Stories of Faith

March 18/19

Dear Parish Family,

In addition to being 40 days of fasting for each and every Christian, the season of Lent is also a time of preparation for those who are new to our community – those who will be baptized, received into full communion, and confirmed at the Easter Vigil Mass. And so the gospels for the Sundays of Lent, especially this Sunday and the two that follow, are chosen to help these new members understand what it means to have faith. These gospels can help each of us as well.

These gospel stories are Jesus meeting with the woman at the well, his healing of the man born blind, and his raising of Lazarus from the dead. The woman at the well discovers faith when she meets a stranger who deeply understands her and provides her with living water. For most of us faith begins not with an abstract study of doctrine but with meeting someone who seems to understand our spiritual hunger and invites us to drink of the gift of faith.

The man born blind is drawn into Jesus' life because the disciples are wondering why God has left him blind. "Whose sin, his or his parents, is responsible for his blindness?" they ask. The healed man cannot explain everything about Jesus when the Scribes and Pharisees question him. "I only know this," he says, "I once was blind and now I can see." The question of faith is even more poignant in the story of the raising of Lazarus. Jesus asks Martha point blank, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She answers simply: "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world."

So faith is like the quenching of your deepest thirst; it is like being blind and suddenly seeing; it is like being dead and brought back to life. As we read these stories we are meant to ask ourselves just what is the story of our belief. It always helps to hear the stories of others. This coming week our parish mission will present three evenings and three different kinds of experiences of people who have come to faith. But it is always most important to ask yourself what has led you to faith. Is it forgiveness or healing in your life? Is it discovering the life and teaching of this community as bread for your hunger and drink for your thirst? Is it meeting someone through whom the light of Christ shines so brightly?

I invite you to listen carefully to our Gospels these next three weeks and please also come to our mission. You have been given the gift of faith. In understanding your own story of faith you take your place beside Jesus' encounter with the woman at the well, the curing of the man born blind, the raising of Lazarus, and countless other signs of God's presence in our lives.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Stations of the Cross

We remember the road to Jesus' death and link his journey to our own through this beautiful devotion.

Come and pray with us...

Each Friday during Lent— after the noon mass 12:30 PM

Living Stations of the Cross

Good Friday, April 14th, at 7:30 PM in the Church

This is a wonderful opportunity for your Lenten and Holy Week journey! Our parish community comes together—led by our young people, our Music Ministries and members of our parish community—who share their own personal experiences on this most holy and solemn night. The celebration includes the Veneration of the Cross.

Reconciliation in the Season of Lent

Receiving the Sacrament of reconciliation is an excellent practice in the season of Lent. Our parish celebrates this sacrament every Saturday from 4:00 to 4:45 PM before our Saturday evening mass. Our pastor and priests who assist here are also available by appointment to celebrate the sacrament. During Holy Week we will join with all the parishes of our diocese to celebrate reconciliation from 3 PM to 9 PM on Monday, April 10th. Be sure to take some time to experience the miracle of God's healing forgiveness.

Would you like to become a Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion?

New training sessions have been scheduled for May at St. Rosalie's in Hampton Bays. If you feel called to this important ministry and would like to attend you must contact Fr. Mike at pastor@shjmbasilica.org to be registered.

RCIA :: Confirmation Candidates

Anthony Llivisaca

Faith has helped my family and me through difficult times, confirmation affirms my devotion and strengthens the bond between myself and the Christian community. Confirmation is another sacrament that all Christians will have in their lives, another connection stretching beyond the physical world to the corporeal.

Andrea Wienecke

I was born in Coram, the youngest of four children and received my elementary education at Our Lady of Wisdom (formerly Infant Jesus) in Port Jefferson. A move to Southampton in middle school as well as a serious family illness caused a disruption in my religious education. I always felt like something was missing because I had never been confirmed. About a year ago I started looking into ways I could become more active within the parish and began the RCIA classes to receive the sacrament of Confirmation and deepen my relationship with God.

Join us on Friday April 7, 2017
From 6:00 – 7:30 PM
in the Parish Hall for a Lenten Soup Supper.

We are looking for donations of meat-free soup and breads. The soups should be brought in crock pots and the pots taken home that evening.

Baking breads or making soup is a good way to fulfill service hours for Confirmation candidates!

This is an excellent opportunity for community service for religious education classes, scouting groups, and all students in the parish as well as an opportunity for your family to share a Lenten Meal with your Parish Family!

To volunteer your time to help with Set- Up, Clean – Up, or Coordinating the meal, please contact Jeannine Rose (631) 283-0097 ext 317.

An Invitation

It was so nice meeting everyone and I was very glad to see some new members join as well! I am extremely excited to be working with such an amazing group of children and adults. Forgot about Wednesday's rehearsal? Not a problem! Rehearsals are on Wednesday at 5 PM in the Church. Now is a perfect time to join our choirs as we head into Lent and the Easter season. Please feel free to join us Sunday in the choir loft at 11:00AM and Wednesday's at 6:15PM for rehearsal. I look forward to growing together musically in the years to come.

Be A Year Round Friend and Supporter of SHJM

It's that time of year when the days get colder and a time when many SHJM parishioners have active plans. The migration of summer visitors, people heading to warmer climes for the winter, vacations, and travels all diminish the numbers of those who are able to worship here each week. But please remember that our parish itself is here year round and we never take a break from service and ministry. Last year we began a program of planned, automated giving, called First Fruits. It was a huge success and well over 10% of our supporters participate in this way. It enabled our parish to maintain a more consistent year round income. Automated giving can help insure that our parish remains strongly supported. So here are some ways you can do this:

First Fruits: The easiest, and best if you are technologically challenged is to enroll in First Fruits. All you need to do is give us a void check and fill out a Frist Fruits Form. You can get one on our website, at the rectory, or at the back of church. First Fruits transfers a contribution either weekly or monthly from your checking account to the church.

Online Bill Pay: Chances are your bank already had a online check writing service called Bill Pay. If you have online access to your checking account you can set it up to write a regular check to SHJM. Just visit your online banking site and set it up for the contribution you desire. Remember to include your Envelope Number.

Pay Pal: Pay pal is another way you can make regular contributions. Soon it will also be a way that you can contribute using Credit Cards. Check our website and check back here for more information.

Reflections On the Gospel
March 19, 2017

Jesus is at it again in Sunday's Gospel. Once again he is full of surprises. This time he surprises by talking to a woman and not just any woman, but a Samaritan woman, and one with a tainted reputation. Yet she is the one Jesus chooses, first to ask for a drink of water and then to offer eternal living water. She is the one who becomes a bridge to an entire community, an evangelizer of faith in Jesus, the Messiah. This is certainly not a scene anyone would have expected. It is not one we expect today in a time when we think we know who is good or right or worthy—and who is not.

And there is more. Jesus also declares that worship is not on a mountain or in a particular city. It is in Spirit and truth, independent of location. And thirst is not just about water, nor is hunger about eating. For Jesus doing the will of God is what feeds him. Realizing this leads to two important questions for us: For what do you thirst that goes deeper than water—love, respect, acceptance, justice, peace? What do you do that nourishes rather than depletes? Let's be a bridge to our communities, satisfying thirst and relieving hunger.

El Agua Que Yo Le Daré Se Convertirá En Vida Eterna – En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús toma la iniciativa de hablar con la samaritana que viene al pozo buscando agua. Lo que Jesús hace nos recuerda de la primera sesión del V Encuentro, porque Jesús está primereando, o sea, tomando el primer paso de llevar la buena nueva de la salvación. La samaritana se acerca al pozo apenada y consciente de sus pecados. Jesús le ofrece “agua viva”, la fe verdadera en Cristo. El amor de Dios y su misericordia tocan su corazón; y la samaritana se convierte en una discípula misionera. Ella vuelve a su pueblo proclamando la buena nueva de Dios; y muchos creyeron en Jesús debido de su testimonio. El Evangelio de hoy nos invita a buscar el agua viva, la fe verdadera en Cristo, el Señor.
