If You Asked Me About What I Learned . . . .

If someone asked you what you learned in religious education this year, you could give several very good answers.

1. You probably have many friends. Our friends love us, support us, and help us in difficult situations. Name one of your friends and write about one way your friend has helped you.

_____

Jesus is the best friend we could ever have. He always loves us and helps us. We pray so that we remember Jesus' care for us. Write about one time you have prayed this year and why that was helpful and comforting for you. _____

2. The greatest commandment tells us to treat others as we would want to be treated. What is one time this year that you treated another person very well?

Was that hard or easy to do? Why? _____

3. You did several Faith in Action activities this year, including listening to the Prayer of the Faithful at Mass, learning about holy people, preparing for Christmas, and preparing for Lent. What is one Faith in Action activity that you did that was fun? Why was it fun to do?
