Section 2: Lent is a journey and not a destination, so we want to make sure we are traveling along the right path. The path of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving helps us do a better job of loving God and loving our neighbor. Talk with your family to see what you and your family have accomplished along the way so far and what you still need to do.

Prayer. What's one way you have prayed so far during Lent? Was this something you had planned to do or was it a way of praying that you discovered along the way?

Fasting What's one way you have fasted so far during Lent? Was this something you had planned to do or was it a way of fasting that you discovered along the way?

Almsgiving What's one way you have given alms so far during Lent? Was this something you had planned to do or was it a way of giving alms that you discovered along the way?
