If You Asked Me About What I Learned This Year. . . .

If someone asked you what you learned in religious education this year, there are a lot of good answers you could give.

1. What is one thing that you are grateful for, that you didn't think about being grateful for, before you had class this year?

2. Ask an adult to tell you one small thing that s/he is very grateful for. What adult do you talk with? What are they grateful for, and what makes her/him grateful for that one small thing?

I talked with _____ and that person is very grateful for

3. This year, you learned the story of Noah and the ark; the story of Moses; the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus; and Jessica Cox, the worlds' first certified armless pilot. Choose one of those and write one thing you learned or are wondering about from that story.

I chose _____ and from that I learned _____

4. You did several Faith in Action activities, including listening to the intercessions at Mass, sending a Thanksgiving card or letter to someone, looking at different images of the Nativity, chalking the door to celebrate the Epiphany, preparing for Lent, and learning about saints and other holy men and women. What is one Faith in Action activity that you enjoyed doing, and why did you like it?
