Thanksgiving Unites Us

Dear Parish Family,

A sign in the cardiac rehab unit at a local hospital says it all: "All Political Discussions are Forbidden." I guess it is no mystery to the hospital staff that, along with all the usual risks to a healthy heart, our different views on things political could dangerously raise one's blood pressure. But everyone knows that. It has become more and more obvious over these last weeks that we are very much a nation divided, not only in our thinking about who would get our vote but in our most fundamental attitudes toward, race, gender, citizenship, economy, and other significant issues.

I have often noticed that Thanksgiving is just about the only thing we all agree on. You never meet someone who says that they don't celebrate Thanksgiving. No one is offended by being greeted with "Happy Thanksgiving." I can't imagine anyone saying that to be thankful is a terrible idea! Perhaps this Thanksgiving will be especially meaningful to us all.

The story of Thanksgiving, however accurately or inaccurately we tell it, seems hopeful. It tells us that colonists, explorers, and Native Americans could sit at table of thanksgiving together. That they could be thankful in a time of adversity. Knowing that God was the source of these blessings holds promise for us today.

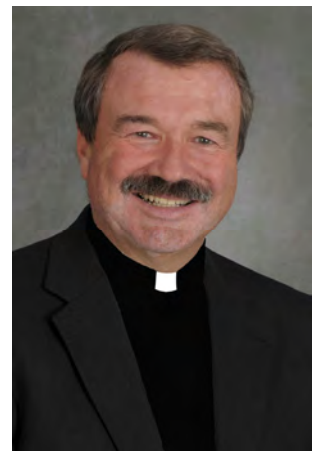

A key to resolving differences is understanding. The ability to know and value another even when understanding is difficult is fundamental to our unity. It is easy to look only at our own families, our own cultures, our own races, viewpoints, advantages, and blessings. That we are all God's children and that our lives are equally important is a fundamental teaching of our faith. In the history of our nation this faith-based knowledge has been a key to our unity and strength. In the best sense, we are one nation under God. This is not a private possession but a vision for all the nations on our earth. Our feast today, Christ the King, is about that. Christ is the king of ALL creation.

So please come join us on Thanksgiving Day. Let's be one. Let's pray together. Let us ask the God of all creation to help us to be together in our thanks.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Thanksgiving Day Mass

Join us Thursday, November 24th, at 10 AM to celebrate Thanksgiving

What could be better than to begin Thanksgiving day with a prayer of thanks to God! It is also a day to be grateful for our community. I invite you to come to this special mass, to bring your family and friends, and to bring a gift for our food pantry. I also invite you to bring something from your table to bless. In this way you can unite your Thanksgiving table with the altar of thanksgiving.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

November is the Month of the Holy Souls. Our church has the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which parishioners write the names of their deceased. We recall and pray for our beloved dead, trusting in God's eternal love and mercy to welcome them into the glory of heaven.

We invite you to share this time of remembrance by writing in the book the names of those friends and loved ones who have fallen asleep in Christ. The book will be conveniently located in the church's center aisle.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

The OLH Prep students (grades six through eight) made the pilgrimage of walking to and from the Basilica of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary and participated in the liturgy for the closing of the doors to the Year of Mercy. After the Mass, Bishop William Murphy came to the school where he blessed the new front entrance and doors to the school.

Mrs. Valerie Hanley and her Prep 7 students presented special Veterans Day cards that were made by OLH students to residents of the Southampton Care Center, as well as the Bridgehampton Nutrition Center. The class also shared their monthly lunch visit with the Bridgehampton group.

Prep 6 runner, James Conigliaro received his championship first place medal at the final meet of the Catholic Middle Schools Athletics Association event. Classmate Hector Maldonado was also cited for his consistent finishing in the top ten of all runners throughout the cross-country season.

The public is invited to share in the Family Advent Service, an evening of prayer, song, and dance that culminates in the lighting of the Christmas tree and blessing of the Christmas crèche on Tuesday, December 6th at seven o'clock.

In anticipation of the Thirty-fifth anniversary of OLH, the list of alumni is being compiled. Plans will be in place for a gathering of graduates from 1982-2016, as well as graduates of Our Lady of Poland School (1961-1982) and Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary (1926-1982). If you are an alumnus, or know of anyone, please send either their email contact or physical address to Sister Kathy at 160 North Main Street, Southampton...or sk@hamptons.com. Celebrate the great legacy of Catholic education on the East End!

We invite parishioners and friends to learn more about Our Lady of the Hamptons by visiting the website www.olh.org. Tours can be arranged at any time....even during the summer.... by calling 283-9140.

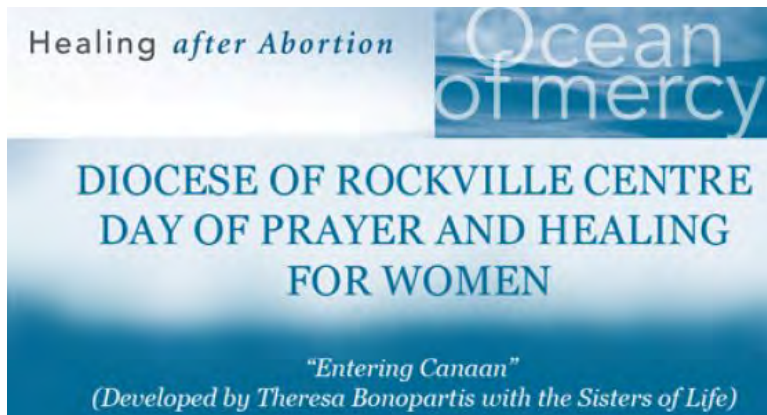

Sunday marks the end of another liturgical year, and, as always, we end the year by celebrating Christ as King. But why? Certainly Jesus was no king in the way that we know kings in history. He did not have a geographic realm. He did not live in a castle staffed by underlings who catered to his every need and desire. He did not rule a populace that simply existed to work his land, provide his food, fight his battles, and suffer harsh consequences if they disappointed him in any way. Instead, Jesus was the one who served, who fed the hungry, protected the vulnerable, healed the sick, who endured criticism, accusations, mockery, and ultimate torture and execution. What kind of king is that? In fact, he is one who does command. He commands us to love as he loved, to serve as he served, to give as he gave, and to endure suffering as he endured it. As we commemorate Christ the King, let us remember the kind of King we have.

TODO HOMBRE QUE ESTÁ DE PARTE DE LA VERDAD, ESCUCHA MI VOZ.

JN 18,37

Monseñor Romero nos enseña sobre Cristo Rey – El pueblo peregrino en la tierra que marcha guiado por el Espíritu del Señor y por su divino conductor, Cristo, rey de las naciones, llega al final del año litúrgico. Como que termina, pues, una meta de esta peregrinación. El año litúrgico es el despliegue, a lo largo de los doce meses, de la personalidad de este rey y de su reino, de sus características. De modo que, a esta altura, todos nosotros que gloriamos del título de cristianos, debíamos de estar más conscientes del personaje que seguimos, Cristo rey, y de las características del reino al que él nos ha convocado y nos ha admitido por el bautismo. Este reino, y este rey, está bien encarnado en esta tierra. Su reino es un reino para los hombres, concretos de la historia.

Así, hermanos, cuánto bien haríamos si en vez de difamarnos desacreditarnos, y odiarnos, trabajáramos como un solo pueblo sacerdotal, orientando con Cristo hacia Dios esta naturaleza creada para Dios. Y como profeta, Cristo nos ha hecho también participantes de su misión de llevar la palabra, el mensaje. El padre de familia es sacerdote en su hogar y profeta. Tiene que corregir, tiene que orientar. El patrono, el profesional también tienen, todos, hermanos, aquí no hay nadie en la Catedral, no los que están escuchando por radio, no hay nadie que no tenga una misión profética, la misión profética de anunciar el reino de Cristo, de denunciar los pecados contra este reino y de atraer a todo el mundo hacia Cristo.

Y finalmente, la función de Cristo rey; su realeza quiere decir un reino social, un reino de justicia cristiana, de amor y de paz. Todos tenemos que colaborar para que los bienes creados por Dios las cosechas que ahora se están levantando, las leyes, las estructura sociales, económicas, políticas, respeten los derechos de los hijos de Dios. Sea el reino de Dios verdaderamente una realidad que abre los caminos a la predicación del evangelio. Tomado de la Homilía de Mons. Oscar Romero, 20 de noviembre de 1977
