If You Asked Me About a Very Special Meal . . . .

If someone asked you what wonderful thing will happen to you this year, you could say that you received your First Holy Communion, a very special meal. Meals are very important times for us. The food we eat nourishes our body. Meals bring people together.

Write about one meal you remember that was very important to you. It could be a big celebration or a gathering of just a few people. When was that meal? Who was there? Why is that meal very important to you? Ask your parent or another adult to help you with this question.

Draw a picture of that meal and the people who were there.

The Mass is a sacred meal at which we receive the body and blood of Jesus under the appearance of bread and wine. You will share in this meal when you receive your First Holy Communion this May.

Draw a picture of a priest celebrating Mass, like the Teaching Mass you went to. Include the altar in your drawing. The altar is the table at which the priest prepares this sacred and special meal of Holy Communion. Include yourself and your family attending Mass in your drawing.
