Thank you for your generosity. Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary is sustained by the generosity of our parishioners through time, talent and treasure. For all that you do - thank you.
Dear Parish Family,

Faith in the Incarnation means that we believe that Jesus, the son of God, was fully human. Most Catholics see the affirmation that he was the son of God as the heart of this belief and we tend to think of his humanity as mostly having to do with his appearance. So our faith in Jesus’ humanity really translates into something like this: He was the son of God but he looked like us. Hardly ever do we equate his humanity with being part of a broken and fallible humanity, the kind of humanity we talk about when we see our own imperfections and say: “What do you expect? I am only human.” But Jesus, we believe, was really human and so he shared in the attitudes and limitations of the culture he was born into. And though Christianity very quickly evolved into a religion beyond the borders of the children of Israel, it is clear that Jesus himself focused his ministry to the lost sheep of the house of David. At times he even tells his disciples to steer clear of the others. That is the cultural world he grew up in.

But the gospels are also full of paradox. After warning the disciples to focus on the sheep of the house of David, Jesus himself moves toward the others. In this week’s gospel, they move toward the territory of Tyre and Sidon, pagan territory, a long way from the house of David. It is here that he meets a Canaanite woman, a pagan, who asks for a miracle of healing for her child. Jesus tells the disciples that he is not here for her but “only for the lost sheep of Israel!” It seems to get only worse. When the woman herself speaks to Jesus he tells her: “It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.” One can feel the insult. He calls her child one of the dogs. She has an interesting reply: “Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.”

Now you might think that she has simply turned the insult around but more than that is happening. Jesus, in Matthew's gospel, has been preaching a message of abundance in his parables. The feeding of the multitude, the weeds and the wheat, the sower and the seed are all parables of abundance. They teach that where human beings see only emptiness and futility, the grace of God can bring about abundance beyond imagining. Just as in today’s gospel, it is the disciples who see the problem and beg Jesus to send them, to send her, away. What the woman says to Jesus about the scraps that fall from the master's table is not insult but insight. She is telling him that she believes in the gospel of abundance. If only she can have even a scrap of what Jesus has to offer, her daughter will be healed. This is what touches Jesus’ heart. She understands the gospel of abundance even better that the children of the house of David! It is her faith that suddenly shatters Jesus' own cultural prejudice about the children of the house of David and all those other children that he believed he was not sent to!

What needs to happen for any of us is to understand the gospel of abundance. To see that every person of every race really desires that same thing: a share of life in its goodness. To see that in every culture and way of life people strive for the same ideals of dignity, respect, and happiness. And to see that in every one of us there is the dark side of humanity, the temptation to see only what we know as good and important.

In the gospel today it was not insult that shattered the darkness. It was insight.

Sincerely yours in Christ!

Fr. Mike

Adopt a Family “Covid19” Update:
Using the gift of Technology

As we navigate each day during this time, there may be families finding themselves in a financial crisis due to loss of work, illness, and circumstances beyond our wildest imagination. Currently, our Adopt a Family Program is expanding to include anyone who in the next few weeks or months might find themselves in need of emergency relief from an unexpected expense or setback due to the Covid19 epidemic.

If you or a family member is struggling to make ends meet because of loss of work during this emergency, please contact us as we might be able to assist you in the payment of an unexpected bill or expense.

For assistance during this crisis or to make arrangements to make a financial contribution to this program, please contact Jeannine Schmidt at the Parish office 631 283-0097 ext 317. You can also reach out via email: jeannine@shjmbasilica.org

Pray the Rosary

Join Jeannine along with the Legion of Mary as they pray the Rosary on Tuesdays at 9 AM in the Church or go to our Facebook page to follow live.

Sunday Summer Hospitality

Summer Hospitality after Mass has begun. Refreshments will be available under the tree in front of the church. If you or your group would like to host a Sunday or two please contact Jeannine Schmidt at jeannine@shjmbasilica.org or call 631-283-0097 ext. 317.

Summertime is the perfect time to “Exhale”. All Women are invited to join a six week bible study focused on finding balance with in our schedules, our work, our rest and our life.

In Sympathy

Giuseppina “Josephine” Gambino

We mourn the passing of Josephine Gambino on August 11, 2020. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at the Basilica Parish of Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary on August 14, 2020 by Rev. Michael A. Vetrano. Burial followed in Sacred Hearts of Jesus & Mary Cemetery. Mrs. Gambino was born in Palermo, Sicily. She and her husband, the late Celestino, came to the United States in 1972 and opened La Parmigiana Restaurant in Southampton. Giuseppina played a crucial part in the success of the well established family owned and run business. She was an exceptionally strong minded woman with incredible skills in the kitchen sharing traditional Sicilian delicacies like Caponata, Arancini and Spiedini to name a few.

Our sympathies go out to her children: daughters: Maria Ligregni, Giovanna Manglaviti, Anna-Maria Gambino, Patricia Taglavia, Rosalia Porco and sons: Francesco Gambino and Rodolpho Gambino, her 19 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren knew and loved her as their “Nonna,” family and friends.

Reflections On the Gospel
August 16, 2020

Sunday’s readings speak emphatically about faith and inclusion. Going all the way back to Hebrew scripture, we learn of a God who welcomes everyone. It would actually seem that initially Jesus didn’t get the message. He was ready to ignore the Canaanite woman and her pleas for her daughter’s cure clearly based solely on the fact that she was not one of his faith and ethnicity. But she didn’t let him get away with such prejudice. She displayed faith that went beyond a religious identity and ethnicity. She demonstrated true faith in a God of compassion and healing. It is that faith that Jesus came to recognize, that St. Paul recognized as the “apostle to the Gentiles.” It must be our faith, as well, because most of us no more belong to Jesus’s religious heritage and ethnicity than did the Canaanite woman. And it is our responsibility to be as welcoming as the One in whom we profess our faith and, like the Canaanite woman, not to let anyone else get away with such prejudice.

Online Giving

In an active parish like Sacred Hearts, it is important for us to have consistent and reliable support from our members. The events of this spring have made that even more evident. You will be able to help us receive consistent support if you choose one of these methods. This will enable us to receive your generosity even if you are away from us for travel and vacation or in unusual times, like the present, when we are not able to attend as we wish.

Please take a moment to consider one of these ways of giving:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Mailing your Contribution</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>While this is not automatic giving, mailing your contribution is perfect for those who prefer to write a check and who do not wish to begin online or automatic contributions. Mailing your envelopes to us weekly or monthly is a tried and true solution. Just use our mailing address: Sacred Hearts Basilica, 168 Hill Street, Southampton, NY 11968</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>2</th>
<th>firstFruits Giving</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>firstFruits is a way of authorizing Sacred Hearts to receive your contributions on a weekly or monthly basis. All you need to do is provide us a voided check or your bank routing number and account number. You can obtain a form for this on our website www.shjmbasilica.org. After providing your account information you just tell us how much you wish to contribute and we do the rest. You can change your amount or cancel the contributions at any time.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>3</th>
<th>Online Banking</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>If you access your checking account online you probably already know that you can make payments and contributions without needing to write a paper check. Using your online account you can set up a recurring contribution to Sacred Hearts in the amount and frequency that you desire. Just use your envelope number as your account number so that we can acknowledge your gift.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>4</th>
<th>PayPal</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>If you use PayPal to pay for things you buy online you can also use it to make regular contributions to Sacred Hearts. It is also a way that you can use your credit card to make contributions, even if you are not a PayPal account holder. You can set up a PayPal contribution or recurring contribution by clicking the Donate button on our website: www.shjmbasilica.org</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Experience shows that the greatest concern people have about automatic giving is that they will feel uncomfortable when the collection is taken up on Sunday. If you take a look at your Sunday envelopes you will see a box to check that says: I contribute using firstFruits. So you still have an envelope you can place (empty) in the basket.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You.
We give You thanks for Your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father.
O Lord Jesus Christ, the Only-begotten Son.
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you Who take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are holy. You alone are the Lord.
You alone are Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father; God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God; begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again, in fulfillment of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son,
our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;

He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
He is seated at the right hand of God
the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.
First Reading: Isaiah 56:1, 6-7
Thus says the LORD:
Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed.

The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, ministering to him, loving the name of the LORD, and becoming his servants—all who keep the Sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer;
their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Second Reading: Romans 11:13-15, 29-32
Brothers and sisters:
I am speaking to you Gentiles.
Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.
Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy.

For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

Gospel: Matthew 14:21-28
At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon.
And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, “Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David!
My daughter is tormented by a demon.”
But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her.
Jesus’ disciples came and asked him, “Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us.”
He said in reply, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”
But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, “Lord, help me.”
He said in reply, “It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.”
She said, “Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.”
Then Jesus said to her in reply, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And the woman’s daughter was healed from that hour.
Religious Education

As the light at the end of the tunnel starts to come into view, we begin to think about returning to some very important parts of our lives. We have returned to church, albeit in ways that respect the need for health and safety for us all. Religious education, a central component of the life of our parish, will begin again for our children in September.

The program will:
- Build on last year’s Faith in Action activities and provide more opportunities for families to work together.
- Provide a variety of ways for children to learn, using classroom meetings, activities at home, work online, special programs and projects, and electronic communication. The age and the safety of our children will determine the activities for each grade.

As information about public school opening in September is available, plans for religious education will be more specific. So stay tuned!

Now that the official “go-ahead” is in place, Our Lady of the Hamptons is preparing for the full reopening of in-person learning. School will open on Wednesday, September 10 with a full enrollment. The administration and faculty have worked over the summer to prepare for a very special new beginning, following all guidelines issued by the diocese, state and other authorities.

At this time, there is a waiting list for all grades K-8, and limited placement in the four year old pre-school program at St. Rosalie’s campus in Hampton Bays.

The school community is deeply grateful to the members of our supporting parishes for their continual support, interest and prayers during the time of the pandemic. A safe and healthy physical environment will be provided as background for the excellent academic program that has been developed.

Families seeking possible placement for the 2021-22 school year in the East End's premier Catholic school are advised to visit the school’s website www.olh.org. Interviews will be scheduled after the current school year is underway.

The Tomorrow’s Hope Foundation partners with the Catholic elementary schools of the Diocese of Rockville Centre to provide partial financial assistance for families seeking admission to kindergarten through grade 8 in Catholic schools. The application process is done online and is accessible through the website: https://www.tomorrowshopefoundation.org/
