Music Ministry Transitions

Dear Parish Family,

For almost 40 years JoAnn Morse has served our parish as a dedicated and inspiring leader of music. JoAnn began the children's choir under Fathers Remy and Brannigan. She also assisted many other parishes here on the east end and taught at Our Lady of the Hamptons School. Eventually she became our music director, a position she has held for some 25 years.

Of course life is full of change and growth. Recently JoAnn has discerned that it is time for her to step down from this ministry. This will allow her to enjoy precious time with her mom, her children, and her grandchildren. I am especially grateful to her for all these years of service and for pioneering some new changes in the years that we have worked together. In addition to our choirs we now have an active young musicians' string program and a wonderful and talented group of cantors who lead us in song each week.

Music is a very important part of worship here and we will continue to build a strong and vibrant music program. Over the next few weeks Dominick Abbate will be taking the reins as organist and music program director. Dominick grew up in Southampton and now works with his father John at the Brockett Funeral Home where they are the directors. He is obviously multi-talented and is a skilled organist and experienced choir director. Most recently Dominick has been the director at the Old Whalers Church in Sag Harbor.

Please join me this weekend in expressing our gratitude to JoAnn for her ministry here at Sacred Hearts. Also, please help me welcome Dominick as our new director when he begins his ministry in a few weeks. If you ask JoAnn or Dominick what is the best gift they could receive from a community they would surely remind you of these famous words attributed to St. Augustine.
The one who sings prays twice!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

In Sympathy

F. Michael Bush

We mourn the passing of Mike Bush on January 23, 2017. A Memorial Mass was celebrated on January 28, 2017 by Rev. Michael Vetrano. Mike was a dedicated and loving Husband and Father. His life's passion was being on the water and he loved being in his boat out on the bays. He loved his dog, Sam. Our sympathies go out to his wife, Robin, his children, Kalyn and Tommy, family and friends.

Donald A. Saco

We mourn the passing of Don Saco on January 4, 2017 at the age of 87. A Memorial Mass was celebrated on January 14, 2017 by Rev. Michael Vetrano. Don was an artist, and musician as well as a doctor of psychology. Our sympathies go out to his brother, Kenneth Saco and his wife Betty, niece Karen Saco and her life partner, Sam, nephew Mark Saco, wife Monica, and children Anusha, Josh, Steven, Avery, Jill and Leigh Senter, family and friends.

Be A Year Round Friend and Supporter of SHJM

It's that time of year when the days get colder and a time when many SHJM parishioners have active plans. The migration of summer visitors, people heading to warmer climes for the winter, vacations, and travels all diminish the numbers of those who are able to worship here each week. But please remember that our parish itself is here year round and we never take a break from service and ministry. Last year we began a program of planned, automated giving, called First Fruits. It was a huge success and well over 10% of our supporters participate in this way. It enabled our parish to maintain a more consistent year round income. Automated giving can help insure that our parish remains strongly supported. So here are some ways you can do this:

First Fruits: The easiest, and best if you are technologically challenged is to enroll in First Fruits. All you need to do is give us a void check and fill out a First Fruits Form. You can get one on our website, at the rectory, or at the back of church. First Fruits transfers a contribution either weekly or monthly from your checking account to the church.

Online Bill Pay: Chances are your bank already had a online check writing service called Bill Pay. If you have online access to your checking account you can set it up to write a regular check to SHJM. Just visit your online banking site and set it up for the contribution you desire. Remember to include your Envelope Number.

Pay Pal: Pay pal is another way you can make regular contributions. Soon it will also be a way that you can contribute using Credit Cards. Check our website and check back here for more information.

Our Lady of the Hamptons

The OLH Hamptones appeared on a live Telecare broadcast, singing their special rendition of New York, New York and The Lord Bless You and Keep You. The sixteen singers were accompanied by Music teacher Basar.

Miss Kacey Schick and her third grade class presented an original assembly incorporating their study of Winter poetry with their own original works.

Maryann Ryan of Riverhead was named the recipient of a full four year scholarship to St. Mary's High School in Manhasset, as a result of her achievement on the recent Catholic High Schools Entrance Examination. She was also offered scholarship to St. Anthony's, and McGann-Mercy High Schools as were her classmates Julia Fritsch, Kyla Culver, Hayley Guillen, Lola Anderson, Christian Mangiameli. McGann-Mercy award were also offered to Christopher Stutt, Daniel Sullivan, Peter Mangiamieli and Thomas Wilkie.

The community of Our Lady of the Hamptons is extending an invitation for potential students and their families to explore the options of enrollment in the East End's premier Catholic elementary school for September 2017. Placement is available in Kindergarten through Prep 8. Informational packets are available. Call 631-283-9140 to set up a personal appointment and tour. Reflections On the Gospel

January 29, 2017

Beloved and misunderstood, that's what we can say about the Beatitudes, the heart of this Sunday's readings. In fact, they are far more closely connected to the first reading that tells us to seek justice and humility than we might realize. What the Beatitudes are not is a message of consolation for all kinds of suffering. Rather they acknowledge the reality of suffering and remind us of our need for God to endure and overcome it. A more accurate translation of "Blessed" is "Truly honorable" are you, amazing in just how contrary that idea is to a mentality that aims toward wealth, power, and prestige. So, truly honorable are we when we work for justice no matter the cost, humbly relying on God to sustain us in our efforts.

Felices los que tienen espíritu de pobre, porque de ellos es el Reino de los Cielos.

Mt 5,3

Bienaventuranzas – Las bienaventuranzas están en el centro de la predicación de Jesús. Con ellas Jesús recoge las promesas hechas al pueblo elegido desde Abraham; pero las perfecciona ordenándolas no sólo a la posesión de una tierra, sino al Reino de los cielos:

Las bienaventuranzas dibujan el rostro de Jesucristo y describen su caridad; expresan la vocación de los fieles asociados a la gloria de su Pasión y de su Resurrección; iluminan las acciones y las actitudes características de la vida cristiana; son promesas paradójicas que sostienen la esperanza en las tribulaciones; anuncian a los discípulos las bendiciones y las recompensas ya incoadas; quedan inauguradas en la vida de la Virgen María y de todos los santos.

Las bienaventuranzas descubren la meta de la existencia humana, el fin último de los actos humanos: Dios nos llama a su propia bienaventuranza. Esta vocación se dirige a cada uno personalmente, pero también al conjunto de la Iglesia, pueblo nuevo de los que han acogido la promesa y viven de ella en la fe.

El Nuevo Testamento utiliza varias expresiones para caracterizar la bienaventuranza a la que Dios llama al hombre: la llegada del Reino de Dios; la visión de Dios; la entrada en el gozo del Señor; la entrada en el descanso de Dios. (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica §§1717-1716, 1719-1720)

El Quinto Encuentro Nacional de Pastoral Hispano

- Ya estamos por comenzar las reuniones en grupos pequeños y todos están invitados a participar. Habrá cinco reuniones, y el fruto de ese compartir ayudará a nuestra iglesia en responder mejor a los hispanos/latinos en el nivel parroquial, diocesano y nacional, y potenciará a los hispanos/latinos a ser discípulos misioneros.

No pierden la oportunidad de participar en este proceso. Hable con su grupo o ministerio parroquial. También habrá oportunidades de participar para los que
