Summer at SHJM

June 17/18

Dear Parish Family,

Summer in most Long Island parishes is a time to wind down and take it easy. After all, summer is vacation time and many parishioners and families are away from their regular routine. Where do they all go? Well on a Friday afternoon in the summer it seems like they are all headed right here! Especially if you are driving east. But here at Sacred Hearts summer is our best and busiest time of year. Here is a preview of what Summer 2017 will be about:

It will be about Music! We have plenty of concerts to look forward to beginning with the Boxcar Lilies on July 10th! We will also welcome Beau Sinatra, Ashley Bell, The Rum Hill Rockers, Southampton Young Artists Festival, and no doubt a few surprises.

A time to grow Spiritually! We are looking forward to a wonderful evening of prayer with Fr. Pat Kelly, our wellness workshop Care for the Caregiver, and the beginning of Walking with Purpose—a bible study with women in mind. You can also learn a lot by taking a tour of our Basilica church any Sunday after the 9:30 and 11:00 AM Mass!

Young People in Action! Our youth group will be making another journey north to take part in Catholic Heart Camp—an opportunity to work with and for needy families. We will also be holding a Vacation Bible Camp beginning on August 21st.

Special Celebrations! This year we are planning a Fiesta Night on Monday July 17. This is an evening of food and music planned by jointly by our English and Spanish communities. And, of course, our Annual Tent Party on August 26th promises to be another amazing event. A highlight of the evening is our super raffle drawing—be in it to win it.

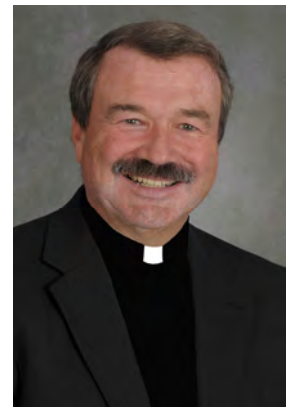

A Welcoming Community! Hospitality after Sunday morning Mass returns beginning this weekend! You are more than welcome to volunteer as a family or group to host hospitality. We provide the food and refreshment—all you need to bring is a smile.

Wow! I am getting excited just thinking about all that is happening. Summer here is always special and the Summer of '17 will be one of the best ever.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Reflections On the Gospel

June 18, 2017

Sunday's feast of the Body and Blood of Christ is so filled with symbolism, it is hard to address it all, let alone comprehend it fully. We are all taught that the Body and Blood of Jesus are infused in the bread and wine we receive in the Eucharist each time we attend Mass. By receiving consecrated bread and wine we are becoming one with Jesus, just as any food and drink become absorbed into our bodies and unite us into one being, which raises the question: Why bread and wine? Why not fish and water? Both were pretty prominent in the Gospels. One explanation is that both bread and wine are made from the blending of many parts into one whole, whether multiple grains of wheat or multiple grapes, both crushed and transformed into something new and better. Another explanation notes that bread is basic nourishment while wine is more celebratory. In short, receiving Jesus in the form of bread and wine means recognizing our own many parts as broken and blended into one people who experience the fullness of life, its struggles and its joys, just as Jesus did. When we receive the Eucharist, let's not forget: We are one body, one body in Christ.

FIESTA DEL CUERPO DE CRISTO.
