Pastor's Letter

A Year of Mercy

November 5/6

Dear Parish Family,

Autumn is truly a season of God's mercy. More than four hundred years ago the English poet and cleric John Donne wrote these words reflecting on this season.

God made sun and moon to distinguish seasons, and day and night, and we cannot have the fruits of the earth but in their seasons; but God hath made no decree to distinguish the seasons of his mercies; in Paradise, the fruits were ripe the first minute, and in heaven it is always autumn, his mercies are ever in their maturity.

There is no season to God's mercy. There is no time during which we must wait for it, no time in which it is unavailable. We humans often seem to worry about when and if we will receive mercy, but the scriptures offers us an endless amount of assurance that we have already received an unimaginable depth of mercy. This realization was at the heart of Thomas Merton's conversion and one of the first books he wrote. The Sign of Jonas was a reflection on this single line from the book of Jonas: "I have always overshadowed Jonas with My mercy, and cruelty I know not at all. Have you had sight of Me, Jonas My child? Mercy within mercy within mercy."

In autumn here at Sacred Heart we remember God's mercy in the love we have for all those who have died and who now we trust live within that mercy. This past week we celebrated the feast of All Saints and All Souls, a time to believe in the welcome given to those we have loved so much in this life. No matter what they endured in this life, their lives are full and alive in God's presence.

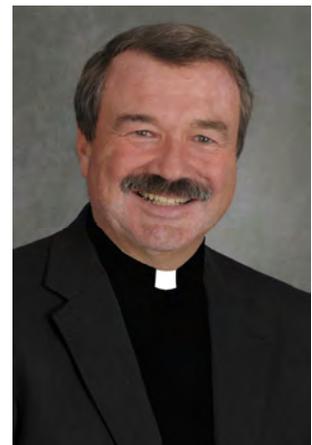

This year has been special too as our year of mercy. Our own open doors became a living sign of the inspirational message of mercy that Pope Francis challenged us to realize in our church. Mercy is a way of going beyond the ordinary hurts and struggles that divide people in this life and to extend to one another a little bit of heaven — undeserved and generously given mercy. The great Jubilee Year comes to an end for us on Thursday, November 10. But so many of those who have shared in the prayer and works of this year have told me that it must not end. They want to pray, they want to continue to be Anchors of Mercy. Is not that the whole point of a year of mercy: to learn something of God that is truly enduring?

I have every confidence that the spirit of mercy will always be alive here at Sacred Hearts. In heaven it is always autumn. God's mercies are always at their maturity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Rev. Michael A. Vetrano

Closing of the Holy Doors of Mercy :: November 10, 2016

Our year long celebration of mercy is almost complete. Bishop William Murphy will be here on Thursday, November 10th at 12 noon Mass to celebrate the conclusion of the year of mercy. Please join with our bishop and with students from OLH and McGann Mercy as we give thanks for this year of mercy.

SHJM celebrates Veteran's Day Sunday, November 13th at 9:30 AM Mass

All men and women who have served our country in the armed forces are invited to come to the 9:30 Mass on November 13th as we honor your service and ask God's blessing. You are welcome to attend in uniform if you wish or to wear another insignia or sign of your service. We welcome the opportunity during this month of thanksgiving to express our gratitude to you.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

November is the Month of the Holy Souls. Our church has the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which parishioners write the names of their deceased. We recall and pray for our beloved dead, trusting in God's eternal love and mercy to welcome them into the glory of heaven.

We invite you to share this time of remembrance by writing in the book the names of those friends and loved ones who have fallen asleep in Christ. The book will be conveniently located in the church's center aisle.

Lessons and Carols is a traditional Advent Service that began in King's College, Cambridge, England in 1918. This historic service includes Old and New Testament readings anticipating the birth of our Savior, followed by the singing of a carol appropriate for that reading. Our program will consist of nine readings (lessons) and songs (carols).

A great way to begin Advent!

Religious Education News

Dear Friends:

I want to thank Jennifer Ferrantino for the wonderful work she has done here at SHJM over the past three years. I also want to assure you that we will be doing everything we can to support the program for our children in the days ahead. Choosing a new director is a priority and we want to take the time needed to find the right person.

Meanwhile – you can continue to communicate with the religious education office by phone and email. The best current email is RELED@SHJMBASILICA.ORG

Within the next two weeks I will be meeting with our catechists to assess our needs as we make plans going forward. Again, thanks so much to Jen and for your understanding and cooperation.

Fr. Mike

Be A Year Round Friend and Supporter of SHJM

It's that time of year when the days get colder and a time when many many SHJM parishioners have active plans. The migration of summer visitors, people heading to warmer climates for the winter, vacations, and travels all diminish the numbers of those who are able to worship here each week. But please remember that our parish itself is here year round and we never take a break from service and ministry. Last year we began a program of planned, automated giving, called First Fruits. It was a huge success and well over 10% of our supporters participate in this way. It enabled our parish to maintain a more consistent year round income. Automated giving can help insure that our parish remains strongly supported. So here are some ways you can do this:

First Fruits: The easiest, and best if you are technologically challenged is to enroll in First Fruits. All you need to do is give us a void check and fill out a First Fruits Form. You can get one on our website, at the rectory, or at the back of church. First Fruits transfers a contribution either weekly or monthly from your checking account to the church.

Online Bill Pay: Chances are your bank already had a online check writing service called Bill Pay. If you have online access to your checking account you can set it up to write a regular check to SHJM. Just visit your online banking site and set it up for the contribution you desire. Remember to include your Envelope Number Pay Pal: Pay pal is another way you can make regular contributions. Soon it will also be a way that you can contribute using Credit Cards. Check our website and check back here for more information.

Secular Franciscans

meet on the Second Sunday of the month after the 11 AM Mass in the Parish Center. You are always welcome to come to our meetings. Please come, bring a friend, bring a snack for breakfast, and we supply the coffee.

Resurrection Prayer

Group :: meets on Tuesdays at 6 PM in the Parish Center. Come share your healing gifts with us. Prayer requests are always welcome.

Spiritual Book

Group :: Spiritual Book Group has resumed. They meet on Tuesdays, at 1 PM, in the Parish Center. All are welcome.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

OLH Prep 6 student James Conigliaro of Wainscott took the first place medal at the Catholic Middle Schools Athletics Association championships held at Sunken Meadow State Park. He paced his team to an outstanding victory at the diocesan finals, with classmate Hector Maldonado of Montauk and fifth grader Michael Gilbert of East Hampton medaling in the top twenty-five.

The next meeting of the OLH Alumni Association will be held on Thursday evening, November 10 at 7PM.

In anticipation of the Thirty-fifth anniversary of OLH, the list of alumni is being compiled. Plans will be in place for a gathering of graduates from 1982-2016, as well as graduates of Our Lady of Poland School (1961-1982) and Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary (1926-1982). If you are an alumnus, or know of anyone, please send either their email contact or physical address to Sister Kathy at 160 North Main Street, Southampton...or sks@hamptons.com. Celebrate the great legacy of Catholic education on the East End!

We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org. Tours can be arranged at any time....even during the summer.... by calling 283-9140.

Billy Giglio, OLH '12 and McGann Mercy '16 recently visited the students at OLH after graduation from basic training in the US Marine Corps.

We know we are getting to the end of the liturgical year as our Sunday readings focus more and more on themes of death and dying, end-times and the afterlife. In this Sunday's readings, we learn about the brothers who refuse to transgress what they believe is God's law and hence are tortured and killed. To us, refusing to eat pork may seem a poor reason to subject oneself to a brutal death, but this isn't about pork; it's about one's faithfulness to God. We also learn, once again, that Jesus is not to be tricked by his opponents, this time regarding the resurrection. While the Sadducees show their limited vision of an afterlife, concerned more about a man's right to a woman (and no concern about the woman, herself), Jesus informs them that in the resurrection there is no marriage. There, all are like the angels, children of God. We could add "neither male nor female." The ultimate union with God makes all equal in worth and welcome. Rather than worry ourselves about the resurrection, we would be better to attend to our own faithfulness to God and, in St. Paul's words to the Thessalonians, check that we are doing and will continue to do what we have been instructed.

NEED HELP DECIDING ON OUR OBLIGATIONS FOR VOTING? Need guidance on such questions as...

Do I have to vote at all, since I do not like either candidate? Can I, in good conscience, vote for a party whose platform contains the strongest and most far reaching pro-abortion position perhaps in history? Try www.ewtn.com/vote for help.

Nuestra Fe Informa Nuestra Conciencia – La conciencia cristiana bien formada no permite a nadie favorecer con el propio voto la realización de un programa político o la aprobación de una ley particular que contengan propuestas alternativas o contrarias a los contenidos fundamentales de la fe y la moral. Ya que las verdades de fe constituyen una unidad inseparable, no es lógico el aislamiento de uno solo de sus contenidos en detrimento de la totalidad de la doctrina católica. El compromiso político a favor de un aspecto aislado de la doctrina social de la Iglesia no basta para satisfacer la responsabilidad de la búsqueda del bien común en su totalidad.

Los católicos a menudo afrontan decisiones difíciles sobre cómo votar. Es por esto que es tan importante votar de acuerdo con una conciencia bien formada que perciba la relación apropiada que existe entre los bienes morales. Un católico no puede votar a favor de un candidato que toma una posición a favor de algo intrínsecamente malo, como el aborto provocado, la eutanasia, el suicidio asistido, el sometimiento deliberado de los trabajadores o los pobres a condiciones de vida infrahumanas, la redefinición del matrimonio en formas que violan su significado esencial, o comportamientos racistas, si la intención del votante es apoyar tal posición. En tales casos un católico sería culpable de cooperar formalmente con un mal grave. Pero al mismo tiempo, un votante no debería usar la oposición a un mal intrínseco de un candidato para justificar una indiferencia o despreocupación hacia otras cuestiones morales importantes que atañen a la vida y dignidad humanas.

Como católicos, no votamos basándonos en una sola cuestión. La posición de un candidato respecto a una sola cuestión no es suficiente para garantizar el apoyo del votante. Sin embargo, la posición de un candidato respecto a una sola cuestión relacionada con un mal intrínseco, como es el apoyo al aborto legal o la promoción del racismo, puede llevar legítimamente al votante a descalificar a un candidato y no recibir su apoyo. Formando la conciencia para ser ciudadanos fieles, §§30, 34, 42

Journal Your Life

1. Ask your parents to buy a spiral notebook for you.
2. Write your name on the inside cover.
3. Write the date at the top of the first page.
4. Draw a picture or write what special thing you did or saw that day or just what you are thinking about.
5. Each day write an entry into your journal.

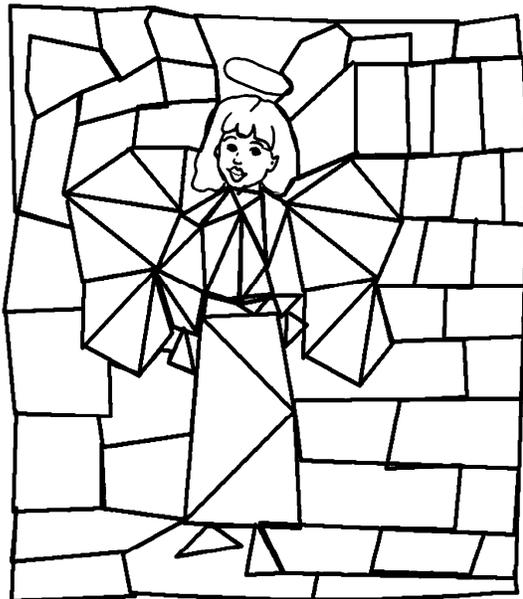

Hints:

- Don't worry about the spelling, just sound it out as best you can.
- A picture entry into your journal is just fine. It does not always have to be written.
- Feel free to share your journal with others or keep it to yourself. It's all up to you!
