Best Christmas Card Ever

Dear Parish Family,

I love receiving Christmas cards from members of our parish. They are so wonderful and so different. Some are spiritual, some traditional, many modern with pictures of family (mostly the kids) so we can all see how everyone had grown this year. I thought we might have a Christmas card contest this year, but in all the rush of Christmas I never got the word out. But if I had, the one below would surely be the winner! It comes from Arthur Muller, a parishioner who still volunteers to help with the collection count each week, and is a picture of Christmas Day Mass in 1944. Arthur was stationed at the time in the South Pacific. The note with his card explained that he and his fellow P.T. boat patrol members had managed to find a safe hiding place on Christmas Eve and their chaplain was able to say Mass for them on Christmas Day. I am happy to share the card and his note:

Fr. Mike

Twenty-three P.T. Boats were part of the invasion force that invaded Mindoro in the Philippines on December 15, 1944. Our P.T. boat base was set up in Mangarin Bay. At night the boats anchored out in the bay where we could get underway quickly if more Kamikazes came over. By Christmas Eve things had quieted down pretty good so we ran our boat a little way up a river and nosed it into the swampy jungle, which grew thick right up to the edge. A couple of guys went over the side with machetes and cut branches which we used to camouflage the boat. It was like decorating for Christmas and created a festive atmosphere. As usual, Washing Machine Charley flew over shooting bursts of machine gun tracer bullets, trying to draw our fire so he could locate our boats and drop a bomb or two. Tokyo Rose was on the radio trying to make us sad with songs like "I'll be home for Christmas", but everyone regarded her as a big joke. On Christmas day there was a mass on shore near the base and any of us who wanted to go were dropped off to attend. I took the enclosed picture with an old box camera.

Be A Year Round Friend and Supporter of SHJM

It's that time of year when the days get colder and a time when many SHJM parishioners have active plans. The migration of summer visitors, people heading to warmer climes for the winter, vacations, and travels all diminish the numbers of those who are able to worship here each week. But please remember that our parish itself is here year round and we never take a break from service and ministry. Last year we began a program of planned, automated giving, called First Fruits. It was a huge success and well over 10% of our supporters participate in this way. It enabled our parish to maintain a more consistent year round income. Automated giving can help insure that our parish remains strongly supported. So here are some ways you can do this:

First Fruits: The easiest, and best if you are technologically challenged is to enroll in First Fruits. All you need to do is give us a void check and fill out a First Fruits Form. You can get one on our website, at the rectory, or at the back of church. First Fruits transfers a contribution either weekly or monthly from your checking account to the church.

Online Bill Pay: Chances are your bank already had a online check writing service called Bill Pay. If you have online access to your checking account you can set it up to write a regular check to SHJM. Just visit your online banking site and set it up for the contribution you desire. Remember to include your Envelope Number

Pay Pal: Pay pal is another way you can make regular contributions. Soon it will also be a way that you can contribute using Credit Cards. Check our website and check back here for more information.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

As Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre for the past 15 years, I have had the great honor and privilege of serving and ministering to our Catholic family on Long Island. Witnessing first hand your incredible generosity, I thank you.

Because of your commitment, our Diocese is able to support critical charitable, educational and spiritual ministries which bring the light of the Lord to more than 600,000 people each year, including new initiatives that truly highlight what we can only do with your support.

We are continually developing programs for our young people who are so important for the future vitality of our Church.

On College Campuses across Long Island, a new program was recently created called the Newman Connection. Its purpose is to give high school students the ability to locate a Catholic presence on their new college campuses even before leaving home for college. Working with high schools and parishes - in its first year more than 2,000 students connected through this innovative program.

Our Vocation Office works closely with pastors, high school and college chaplains, sports and youth groups, teachers and families to reach out to young men who are discerning a call to serve as Priests in our Diocese. Throughout 2016 these many efforts included a monthly Diocesan Holy Hour for Vocations, which more than 600 young people regularly attended.

Our Office of Faith Formation continues to develop religious education programs and training to enhance their work with local parishes and their catechetical leaders to better serve the more than 100,000 youngsters from the first grade through the time they receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

These are just some of the programs that you make possible and we are so deeply grateful for your extraordinary sacrifices to support the work of our Church. There is still so much more we can accomplish together, and I ask you to join with me in making a gift to the 2017 Catholic Ministries Appeal, and in welcoming our new Bishop, Most Reverend John Barres to our wonderful community.

Your generosity and commitment fills me with confidence that many wonderful things will continue to take place in our Diocese as we bring the light of the Lord to others.

With my prayers and gratitude, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Apostolic Administrator

Reflections On the Gospel
January 8, 2017

Sunday is the celebration of the Epiphany, also known as Little Christmas. On this day we remember the arrival of three wise men from afar at the manger of the infant Jesus. We understand these three kings, if such they were, to represent us in all our diversity of race and nationality, faith and class. Jesus came for all, and all may be drawn to him. We recall the symbolic gifts these magi bring, recognizing Jesus as Son of God, King, and Savior. We witness God's protection of this vulnerable baby in the warning the wise men receive not to inform Herod of Jesus's location. There is so much that this simple story teaches us of God's openness to all, God's generosity, and God's loving care. May we be as open to God's epiphany (manifestation) in one another, and may we be as generous and caring.

“Vimos Surgir su Estrella y Hemos Venido a Adorarlo” –¿Han pensado porque llegaron los magos a adorar a Jesús? Es porque estos hombres sabios estaban muy atentos a las señales en el cielo y vieron la estrella, la señal de que había nacido el Mesías. Nosotros también podemos estar atentos a las señales que Dios nos envía. Quizás será una persona que necesita ayuda, o la sonrisa de una ancianita, o una bendición inesperada. Cuando nuestros corazones están atentos a las señales que Dios nos dé, podremos responder con amor y fe, regalos aún más valiosos que el oro, incienso y mirra que los magos dieron a Cristo. La descripción de los “magos de oriente” también nos enseña otra verdad importante. Su viaje desde tierras lejanas simboliza que la buena noticia de Cristo es para todos los pueblos. Hoy, en un ambiente político de animosidad al inmigrante es importante mantenernos firmes en recordar las enseñanzas de nuestra fe que todos somos creados en la imagen de Dios y somos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo el Señor. El amor del Niño Jesús debe ser la estrella que nos guíe hoy.
