its community spirit and the very close relationship between its religious leaders. This week there was a very enthusiastic and lively exchange between pastors and members of our churches concerning the recent acts of violence and hate in Orlando and in too many other parts of our country and our world.

We agreed that prayer is important and necessary and that our churches should be a witness for peace and for healing. And so on Monday evening, June 27, you are invited to a Community Vigil for Peace and Healing. The vigil will begin here at Sacred Hearts at 7:00 PM. Each community has been invited to bring with them a prayer, a reading from scripture, and a song.

As the prayers end here in our church we will walk together in a candlelight vigil through our town toward St. John's Episcopal Church for a final blessing and fellowship on their lawn.

At the time I am writing this to you, the list of participants includes: Southampton Presbyterian Church, Greek Orthodox Church of the Hamptons, Our Lady of the Hamptons School, St. John's Episcopal Church, Kings Chapel Church of God, and Sacred Hearts. I am sure many others will join us as the word is spread.

Won't you please join us and lift your voices to heal the hatred and stand together for peace.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Summer Programs

Monday July 11 6:30 PM :: Ice Cream Night with the Rum Hill Rockers

Our Monday night concerts begin with the Rum Hill Rockers. They take their name from Rum Hill the highest point in Sag Harbor. Founders Bruce and Brett grew up playing music on that hill and Dan now plays each week in the church at the foot of the hill (and sometimes here at Sacred Hearts). The Rum Hill Rockers will also be providing music for our Tent party. Just a hint—they have a great Beatles repertoire.

Monday July 18 6:30 PM :: Country Folk music night with the Boxcar Lilies with special guest Jim Henry.

Monday July 25 6:30 PM :: Father Kevin McDonald in concert

Father McDonald is priest-composer who prior to being ordained a priest, about 2 and 1/2 years ago, was a professional musician. A concert pianist in classical and jazz idioms as well as an active composer. He toured, prior to ordination, and has performed as a pianist and guitarist throughout the American Southwest since ordination.

Monday, August 1 :: Fr. Pat Kelly in a special summer evening of prayer and reflection.

Monday, August 8 :: Beau Sinatra and Pizza Night at SHJM!

That's live on the great lawn with our own Beau Hulse. Beau will treat us to his wonderful Frank Sinatra review. Hint: Bring your dancing shoes!!

Saturday, August 20 :: Our own Ashley Bell in Concert!

Monday, August 22:: Southampton Young Artists Festival at SHJM

In Sympathy

Richard E. Manzo

We mourn the passing of Richard “Doc” Manzo on June 9, 2016, after a 25 year battle with Parkinson’s. A Memorial mass will be celebrated at the Basilica of Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary on Tuesday, June 28, 2015 at 5 PM by Rev. Michael A. Vetrano. Richard and his wife, Mary, were the Creative Directors at Manzo Finalborgo Design, a graphic design company they began in 1982. Richard was known for his perfectionism in his work.

Along with his love of his family and friends he was passionate about tennis, music, and sports cars. Our sympathy goes out to his wife, Mary, his children, Danielle and Jason, his sister, Janet and her husband, Don, family and friends.

Reflections On the Gospel

“You were called for freedom,” St. Paul tells the Galatians and us in this Sunday’s second reading, freedom to “serve one another through love.” This is a very special kind of freedom and one we should cherish. It frees us from hatred and violence, prejudice and vengeance, rivalry and conquest. This freedom liberates us from attachments and fears that hold us back. It enables us to follow Jesus despite rejection and uprootedness. It empowers us to give selflessly and reflect the kin-dom of God. As we approach Independence Day, let us bring new understanding to the meaning of our freedom. Let us celebrate our freedom not to be independent, but to be interdependent on each other and God.

El Papa Francisco Habla sobre el Amor y la Ternura en la Familia - Cristo ha introducido como emblema de sus discípulos sobre todo la ley del amor y del don de sí a los demás (cf. Mt 22,39; Jn 13,34), y lo hizo a través de un principio que un padre o una madre suelen testimoniar en su propia existencia: «Nadie tiene amor más grande que el que da la vida por sus amigos» (Jn 15,13). Fruto del amor son también la misericordia y el perdón.

En el horizonte del amor, central en la experiencia cristiana del matrimonio y de la familia, se destaca también otra virtud, algo ignorada en estos tiempos de relaciones frenéticas y superficiales: la ternura. Acudamos al dulce e intenso Salmo 131. Como se advierte también en otros textos (cf. Ex 4,22; Is 49,15; Sal 27,10), la unión entre el fiel y su Señor se expresa con rasgos del amor paterno o materno. Aquí aparece la delicada y tierna intimidad que existe entre la madre y su niño, un recién nacido que duerme en los brazos de su madre después de haber sido amamantado. Por eso el salmista canta: «Tengo mi interior en paz y en silencio, como un niño destetado en el regazo de su madre» (Sal 131,2). De modo paralelo, podemos acudir a otra escena, donde el profeta Oseas coloca en boca de Dios como padre estas palabras conmovedoras: «Cuando Israel era joven, lo amé [...] Yo enseñe a andar a Efraín, lo alzaba en brazos [...] Con cuerdas humanas, con correas de amor lo atraía; era para ellos como el que levanta a un niño contra su mejilla, me inclinaba y le daba de comer» (11,1.3-4). De Amoris Laetitia, §27, 28.. Dado en Roma, el 19 de marzo, del año 2016..
