Best Christmas Card Ever

Dear Parish Family,

I love receiving Christmas cards from members of our parish. They are so wonderful and so different. Some are spiritual, some traditional, many modern with pictures of family (mostly the kids) so we can all see how everyone had grown this year. I thought we might have a Christmas card contest this year, but in all the rush of Christmas I never got the word out. But if I had, the one below would surely be the winner! It comes from Arthur Muller, a parishioner who still volunteers to help with the collection count each week, and is a picture of Christmas Day Mass in 1944. Arthur was stationed at the time in the South Pacific. The note with his card explained that he and his fellow P.T. boat patrol members had managed to find a safe hiding place on Christmas Eve and their chaplain was able to say Mass for them on Christmas Day. I am happy to share the card and his note:

Fr. Mike

Twenty-three P.T. Boats were part of the invasion force that invaded Mindoro in the Philippines on December 15, 1944. Our P.T. boat base was set up in Mangarin Bay. At night the boats anchored out in the bay where we could get underway quickly if more Kamikazes came over. By Christmas Eve things had quieted down pretty good so we ran our boat a little way up a river and nosed it into the swampy jungle, which grew thick right up to the edge. A couple of guys went over the side with machetes and cut branches which we used to camouflage the boat. It was like decorating for Christmas and created a festive atmosphere. As usual, Washing Machine Charley flew over shooting bursts of machine gun tracer bullets, trying to draw our fire so he could locate our boats and drop a bomb or two. Tokyo Rose was on the radio trying to make us sad with songs like "I'll be home for Christmas", but everyone regarded her as a big joke. On Christmas day there was a mass on shore near the base and any of us who wanted to go were dropped off to attend. I took the enclosed picture with an old box camera.

Be A Year Round Friend and Supporter of SHJM

It's that time of year when the days get colder and a time when many SHJM parishioners have active plans. The migration of summer visitors, people heading to warmer climes for the winter, vacations, and travels all diminish the numbers of those who are able to worship here each week. But please remember that our parish itself is here year round and we never take a break from service and ministry. Last year we began a program of planned, automated giving, called First Fruits. It was a huge success and well over 10% of our supporters participate in this way. It enabled our parish to maintain a more consistent year round income. Automated giving can help insure that our parish remains strongly supported. So here are some ways you can do this:

First Fruits: The easiest, and best if you are technologically challenged is to enroll in First Fruits. All you need to do is give us a void check and fill out a First Fruits Form. You can get one on our website, at the rectory, or at the back of church. First Fruits transfers a contribution either weekly or monthly from your checking account to the church.

Online Bill Pay: Chances are your bank already had a online check writing service called Bill Pay. If you have online access to your checking account you can set it up to write a regular check to SHJM. Just visit your online banking site and set it up for the contribution you desire. Remember to include your Envelope Number.

Pay Pal: Pay pal is another way you can make regular contributions. Soon it will also be a way that you can contribute using Credit Cards. Check our website and check back here for more information.

Couples: Celebrate Valentines Day

Join us for Dinner and a Talk
Thursday February 9th, at 6:30 PM
a special Valentines dinner at Plaza Café.

Couples young and old will enjoy this event. Prix Fixe Dinner is $35 per person and includes a complimentary glass of wine. Reservations can be made by calling the Plaza Café at 283-9323.

Renew your vows on February 12 at the 9:30 mass.

What could be better than an opportunity to renew your marriage vows and celebrate an evening together.

All married couples are invited to join us on

We also invite you to join us:

As of January 1st we will no longer have the 8 AM First Saturday mass.

Reflections On the Gospel
January 15, 2017

In Sunday's Gospel, John the Baptist admits that he did not know Jesus until he saw the Spirit descend on Jesus like a dove from heaven. How do we know Jesus? We don't see him in the flesh the way John did, so we don't see the Spirit descending on him like a dove. How do we know Jesus? In the first reading, God speaks through Isaiah saying "I will make you a light to the nations." Do we see the light that is Jesus? How? Where? Is it possible that we see Jesus in each loving act, each act of forgiveness, each act of welcome to the one who is different from us, each healing touch or sympathetic ear? Let's keep an eye out for the light, and let's be the light for others.

El Cordero de Dios –Cuándo Jesús venía hacia Juan el Bautista para ser bautizado, Juan proclamó “Éste es el Cordero de Dios, el que quita el pecado del mundo”. La frase, “Cordero de Dios”, significa mucho. El “cordero” fue el animal sacrificado para la expiación del pecado. Al decir que Jesús es el “Cordero de Dios”, Juan profetiza en el primer momento del ministerio de Jesús que Cristo va a ser sacrificado para salvarnos de nuestros pecados.

Nuestro bautismo por el agua y el Espíritu Santo, nos une a ese mismo sacrificio. Como escribe San Pablo, “todos los que fuimos bautizados en Cristo Jesús, nos hemos sumergido en su muerte, para que, así como Cristo resucitó por la gloria del Padre, también nosotros llevemos una Vida nueva” (Rom 6:3-4).

En esta solemnidad del Bautismo de Señor, nos sirve reflexionar que nuestro propio bautismo, para unirnos cada día al sacrificio de Cristo, para poder vivir la plenitud de la Vida nueva.
