Pope Francis says that we are all called to be holy by living our lives with love, wherever we are. We remember the saints because they show us different ways that we can be holy. They remind us that holiness is for everyone.

Ask an adult to tell you about a saint that s/he considers to be important and how that saint lived her/his life with love for others. (Note to adults: the website <http://www.mycatholictube.com/videos/who-cares-about-the-saints/> gives several short videos you might enjoy about saints and holy men and women.)

What saint or holy person did the adult talk about? You might ask the adult to help you write this.

What is one way that you can live your life with love, as this saint or holy person did?

Draw a picture of yourself living your life with love, as this saint or holy person did.
