Pastor's Letter

October 22/23

Dear Parish Family,

A Pilgrimage to the Holy Land

It was just a little more than five years ago that I made my first trip to the Holy Land. A deacon in my parish had put the pilgrimage together and invited me to go as their spiritual director. I did not quite know what to expect. It was a long overnight trip. We arrived in Tel Aviv and then took a bus trip to Galilee, arriving there well after dark. We ate dinner and tumbled into bed. The next morning we met our guide and were led to our first stop, the Mount of the Beatitudes.

I assumed we would have Mass in the beautiful church built on the mountain. But our server led us out of the building and over to a spot on the hillside where there was an outdoor altar. We had Mass overlooking the Sea of Galilee on the very spot where Jesus taught his disciples the Beatitudes so many years ago. It was one of the most amazing experiences of my life. In the seminary I studied the geography of the Bible, so whenever I read a gospel I had a picture of the scene in my mind. But to this day I never read a gospel without thinking of what it was like to actually be in the places where the events of our faith took place.

In many ways a trip to the Holy Land is the ultimate pilgrimage. What makes a trip a pilgrimage as opposed to a vacation or a tour? The difference is really in the attitude and purpose of the person making the pilgrimage. A pilgrimage is about faith and faith always involves a journey. Faith takes us from where we are to a place closer to God. Sometimes a pilgrimage is deliberately physically difficult. Some pilgrims climb mountains to remind themselves that faith is an ascent to God. Some walk many miles to remind themselves that faith, like life, is a long journey that requires constancy and persistence. Some walk in the footsteps of the saints and some travel to places where others have had profound experiences of God. Pilgrims, in other words, allow their journey to symbolize their life as a movement toward God and God's goodness.

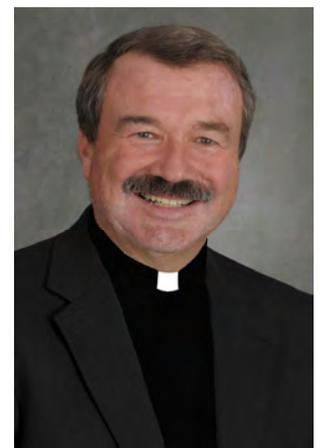

This Lent I will be leading a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. It is an opportunity for those who can join me to see firsthand where the great events of our faith took place. Feel the heat of the desert where Jesus was tempted. Stand and renew your baptism in the same waters where John baptized Jesus. Sail on the Sea of Galilee where Jesus walked on water. Stand on the very stones where Pilate condemned Jesus to death. Pray at the Mount of the Beatitudes or in the Garden of Gethsemane. Be a pilgrim.

I invite you to consider joining me on this pilgrimage. There will be an information night this Tuesday at 7 PM in the rectory for you to learn more about this trip. Consider taking part in a journey that will forever change how you hear and live the gospels.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Divorce and Remarriage: Where Do I Stand with the Church?

This evening will be given by Fr. Mike Vetrano. He is our pastor and also an advocate at the tribunal in our diocese. Advocates help those seeking annulments to bring their case before the tribunal in a pastorally sensitive and compassionate manner. This evening is geared for those who wonder about where they or a friend or a family member stand with the church and will explain the various options open to those who were married in the church and now wish to begin a new relationship with the full blessing of the church. We meet at 7 PM in the Rectory.

Ministry Evening :: November 3, 2016 at 7 PM in our Church

Nothing is more important to our parish life than the celebration of mass each week. And nothing is more crucial to that celebration than the good work of our Eucharistic ministers, lectors, ushers, and altar servers.

I would like to invite all our Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, and Ushers to a special evening to help our ministries grow and develop.

We will:

Pray together

Learn about how we can better celebrate Mass in a prayerful and peaceful spirit

Review some important procedures for Sunday mass

Give everyone a chance to ask questions

RSVP as soon as you can to Fr. Mike: pastor@shjmbasilica.org or to 631-283-0097 Ext 311

Have you always wanted a piano? Secretly wanted to learn to play? Now is your chance!

UPRIGHT PIANO needs a little tune up but otherwise in good shape. No reasonable offer refused.

Please call Suzanne at the Parish Office 631-283-0097 Ext 0.

Supporting the Basilica Parish of the Sacred Hearts

We hope that you enjoyed your visit to Sacred Hearts. We are a small year round community and this maintenance of this beautiful church and its many ministries are made possible by the year round support and special holiday generosity of each of you. We are grateful for your generosity today. If you would like to learn about other opportunities to support us please consider the following:

Become a Registered Member or Friend of the Basilica. You are welcome to make Sacred Hearts your home parish and if you already belong to another community we would be happy to include you in our membership as a Friend of the Basilica. Visit: www.shjmbasilica.org/register

Contributing to our Christmas Appeal: Our Christmas appeal is important and supports us through the winter. You can contribute to this appeal by using one of the envelopes mailed home or in the back of our church or contribute online. Visit www.shjmbasilica.org/waystogive

Our Lady of the Hamptons

The Prep 7 students of OLH participated in the Diocesan Technology Day at Adventureland. The program coordinates Science, Math and Technology with amusement park attractions.

That same class also spent one of their monthly lunchtime visits with the patrons of the Bridgehampton Nutrition center. The class served lunch, entertained and shared intergenerational stories with their older companions.

Primary students at OLH shared Fire Prevention Week with the members of the Southampton Fire Department under the direction of Alfred Callahan, fire department member and OLH graduate.

In anticipation of the Thirty-fifth anniversary of OLH, the list of alumni is being compiled. Plans will be in place for a gathering of graduates from 1982-2016, as well as graduates of Our Lady of Poland School (1961-1982) and Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary (1926-1982). If you are an alumnus, or know of anyone, please send either their email contact or physical address to Sister Kathy at 160 North Main Street, Southampton...or sks@hamptons.com. Celebrate the great legacy of Catholic education on the East End!

Enter the Holy Door of Mercy

Sacred Hearts has been chosen as one of four churches in the Diocese of Rockville Centre to have a Holy Door of Mercy through which pilgrims may obtain the same blessings as if they were to visit the jubilee door at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

One may walk through this door at any time but during this Holy Year of Mercy we will celebrate Eucharistic Adoration on Thursday from the conclusion of the noon mass until Benediction at 4:00 PM. We will also have confessions during this time and our Spanish community will pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy from 3:00 PM to 4:00 PM. We call Parishioners who support this time of prayer our Anchors of Mercy. If you are willing to join them please just come any Thursday during those hours.

Secular Franciscans

meet on the Second Sunday of the month after the 11 AM Mass in the Parish Center. You are always welcome to come to our meetings. Please come, bring a friend, bring a snack for breakfast, and we supply the coffee.

Resurrection Prayer

Group :: meets on Tuesdays at 6 PM in the Parish Center. Come share your healing gifts with us. Prayer requests are always welcome.

Spiritual Book Group ::

Spiritual Book Group has resumed. They meet on Tuesdays, at 1 PM, in the Parish Center. All are welcome.

Memorials:

Bread, Wine & Candles

The Altar bread, Wine and Candles for this week were given in loving memory of Marc Daconta by Lewis Kasman.

Sunday's first reading tells us, "They who serve God willingly are heard; their petition reaches the heavens." Very comforting words, but how are they heard by those who serve willingly and pray faithfully, yet struggle against hunger, homelessness, unemployment, illness, conflict, or a combination of these afflictions? Likely their faith is challenged. Then the Gospel tells us that a seemingly righteous man who is not greedy, dishonest or adulterous is not "justified" by God. How does that make those who strive to live equally righteous lives feel? Likely quite upset. What's going on here? Perhaps we need to consider humbly and honestly why such things as hunger and homelessness persist? How righteous are we? Is there something more we can do to help alleviate them? Maybe we can't give more in goods, but maybe we can give more in prayer and presence to nourish faith and extend mercy.

While emphasizing the need to promote recognition and respect for the new life of a pre-born baby, we seek to promote the dignity of human life at all ages, regardless of the presence of illness or disability.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE HAS BEGUN -- September 28 through November 6th. Launched in 2007, 40 days for life has become one of the largest Pro-Life efforts, with tens of thousands participating worldwide.

In an attempt to address the over one-million abortions per year in our nation alone, this period of prayer, fasting, and peaceful vigils at abortion centers, gives each of us a chance to contribute. Please participate in whatever way you can to promote respect for the new life of the unborn. For more information go to www.40daysforlife.com.

Conversión de Corazón - En la segunda lectura, San Pablo a los romanos les dice que de nada serviría que predicaran si no se convierten los corazones. San Pablo escribe en el contexto en que se ha oído la predicación. Pero lo que pasa es que no quieren creer en su corazón. La necesidad de creer - dice San Pablo- porque sólo la fe en Dios es la que salva. La liberación que la Iglesia predica es a base de ese creer en Dios. La liberación solamente tiene que venir de Dios, pero contando con la conversión del corazón del hombre; y de nada sirve que Dios nos esté ofreciendo su redención, su liberación, un mundo mejor, si los encargados de construir este mundo en la tierra no quieren colaborar con ese Dios. Tomado de la Homilía de Mons. Oscar Romero, 23 de octubre de 1977.

All Saints Day

Many people celebrate Halloween on October 31.
The church celebrates All Saints Day
on November 1.

To prepare, as we do for Halloween,
try to find the answers to these questions:

- Am I named after a saint?
- What is a saint?
- Can I name any saints?

If you do not know any of these answers,
ask your parents.

If your family has a Saint Joseph Edition of the Holy Bible, look in the front and you can read about Saint Joseph.

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN!

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

Jesus told a story of one person praying. The man thanked God that he was not a sinner like the rest of the people. He followed the 10 Commandments and even went to church twice a week.

Sir 35:12-14, 16-18
2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18

Ps 34:2-3, 17-19, 23
Lk 18:9-14

Directions: Write what you would like to do twice a week.

© J. S. Paluch Company, Inc.

Jesus told a parable about two people who prayed for forgiveness (Luke 18:9-14). One was proud, the other was humble. The lesson of this story is below—but it needs changes. Replace each incorrect underlined word by writing the correct one from the word bank above it.

God wants most Christians to be proud when we lie.

If we are somewhat sorry, God is merciful and won't forgive our goodness.

(Word Bank)

- truly
- sins
- will
- all
- humble
- pray

Jesus let the people know that the first man will be humbled and the second, who was humble in praying to God, will be exalted.

Directions: Who is humble? Circle the people that look humble.
