Our Family Lenten Evening of Renewal

Dear Parish Family,

Faith begins in our families. This great truth is reflected both in the teaching of our church and in the common wisdom of so many of us. Saint John Paul II called family life the domestic church because our whole sense of faith and belonging to a church begins with faith shared in our families. When a child is baptized we pray over the parents and godparents that they might be the first and best teachers of their children in the ways of faith. And when you ask a person where their life of faith began, they almost always will tell you about a family member who shared faith with them. Personally I have very clear memories of going with my dad to church each week and going with him to evening benediction. It made a lasting impression.

So this year, our special Lenten event is a family event - A Family Lenten Evening of Renewal. The inspiration for this came from our Confirmation retreat this year when Erin Baudille and Theresa Marino shared a beautiful time of prayer and adoration with our young people. When I asked if they would be willing to share an evening with our whole parish, they could not have been more enthusiastic. So they will be with us on Wednesday, March 14, to offer our night of renewal.

The evening will begin in our church at 7 PM. Everyone is invited but we are specially hoping that parents and children will come together. We will spend some time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, which is called Eucharistic Adoration. Theresa, who is a musician and high school campus minister, will lead us in prayer and song. It will be a very beautiful and peaceful time. After the prayer our adults will stay in church while elementary and high school age children will travel over to our parish hall.

At church, Erin will speak to our parents on how to nurture a life of faith in children in this busy and complicated world. She will share her own journey and how she discovered a deeper life of faith for herself and her family. Erin is a member of the Catholic Ministry Team, which gives retreats to young people in our diocese. She is also a wife and mother and so she can understand in a very practical way the challenges of passing on the faith.

At the parish hall, our young people will gather in age groups led by Theresa and her team members and volunteers. It will be an opportunity to learn about faith and the great season of Lent. We will bring everyone together in the parish hall to conclude the evening with some refreshments and hospitality!

Our special event this Lent is an evening of prayer and renewal. This will be a different evening for families and what a wonderful difference this can make. Everyone is part of our parish family, and this evening of prayer, reflection, and inspiration is for us all. Please spread the word to your friends and plan to be with us on March 14th.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

Morning Star Legion of Mary Praesidium

Devotions in the Honor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help as well as the Rosary are prayed in community with the Legion of Mary: EVERY Tuesday morning immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass.

ALL ARE WELCOME TO WORSHIP and PRAY WITH US!

VATICAN CITY — At Mass in the Basilica of St. Mary Major Sunday, Pope Francis said that when we go through difficult times or have problems or worries, Mary is our shield, guarding our faith and protecting us from evil.

“Where the Madonna is at home, the devil does not enter; where there is the Mother, disturbance does not prevail — fear does not win,” the Pope said Jan. 28, 2018.

“Who of us does not need this; who of us is not sometimes upset or restless? How often the heart is a stormy sea, where the waves of problems overlap, and the winds of worry do not cease to blow! Mary is the sure ark in the midst of the flood.”

Have you been away from the Church?

Are you thinking about coming back? Do you know someone who wants to come home to the Catholic Church, but is struggling with their faith? Maybe you or someone you know has experienced one of these thoughts:

I grew up Catholic, but for some reason I just sort of stopped going to Church...

I just moved to a new city, I tried going to a couple different parishes, but I never really felt welcomed...

I just don't understand why the Church teaches what it does! Some teachings seem so outdated...

If you have experienced one of these situations or thoughts you are not alone.

R. C. I. A. is designed for Baptized Catholics who have been away from the Church, and thinking about receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation, those who are looking for a small group setting to reconnect with their faith. We also welcome those who are inquiring about being Baptized into our faith. For more information and to register please contact Jeannine Rose, Parish Social Ministry Office 283-0097 ext. 317

The St. Bernard League is GROWING!

Currently, we have 11 families caring for 14 of our neighbors in our Parish! For some it is a phone call to check in, for others it is knowing that they will be ‘dug out’ of the snowstorm. But for each person, it is a life-line, a connection to a neighbor, a FRIEND.

For more information, to volunteer OR to refer someone who may be in need of a connection, Please contact Jeannine Rose (631) 283-0097 Ext 317

Reflections On the Gospel
March 4, 2018

Two very familiar scripture passages frame Sunday's readings: the Ten Commandments and Jesus in the Temple. If we work backwards chronologically, we find Jesus in a somewhat unfamiliar state of rage, overthrowing tables, spilling coins, and chasing animals outdoors. This scene is played out in all four Gospels, but it is in this version that it is depicted most virulently and possibly most symbolically rather than most literally. Why such anger on Jesus's part? This is where we might look back at the first reading. What has happened in the Temple is that the people have forgotten at least some of those Commandments. They have desecrated sacred space. They have put greed and dishonesty before God. Jesus's anger was a righteous anger. He was trying to set right what had gone horribly wrong. Are we not also guilty at times of putting self before God? Have we not desecrated God's sacred creation? Should we not be calling ourselves and others to task with righteous anger when we witness greed and selfishness superseding love and compassion? We are in Lent, a time for personal and communal conversion. Let us turn the tables of our own hearts and behavior back toward God.

Third Sunday of Lent

Once when Jesus was in Jerusalem, he found animals being sold in the Temple. He sent the sellers away because he wanted the Temple to be his Father's house of prayer, not a store. Look at both pictures.

CATHOLIC CORNER

LENTEN ALMSGIVING

This Lent we are learning about people who are great models of the Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Today we will meet a model of almsgiving. As we learn more about him we can practice becoming more like him.

St. Marin de Porres (1579-1639) was a very generous man. The son of a freed black slave and a Spanish nobleman, he grew up in poverty in Lima, Peru. As a young teenager he was taken into a Dominican monastery as a servant. Eventually he became a Dominican brother and served the poor all his life. He cared for sick brothers, and fed the poor of the town each day with leftover food from the monastery. He opened a home for abandoned street children and took in all races and faiths. He planted orchards on unused land and invited the poor to share the figs, olives, and oranges. He even taught them how to care for the orchards. He loved all creatures, even the mice he found in the monastery. He had very little and was always willing to give everything to the poor. What can we learn about almsgiving from Martin?

Try to fill the spaces below with the money you want to put aside for almsgiving this Lent. Maybe you already have it saved or maybe you can do chores to earn it. You can stack more than one coin on each spot. Each member of your family can make their own chart. Decide with your family where you will donate the money you collect during Lent.

25¢	10¢	5¢	1¢
-----	-----	----	----

Remember, almsgiving is not just a practice for Lent.
 Almsgiving should teach us how to be generous all of our lives.
